Senate Adopts Conference Report on Trust Bill, 32 to C4.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Adminis-tration anti-trust programme was completed in the Senate Monday, when the conference report on the Clayton anti-trust bill was agreed to by a vote of 35 to 24. The Senate voted down a motion by Senator Reed, of Missourl, to recommit the bill to conference.

Senator Reed's motion contemplated the reinstatement of criminal penalties for violation of sections specifying methods of competition declared unlawful.

The conference report will now go to the House, where its adoption with but brief debate is expected.

Three Democrats voted against the report. Senators Lane, Martine and Reed. Six Democrats voted for the Reed motion to recommit. They were Senators Lane, Martine, Reed, Thomas, Vardaman and Williams.

Senator Root was the only Republican who voted against both the Reed motion and the motion to agree.

As finally agreed to, the bill forbids price discrimination, limits interlocking directorates and prohibits holding companies where the effect is to "destroy or substantially lessen competition." The bill also declares that "the labor of a human being is not a commodity or article of commerce" and exempts labor and farmers' unions from the operation of the Sherman anti-trust law. It revises the law regulating contempt of court and the use of injunctions in labor disputes, making reforms long demanded by organized labor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The Sussex (N. J.) County Board of Freeholders has decided not to permit Mrs. Susan Bayles, 45 years old, cook at the county almshouse, to leave the institution, because she is too good a cook and because she is too good a cook and because the county recently spent $100 to have a cataract removed from her eye, and she will be held until she has worked long enough to repay the county.

Mrs. Patrick Flynn, of New Village, Warren County, petitioned the Board for the release of Mrs. Bayles, but Stoward Dickinson recommended that she be not allowed to leave, as her cooking is the best that has ever been tasted at the almshouse.
