

FIRE SCATTERING IN BATTLE OF NAGO

Only Casualties of General Hill One Dead, Three Wounded by Own Men.

DEFENDER EXPECTS HELP

Arizona Town Across Border Suffers From Bad Marksmanship of Mexicans—Cavalry Patrol Still Turns Fugitives Back.

NAGO, Sonora, Mexico, Oct. 5.—Scattering, ineffective fire from both sides constituted the day's programme in Governor Maytorena's attack on Nago, where General Benjamin Hill has been entrenched for a week awaiting the assault. Hill's casualties were one killed and three wounded, but by his own fire.

Nago, Ariz., adjoining the besieged town across the American border, is almost as much of a sufferer as this place. Bad marksmanship on the part of the attackers and the proximity of the town have combined to make the American streets hazardous. Sightseers have been stopped a mile outside the town.

Cavalry Patrol Stops Fugitives. The Ninth United States cavalry border patrol is actively keeping back the wounded Mexicans, who have been constantly seeking to cross the line, and also striving to prevent American curiosity from being fatal.

On the east of Nago, Maytorena has deployed cavalry which arrived from Cananea late today. On the west of the town the Yaqui Indians are spread out, keeping up a desultory fire which strikes the Arizona town as often as the object of their aim. Renewed requests from Hill for permission to take his wounded across the border have been refused, both by Colonel Guilfoyle, commanding the Ninth cavalry, and by the State Department at Washington.

Hill Expects Reinforcements. However, Hill says he has received assurances that the United States will allow shipments of ammunition across the border to him to continue while he is besieged.

Reinforcements from Agua Prieta are expected late tonight by Hill. He then plans a cavalry sortie to engage the enemy. Several small guns are in action on both sides. Today Hill said his fire had silenced two of the enemy's guns, but he feared to make a sortie to take them.

The closing in of Maytorena's troops is taken to mean that he will make a serious assault soon. One trooper of the border patrol was wounded by a stray bullet tonight.

CARRANZA SEEKS RECOGNITION

Loan of $100,000,000 Awaits Wilson's Sanction Is Reported.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 4.—John R. Silliman, Francis Wilson, personal representative of Carranza, and Richard H. Cole, personal friend of Venustiano Carranza, Provisional President of Mexico, passed through here today, each en route to Washington on a hurried mission concerning the Mexican situation. Mr. Cole was quite frank about his mission to Washington. "I am going to seek recognition for the Carranza government," he said, "and what I anticipate no trouble in getting it."

"With Carranza as head of the civil government of Mexico and Villa as head of the military government, there would be peace in Mexico within 20 minutes, and it would be a permanent peace. Villa and Carranza will never come to blows because there is a strong mutual admiration between them. The present controversy between the chiefs was caused not by Villa, but by the backing of him. The fact that Villa has not yet attacked Carranza is proof of his patriotism and admiration of the man."

"American capital is ready now to recognize Carranza. To my knowledge a loan of $100,000,000 has been won by American bankers, who are waiting only for the Washington Government to recognize him."

CONFERENCE TO BE DECISIVE

Washington Thinks Peace Turns on Action at Aguas Calientes.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The conference which opens tomorrow at Aguas Calientes between representatives of Carranza and Villa must decide whether there is to be peace in Mexico or not, is the opinion of officials here.

Neither Administration officials nor constitutional officials attach much significance to the action of the conference of southern chiefs in Mexico City yesterday in refusing to accept the resignation of General Carranza as first chief. It was pointed out that, had the resignation been accepted, it would have left the government without any official head and seriously complicated the situation.

That Fernando Iglesias Calderon, despite his refusal to accept the provisional government in the manner in which the division of the north offered it to him, would assume that office was firmly believed. Commenting on the arrival of John R. Silliman at St. Louis today, State Department officials said tonight that his trip to Washington was not at the direction of the department. They did not know why he was coming.

MADERO'S BROTHER AVENGED

Execution of Sandoval Due to Implication in Killing.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 4.—Jose Bonafide Sandoval, court-martialed and executed at Jimenez, Mexico, several days ago, was put to death because of his alleged implication in the killing of Gustavo Madero in Mexico City. This was announced here today at the headquarters of the faction which supported Ex-President Huerta in the recent revolution.

