OREGON SHARES HONORS

While Remarkable Performances in East Are Supplying Sensations Some of Speedsters Here Exhibit Great Class.

BY HARRY FRAZER SALEM, Or., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—The season of 1914 has been the greatest year that the harness turf has ever known; it has been a year of sensa-tions. World's records have been es Charles, 1. 3 0 14 00 tions. World's records have been established and shattered day after day. Schmidt, 2 0 3 11 The year has been the beginning of the two-minute epoch of racing, no less than three horses having flashed through that seemingly impenetrable barrier. First at Grand Rapids that wonder of all wonders, William only a 4-year-old colt, paced a mile in an open race in 2:00 flat; then Directum a 4-year-old colt, paced a mile in an open race in 2:00 flat; then Directum followed with two miles in one race, both in 2:00; then Frank Bogash, that speed demon of Tommy Murphy, lowered his already fast mark of 2:01 to 1:59½ at Syracuse. ## OPEN GAME IS TESTED

HARVARD PASSES ALMOST EQUAL PLUNGES AND END RUNS.

With One or Two Exceptions Eastern Teams Are Better Developed Than On This Date Last Year.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4,-That the Eastern college and university football shown in the contests Saturday. Forward passing, both from mass and widespread formations, was almost as common as line plunges and end runs. The teams of both the large and small institutions used the play repeatedly, the success or failure of the maneuver depending more on the defense of the teams are testing the so-called open depending more on the defense of the opponent than the method of deploying the offense.

The upset which marked the play among the major elevens cannot, however, be charged entirely to this style of game, which Eastern coaches here-tofore have hesitated to adopt except as a secondary form of attack. The de-feat of Pennsylvania by Franklin and Marshall came as the result of the powerful offense and defense of the latter coupled with the ability to follow the Forward Pass Beats Cornell. Colgate's triumph over Corneli was due to much the same condition, although the winning score was made on a short forward pass, following a return run of a kick-off. Fumbling by Cornell at critical stages nullified many
