

OCTOBER 27 MAY BE RECALL VOTE DATE

City Auditor Barbur to Set Last Day Within Law if Test Isn't Ordered.

RUSHLIGHT DECIDES TODAY

Dan Kellaher Also Likely to Enter if ex-Mayor Files—Whether Preferential System Applies Is Question to Be Decided.

Unless legal steps are taken to test the recall amendment to the state constitution the recall election against Mayor Albee and City Commissioners Dieck and Brewster will be held Oct. 27. That was the announcement Saturday of City Auditor Barbur, whose duty it is, under the recall, to call a special election within 25 days after the filing of recall petitions.

Under the recall law an officer against whom a recall petition is filed is given five days to resign. Refusal to resign makes an election necessary within 20 days after the expiration of the five days. Auditor Barbur says there is such a complication of affairs to attend to that he proposes to hold off the election until the last day of the period.

Three Aspirants Filed. The three men selected as recall candidates, B. E. Kennedy, W. A. Leet and H. E. Abry, filed their nominating petitions with City Auditor Barbur yesterday. On the petitions are the names of a number of policemen who were discharged last fall by Mayor Albee for gambling. Among the petition signers are Joe Singer, ex-market inspector, who was discharged; J. C. Lane, a sanitary inspector who lost out; Seneca Pouta, Lou Carpenter, C. J. Ruppert, R. F. Staack and Guy E. Fuller. Ruppert, Staack and Fuller are ex-policemen.

A question has come up as to whether the preferential system of voting applied to a recall election the same as to a regular election. City Attorney Leitch says the preferential system prevails, as the charter says the preferential system is stipulated for general and special elections.

The same view is expressed by other attorneys, including Richard W. Montague. The question will be looked into further, inasmuch as it is considered important, because, if it does not apply, no other recall candidates than those now named can enter.

Rushlight May Aspire. Although ex-Mayor Rushlight has not announced his candidacy in the recall as yet, he admitted last night that he is considering it. When called on the telephone and asked if he was ready to announce his candidacy, he said: "Not tonight." He said he was urging him to run and that he would make his decision today. In case he enters it is believed that Dan Kellaher will file, too. Mr. Kellaher has stated upon several occasions that he proposes to be a candidate for Mayor every time Mr. Rushlight is a candidate.

An evening paper said last night that George B. Thomas was to be a candidate for Commissioner. This is denied by Mr. Thomas. "I was solicited by the recall committee and was asked to be a candidate," said Mr. Thomas, "but I turned it down flatly. I do not think that it is right in this instance. I certainly want it understood I am not and will not be a candidate."

Mayor Regrets Expense.

Mayor Albee said yesterday he desires to have the recall election held and will not favor any move to stop it. "I am not afraid to go before the voters in a recall campaign," said the Mayor. "My only regret is that the city will have to pay out about $20,000 for the election. These recall hearings have been holding up for months and they have hurt the city and state. Personally I am for holding the election. The public knows or will know the motives behind the recall, and the persons behind it, which will be sufficient in itself."

Discharged Men Active.

Another of the men interested in the recall is John C. Lane, who lost his position as meat inspector when an ordinance was passed requiring meat inspectors to be graduate veterinarians. Still others are ex-policemen, who have been dismissed by Mayor Albee and the civil service board for various offenses. At the head of the committee is M. E. Gibson, who was a candidate against the Mayor. Lou Carpenter, a detective and ex-policeman; Joe Singer, a discharged member of the health department, and a number of others are expected to be identified with the movement.

Neuhausen Not in It.

"My name has been used by Mr. Kennedy," said Mr. Neuhausen, "in connection with the recall movement. I show that Mayor Albee refused to pay his election bills. I will say that I believe the whole thing is a misunderstanding. "When I was made chairman of the Progressive party we wanted to get a clean candidate, who stood a chance of winning for the Progressive party. We selected Mr. Albee and urged him to run. We assured him that his campaign would not cost him a cent. He consented to run and he won the nomination. That was in the primary campaign. Mayor Albee says it was his understanding that the assertion of the election costing him nothing meant for the regular election campaign, as well as the primary campaign. Mr. Kennedy says it covered only the nominating election. "I think it is a misunderstanding. At any rate I consider the whole thing unimportant, as the entire campaign bills amounted to only about $24, and the bills were paid. I can see no reason for making the thing public."

Dinner Dance at Club Wednesday.

The fourth dinner dance at the Commercial Club will be held next Wednesday. These dances are becoming more popular each week. George E. Waggoner will have charge and several specialties will be introduced.

Father to Aid Son.