Sandoval left El Paso early last week to confer with Villa, presumably as the representative of Felix Diaz. Nothing was heard from him until dispatches told of his execution. It was declared by his representatives in behalf of Diaz.

rests upon fear, whereas all history proves the contrary. "Continuous preparation for war presupposes the existence of an enemy who must be hated until he can be overcome, but hatred begets hatred, and revenge is the heaviest load that mankind can carry.

Responsibility Denied Significant

"Most of the errors which man commits in international affairs arise from failure to understand the fundamental truth that moral principles are as binding upon nations as upon individuals. A nation is but a group of individuals, and no group, however numerous, can expunge one syllable of the moral law.

"One of the encouragements to be drawn from the present European conflict is to be found in the fact that the governments involved vie with each other in refusing to admit that they began it. We have taken a long step in advance when a civilized nation will admit a crime for which it confesses an intention to inaugurate it."

In conclusion, the Secretary said:

Mediation Is Yet Hope.

"Man has spent a considerable part of his time in the work of destruction. In the day that is dawning he can devote all his efforts to production. There is as much inspiration in a noble life as in a heroic death."

The president then expressed hope that mediation would eventually settle the European struggle.

"A month ago," he said, "Secretary Bryan, under the direction of the President, encouraged by a statement made by an Ambassador of one of the powers, conferred informally with the other powers to whether they were ready to accept the President's tender of good offices. While the time is not yet ripe for discussion of the subject, we may hope that these negotiations may have had the effect of lifting the latch on the door of mediation, so that, without the initiative of either side, at the first opportunity that door may readily be thrown open."

Pope's Advice Unheeded. Cardinal Farley, making his first public appearance at St. Patrick's cathedral since his return from Rome, said that if Europe had heeded Pope Pius X the war never would have started.

At the cathedral of St. John the Divine, Bishop Greer asserted that although all methods heretofore tried have failed to insure universal peace, the principles laid down by Christ have yet to be applied to diplomacy and politics, and that until such principles are applied the world never will be sure of peace.

The closing in of Maytorena's troops is taken to mean that he will make a serious assault soon. One trooper of the border patrol was wounded by a stray bullet tonight.

VIENNA HOSPITALS FULL

PROVISION TO BE MADE FOR 10,000 MORE WOUNDED.

VIENNA, via Paris, Oct. 4.—The Vienna hospitals and 11 temporary asylums for sick and wounded soldiers are fearfully crowded. The City Council has decided to build additional wooden barracks hospitals, which will be furnished with 10,000 beds.

The great block of buildings comprising the University of Vienna has been given over entirely to wounded soldiers. The students now meet in improvised lecture rooms in various public buildings.

The army of destitute and unemployed people in the Austrian capital is increasing daily. Thousands are threatened with starvation. The authorities estimate that it will be necessary to provide free meals for 100,000 persons daily, and measures are being taken to carry this into effect.

Owing to the rapid advance in the price of meat and the shortage of livestock the City Council has asked the government to permit the importation of 1000 tons of Argentine beef.

PORTLAND CHINESE WITNESS HANGED

Card on Body in Seattle Indicates Suicide, but Detectives Scent Murder.

ARREST AND DEATH LINKED

Ching Gow, Suspected of Having Shot Smuggling Testifier, Found Dead After ex-Deputy Is Taken for Alleged Bribe Attempt.

SEATTLE, Oct. 4.—Ching Gow, a Portland Chinese, who, United States officers say, was the gunman who killed Lum Kong, a witness in the Chinese smuggling case against former Immigration Interpreter Frank Tape, was found dead in a room in a hotel in the Oriental quarter today. Federal detectives believe the Chinese was murdered.

Ching Gow's body was found hanging from the door casing of his room here. Evidence gathered by Government officers caused them to declare positively that it is a case of murder.

Ex-Deputy Arrested.

Ching Gow's death was learned a few hours after it became known that Harting Norman, a former deputy sheriff, had been arrested for an alleged attempt to bribe a deputy United States Marshal to give Norman a list of the Government's witnesses in the Tape case. Government detectives are of the opinion that Norman's arrest and their activity in running down clues concerning Lum Kong's murder, hastened the Chinese involved in the case and prompted them to put Ching Gow out of the way, fearing that he would be caught and would implicate them.

