Portland Coast club, even though it costs the Beavers the pennant.

President McCredie issued this ultimatum yesterday, after publication of the star Portland pitcher's threat that he would sign with the Federals this week unless he received an alleged promised bonus for winning 30 games.

"We appreciate Higginbotham's great pitching this year, but not this effort of his to make us give him a bonus," said President McCredie. "We never promise bonuses. I did make him a substantial present a short while back, and now apparently he wants another. "If we could afford it, perhaps we might do something for Hig, but under the circumstances we cannot. Higginbotham did not confer with the local officials yesterday with reference to his bonus demand. Perhaps he has changed his mind about signing with the Feds since announcing his intentions Thursday afternoon.

Mallard hunters might have done well at Twenty-fourth and Vaughn streets yesterday, for the local ball-yard was a veritable young lake. As a result, the Portland-Angel resumption of activities was again postponed and double-headers are to be played today and Sunday.

AGGIE CAPTAIN IS SHIFTED

Coach Stewart Moves Hofer From Halfback to Fullback.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 2.—(Special.) — Coach Stewart's most recent change in the organization of his Aggie football squad has been the shifting of Captain "Gloomy Gus" Hofer from halfback to fullback. Hofer, originally a tackle, has been moved to the backfield, and for the past fortnight has been working at half. Last night he was sent in at fullback and seemed at home there.

Practice was fast, despite the fact that a number of regulars were out of the ranks for various reasons. The cripples who have been keeping "Doc" busy in the capacity of a Red Cross nurse are reported to be doing as well as could be expected.

It was announced that all the members of the squad had been pronounced by the faculty to be in good standing scholastically.

Although an American League plant, it will be used as the home grounds of the Boston Nationals through the courtesy of President Joseph J. Lannin, of the local American League club. It will be the first time in history of these world title contests that all the games of a series were played on American League grounds.

The little bandbox park at Walpole

The little bandbox park at Walpole

The little bandbox park at Waipele street, which has been the home of the Boston Nationals for many years, with seating arrangements stretched to the utmost of available space, could not possibly accommodate more than 22,000 persons. It is a relic of the baseball of other days, when crowds were counted great at 15,000.

The limited seating capacity was no less an objection to the use of the old grounds in the great series than was the limited confines of the playing field. Both left and right fields are much shorter from home plate than in modern parks, and short fences would be shining marks for balls sent flying from the hard-driven bats of a Frank Baker, an Eddie Collins or a Rube Oldring. This fact did not figure in the decision of President James E. Gaffney to accept the offer of President Lannin, but it was undowhrably ington County and Find Phease.

HILL ACADEMY AND HIGH SCHOOL

PLAY IN SEA OF MUD.

Teams Well Matched, but Heavy, Slippery Field Makes Playing Uncertain. Forty-Yard Run Nets First Score.

VANCOUVER, Wash, Oct. 2—(Special.)—Hill Military Academy and Vancouver High School football teams played a 6-to-6 tie game today, in a sea of mud on the local high school gridiron. The heavy, slippery field made the playing uncertain. The teams were well matched.

Vancouver made the first score in the first quarter, when A. Miller tackled Jones, Hill's left half, who dropped the ball. Ryan, Vancouver's left end, picked up the ball and slipped and ran 40 yards for a touchdown.

In the second period, by straight line bucks and a delayed fake, Hill was able to make a touchdown.

District Warden Irvin again sent out warnings to hunters that under the Federal laws the hunter must put away his gun and keep it away from sunset to sunrise.

Shooting a minute after the sun has gone under or a minute too early means a case before the Federal course.

And got the bucks and a delayed fake, Hill was able to make a touchdown.

For Vancouver, Terrill, Ryan, Stanley and McMullen made the best showing, while for Hill Graham, at right haif, and Jones, at left half, starred.