P. C. Roach, father of Bert Roach, arrested in Portland yesterday, is in New York City. The elder Roach is general manager of the Yawman-Erbe Company, a large furniture concern. He telegraphed Detective Swennes from Ogden, Utah, Saturday saying that he was prepared to put up a strong defense for his son. Roach, Berger and Arellanes face a statutory charge, subject to a sentence of from two to 20 years upon conviction. Lober and Davis are charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl, an indictable misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of from $50 to $1000 or imprisonment for three months to one year, or both. A person who refused to give his name, telephoned Deputy District Attorney Deich yesterday, desiring that he speak with the authority of Lober and Davis. He said the ballplayers were willing to plead guilty provided they were fined and their sentences did not entail incarceration in jail. Actor Climbs Rapidly. Roach, it is said, only recently entered the theatrical profession. Play-

Prayer for Peace Said.

"In conclusion," said Father Lawler, "we have been asked by the President to join in universal prayer that peace may be restored in our brother nations across the water, now engaged in terrible combat. The United States is a cosmopolitan Nation, made up in blood and of the nations now engaged in war, and they are our brothers. In our own peace and prosperity may we join our prayers that these nations engaged in strife may harken to our call and be reconciled and peace may come." The procession of the holy rosary

That Portland's new municipal purchasing bureau saved the city $57,034.50 during the first year of Commission government is the declaration of Purchasing Agent Wood in a statement submitted Saturday to City Commissioner Bigelow. Adding to this the amount which has been saved by the City Council which has handled some of the purchases, Mr. Wood gives $80,754.28 as the net saving to the city the first year of Commission government. Mr. Wood says that the total purchases of the department were $543,055.20, while the Council purchased $27,000.50, making a total for both of $570,055.70. There was no saving on purchases of $44,525.57 of this total, the materials having a fixed cost. The saving on the total purchases, the statement says, was $57,034.50. Adding to this a sum of $10,000 which Mr. Wood says was saved in repairs to the old fireboat, the total saving is given as $67,034.50. The cost of the purchasing bureau was $9,973.52. Subtracting this amount from the saving as given, Mr. Wood shows that the net saving was $57,061.03. "The most remarkable saving shown was headed by priests clothed in their sacerdotal robes, boys with candles, banners and crosses attending them. As they marched from the church they were joined by the Sunday school classes, members of the Holy Names Society, the St. John's Society and finally by the congregation, the procession encircling the church block.

War Victory Creates Feast.

In memory of the victory gained by Christian arms at the battle of Lepanto Pope Pius V. established the feast of the rosary, which is usually observed the first Sunday in October. The Pope, according to Catholic history, was moved to establish the special feast because this victory, saving Europe from the peril of a Moslem invasion, was won the day on which devout elements of the rosary were gathered in the churches of Christendom, praying for victory for Christian arms. Establishment of the feast of the rosary was the confirmation of this form of devotion by the Pope in honor of St. Dominic, founder of the Friars Order. The month of October, according to the usages of the Catholic Church, is specially devoted to the devotion of the holy rosary, the observance dating back to the first Sunday in October, 1571. Devotions in honor of the rosary will continue until November 2, the feast of all souls.

The rosary or beads were introduced in their present form by St. Dominic, and the propagation of this world-wide devotion has always been in the hands of the Dominican Fathers.

is on the stationary account," says Mr. Wood. "The total saving for the year was $15,345.99. On these items we are able to get an accurate check. We have looked up the vouchers to ascertain the average price paid for year previous to the Commission form of government and compared those with the average price paid by us. We have perhaps saved hundreds of dollars that cannot be shown. It is reasonable to believe that by keeping a close check on the stock, as we have done, we have been able to save several hundred dollars when required for use, that the waste has been much less than under the previous arrangement. "I feel that we have been hampered in the department by not having sufficient labor to get the best results, and in submitting our budget for the next fiscal year I have requested an additional telephone boy to assist the price clerk in setting prices. We feel that we can make a much better showing for the second year, for the reason that we have at this time an efficient department. You must realize that we had many obstacles to overcome in the organization of this bureau. Most of our clerks were inexperienced, and it has taken a good deal of time and labor to educate them along purchasing lines; therefore, we were not in condition to give as good service to the city as we will be during the second year."

BATTLE BREAKS PEACE DAY

Woodman on Burnside Disregard Proclamation and One Locked Up.

The peace and quietude of Peace Sunday, as observed according to the proclamation of Mayor Albee, was rudely disturbed by Fred Wilson, "the Moose of the Woods," as he is known to Strasse Burnside brigade, yesterday when the big woodman, according to the police, insisted on ruffling the feelings, as well as the physical being, of H. M. Jensen. Patrolman Sims interferred. "What do you fellows mean by disturbing the peace and natural quiet of Burnside?" he asked disgustedly, and then added, "and this bein' Peace Sunday?" "What do I care about yer Peace Sunday?" answered the warlike Wilson. He was taken to the peace station at Second and Oak streets, where he is charged with assault and battery. There are 10 bridges formed by nature in the United States. Their formation is caused by the current of streams running through rocks.