The identification of Ching Gow as the gunman, who killed Lum Kong a week ago, was made by Immigration Inspector Thomas M. Fisher. Lum Kong in his dying statement told Mr. Fisher that Ching Gow was his assassin.

Murder, Say Detectives.

When Ching Gow's body was found it was still warm. The Chinese apparently had dressed hastily, for his shoes were unfastened. His hands were bruised in two places, but the police have not determined whether this had anything to do with his death. Federal detectives are inclined to the belief that Ching Gow was drugged and then hanged to give the impression that he had committed suicide.

In the dead gunman's hand was a card signed "Ching Gow" and on which was written "Let Dan Free (China Dan)." His innocent, the men rent the room for me. They don't know I done."

China Dan is said to be a leader of the Hip Sing Tong, but this is denied by members of the tong. What connection China Dan has, if any, has not been disclosed.

Ching Gow had been in Seattle two months. To all inquirers he said he came from Portland. Immigration inspectors believe he recently had been arrested in that city.

Hartig Norman, the ex-Deputy Sheriff arrested last night in connection with the Tape case, is in jail in default of $5000 bond.

Late last night when Norman was arrested Federal detectives announced that Norman had confessed offering a $2000 bribe to United States Marshal Anderson and that he had said Tape had $5000 with which to purchase a list of the Government's witnesses. The detectives also asserted that they had evidence that the morning of September 26 Lum Kong was offered $200 if he would obtain a list of the witnesses at 2 o'clock that afternoon. Lum Kong refused and at 2:45 P. M. was shot.

China Dan, who was prominent in Chinatown and whose identity is asked in the note purporting to have been written by Ching Gow, disappeared soon after Lum Kong was killed and although he has been rumored that he was mentioned in Lum Kong's last statement, Government agents have refused to confirm this and have denied that China Dan was being held incommunicado pending the arrest of others in the alleged conspiracy.

ASIATIC RECORD HERE BAD

Ching Gow Involved in Smuggling of Nephew Into Portland.

Ching Gow, the Portland Chinese, believed to have been murdered in Seattle, was accused of killing Lum Kong, the Government witness whose testimony was responsible for the arrest of Immigration Interpreter Frank Tape. Kong also brought about the deportation of Ching Gow's nephew, whose immigration certificates were shown to have been forged.

The Portland police have been looking for Ching Gow since the shooting of Lum Kong, September 26, and were working on information which indicated that he might be in Portland. Mr. Wilson, who is a native of Oregon, educated in the Portland schools and spoke English fluently. He moved to Seattle recently and for some time was treasurer of the Hip Sing Tong in that city.

Lum Kong, who, it is said, was shot by Ching Gow, also had visited Portland. His testimony before Government officials was responsible for the deportation of two Portland Chinese merchants, who, it was alleged, had come into this country without proper credentials.

Ching Gow wanted to bring his nephew from China last year. He had a brother there and the brother obtained an immigration certificate. Ching Gow's nephew came over on his brother's certificate. Lum Kong, it was declared, found out about the illegal transfer and notified the authorities, implicating Immigration Interpreter Frank Tape. Tape was arrested and Gow's nephew was deported.

Lum Kong was shot twice September 25 in the Chinatown of Seattle. In his dying statement he said Ching Gow had shot him. Ching Gow had eluded the authorities until yesterday.

Cabinet Ladies in Cotton.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Women of the Cabinet circle and in official life generally, especially those from the South, continue enthusiastic in the preparation for the cotton fashions show here next week, which they have planned as one means of stimulating activity in the South's greatest interest, now depressed by the European war.

Mrs. Josephus Daniels, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, has arranged a North Carolina exhibit, which will include a cotton gown made by herself. Many society belles of the capital will put aside silks and satins for cotton gowns in furtherance of the movement.

EDITOR HARVEY AND PRESIDENT CONFER

Differences Arising Prior to Nomination, in 1911, Not Mentioned at Meeting.

WILSON SENDS INVITATION

War Situation in Europe and Plans for Fall Campaign Are Discussed. "Peace Sunday" Celebrated With Harmony.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—President Wilson and George Harvey, former editor of Harper's Weekly, but now of the North American Review, whose attacks on Mr. Wilson led Mr. Harvey to withdraw his support from Mr. Wilson for the Presidential nomination, furnished one of the chief incidents of Mr. Wilson's campaign for the Presidency, celebrated "Peace Sunday" today by a harmony meeting at the White House.

