org success, socially as well as finan-cially. Mrs. Katherine A. Daly contributed to the day's festivities withi a military whist party. Guessis assembled for seven tables of the game, each table representing a fort of the different na-tions abroad. Gally colored flags were carried from table to table as the winners progressed, and attractive prizes were awarded the high scorers. The affair was planned as a greeting to a number of returned travelers. Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver, Mrs. Charles H. Runyon and Mrs. Ira T. Powers. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. J. M. Buckley and Miss Helen McCusker.

Mrs. Warren E. McCord also enter-tained a number of friends with a bridge party, followed by tea, yester-day afternoon. About $6 smartly gowned women enjoyed this charming matron's hospitality.

Mr. and Mrs. Franz X. Arens were the honor guests last night at a charm-ing dinner party 'fresided over by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger. Two young couples from Blaine, Wash, were taken into custody by the Portland police early yesterday morn-ing and will face accusations in the Municipal Court this morning. Lioyd Detwiler, age 19, and Howard Detwiler, age 22, were arrested with Miss Belle Mumm, age 23, and Miss Belle Vandermaik, age 21, in the Key-stone Hotel on Grand avenue, after ar-riving in Portland in an automobile from Washington. They at first said that they had come to Portland to get married, eloping from Bellingham, but when later interviewed by Deputy Dis-trict Attorney Robert R. Rankin, the girls said they had arranged to go on Eugene's leading woman's club, which makes a feature of studying timely problems, will take steps tomorrow to change part of the toples for discus-sion during the year because of the girls said they had arranged to go on an automobile tour with the brothers to the home of one of the girls in
