GOOD SCORES MADE IN RAIN. Guardsmen Carry On Rifle Practice Despite Rain.

Rain did not dampen the ardor of 65 National Guard riflemen, who left their Army during a shower early yesterday morning and spent the day on the target range at Clackamas, paying no attention to a continual drizzle and intermittent showers.

The organizations which responded were companies B, D, E, and F, of the 1st Infantry, and Eighth Company of Coast Artillery Reserve, each sending a detachment of men who had not yet completed their record scores.

The firing line was in command of Captain W. F. Daugherty, of E Company. The firing was at 200, 500, 500 and 600 yards, slow fire, and 200 and 500 yards, rapid fire. The entire course was completed and 40 of those on the line were qualified as marksmen, sharpshooters or expert riflemen.

Money held war power. E. L. McClure, Financial Authority, Speaks at Westminster Church.

To insure permanent peace the power of money must be destroyed. This was the import of a brief address delivered by E. L. McClure, writer on international questions, at Westminster Presbyterian Church yesterday.

"Peace, peace, and there is no peace," said Mr. McClure, "nor will there be until the power of money is the sole arbiter that divides the mighty contests of warfare. There is only one power greater and that is money power. It is the constant concern of everyone to get money to satisfy human necessities and desires. No government can move a man or a ship without money and any nation whose credit has been destroyed is doomed to inevitable defeat by the enemy which has unlimited credit, no matter how great may be the army and navy of the bankrupt nation."