It was their first meeting since their talk in 1911 in the presence of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, which gave rise to Mr. Watterson's later attacks on Mr. Wilson and led Mr. Harvey to support Speaker Clark for the Presidential nomination.

Mr. Harvey called at the White House at the invitation of Mr. Wilson to discuss the European situation and the Fall campaign. In the last issue of this magazine Mr. Harvey praised the President's attitude since the outbreak of war in Europe and suggested that he wait patiently for the psychological moment to urge peace. He also advocated the election of a Democratic Senate and House in November.

Mr. Wilson, who remained in conference more than an hour in the President's study. It was said at the White House later that the meeting was most friendly, and that past differences were not referred to.

In December, 1911, Mr. Wilson, then Governor of New Jersey, talked with Mr. Harvey and Henry Watterson in a New York club. The three were fast friends and the editors worked together in Mr. Wilson's interest in New Jersey.

Watterson Statement Recalled.

In January, 1912, Mr. Watterson issued the statement which informed the public for the first time that there had been a breach at the club conference between Mr. Wilson and the two Colonels, as they came to be styled. Watterson referred to Governor Wilson as "a schoolmaster, not a statesman," and said he had treated the two veteran Democratic editors as if they were schoolboys.

The charge of ingratitude was made, the statement relating that when asked by Harvey whether the support of Harper's Weekly was embarrassing him, Governor Wilson had replied that it was.

WAR PENSIONS SUGGESTED

Labor Leader Favors $5 Weekly for Disabled Britons.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Every man permanently disabled in the war and unable to follow his former occupation ought to receive $5 a week during his life, in the opinion of George Nicoll Barnes, the labor leader and a member of Parliament for the Black Friars Division of Glasgow.

Mr. Barnes advocated this plan at a mass meeting tonight. Heretofore, he said, the government was giving serious consideration to the subject of these unfortunate, and a like situation would not again exist. He estimated that the sum which the government would be called upon to pay the dependents of breadwinners in the field would not reach $25,000,000. Accordingly, he added, the government had not erred on the side of generosity.

MILL RECEIVES BIG ORDER

Western Hardwood Company Will Move Machinery to Morton.

MORTON, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—The Western Hardwood Mill Company, whose plant is located at Highland Valley, some three miles from here, will remove its operations to this city this Fall, adding materially to the local payroll.

It has just received an order for 5,000,000 feet of general mill-run stuff, which, with the business already on hand, will keep its mill operating steadily for three years.

KEEP WHAT YOU GAIN

Most people who have but a small reserve of strength feel better in Summer than in Winter. The vitality gained during the out-of-door season carries them through the trying weather of Winter and early Spring until there comes a time when the stored-up reserve strength is not sufficient.

How, then, shall we keep and add to the reserve of strength that means so much? By taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the blood and nerve tonic, to strengthen and sustain the system so that it can keep all the strength that it has gained and gain more. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and enable it to carry nourishment to every part of the body. Many disorders that have proved stubborn for years have been reached by this tonic treatment. Try these pills for debility, nervousness, headache, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, rheumatism, anæmia or any other condition caused or aggravated by thin blood and weak nerves. LANDING IS REPORTED

ROME HEARS RUMOR OF INVASION OF ALBANIA PORT.

Second Circulation of Story Follows Official Denial of Intended Occupation.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram Company from Rome, says the Vittoria, has published a special edition saying a rumor is in circulation that Italian sailors were landed at Avlona, a seaport of Albania, on the Adriatic, on Friday. There is no confirmation of the rumor.

A dispatch from Trieste by a Paris newspaper September 13 said Italian troops were disembarking at Avlona. This movement was because of the disturbed conditions following the abdication of Prince William of Wied, Kiamli Eibassan, at the head of 4000 insurgents, was reported to have threatened to sack Avlona.

Later the Albanian state was reported to have elected Prince Burhan-Eddin, son of the ex-Sultan, Abdul Hamid, Prince of Albania.

Rumors that Italy would forthwith occupy Avlona followed, but September 28 it was officially announced in Rome that the question of Turkish intervention in Albania had been overshadowed by the greater question involving the whole of the Adriatic, and it was denied that an Italian expedition to Avlona was imminent.

General Von Trotha Killed.
