

Society News

By Gertrude P. Corbett

THE bright sunshine and invigorating air called forth many of the smart set yesterday on walking and motoring trips. Several parties were made up in the morning and the out-of-doors, the beauty of the hills in their autumnal tints, the many lakes, and the snow-clad mountains and the vast rivers and valleys were admired by several visitors who shared the pleasures of the day. Mrs. John Kollock entertained the members of the Walking Club at luncheon at her home on Council Crest. A hike out the Barnes road across country was the diversion of the morning. Those in the party were: Mrs. Morris H. Whitehouse, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. David A. Shindler, Mrs. Frederick Green, Mrs. James McCord and Mrs. Kollock. Other members of this club are: Mrs. Matson and Mrs. Whitehouse.

If all prognostications prove true the Friday Night Club parties this season will be more popular than ever. The dates for the series of six have been set, and the first will be held Friday night, October 16, at the home of Mrs. Elliott Ruggles Corbett, Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming, Mrs. C. C. Hindman, Mrs. John K. Kollock, Mrs. W. E. Weaver, Mrs. W. H. Lines, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Mrs. Erskine Wood.

Mrs. and Mrs. Otto Prael will entertain a coterie of friends of the married set at a card party tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hodson have issued invitations for the evening of October 17, when they will be host and hostess at a smart social affair.

Auction bridge will be the attraction Tuesday, October 20, both afternoon and evening, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Weaver, 323 East Twelfth street North. Arrangements have been made for 18 tables, and the affair, which will be on an elaborate scale, is being given for the benefit of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, Irvington.

Invitations have been issued by the Harriman Club for their annual ball. It will be held in Coddington Hall on October 16, and will mark the opening of the social activities of this club for the winter.

The girls of the Cadet Club of Oregon Assembly, No. 1, United Artisans, announce their opening dancing party to be given in the Selling-Hirsch Hall this evening at 8:30 P. M. The patronesses for the evening are: Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Deering and Mrs. Buchanan. The committee includes Clara Henderson, Jeanette Raley, Norma Hummel, Gladys C. Long, Irene Hansen, Essie Shinn, Irene Raley and Hilda Lipkey. Everybody welcome.

All loyal Germans and their friends and others who are interested in helping swell the fund of the German Red Cross Society are planning to attend the play to be given in Deutsches Haus on Thursday night of next week. Those who cannot be present, in many instances, will send in their checks for the evening. The entertainment is planned by the Women's Auxiliary to the Red Cross organization. The younger set will find special interest in the play, which will be the event of Saturday night. This festivity will be held in Deutsches Haus and will be a gala event. A number of prominent women will serve as patronesses.

A novel and pretty wedding ceremony was performed at Lents last evening in the presence of many invited guests when R. S. Hummel, veteran of the Civil War, and Mrs. Margaret E. Wilson, past president of Shiloh Circle No. 19, Ladies of the G. A. R., Lents, were married at the home of the bride, Campbell street and Lewis avenue. Rev. William Moore, pastor of the Lents M. E. Church, officiating.

Guests approached the house through an archway of flags and the ceremony was performed beneath a drapery of the National colors and beside a large Grand Army flag.

Behind a bank of Autumn leaves, dahlias and chrysanthemums an orchestra played military music and the rousing bugle call which stirred the hearts of the "Boys of '61" replaced the wedding march.

Mr. and Mrs. Hummel are natives of Ohio, from which state the bridegroom and Mrs. Hummel's former husband enlisted, and have resided here for the past ten years. The couple will reside at Lents.

At a quiet church ceremony yesterday, celebrated at 10 o'clock mass in St. Mary's Cathedral, Miss Charlotte Elizabeth Maher became the bride of Raymond Willis Cobb, the Rev. Father E. V. O'Hare officiating. Miss Collins attended as maid of honor and George Cobb was his brother's best man. Only relatives and close friends attended the marriage. Mrs. Cobb is an attractive young woman, with a host of friends in Portland. She is the daughter of the late W. J. Maher. Mr. Cobb is an inspector in the Government employ. After an extended wedding trip the couple will reside in the Rex Arms apartment.

Mrs. George L. Powell, of Astoria, who has been at Shipper's Springs for a month, is now stopping at the Hotel Perkins.

The marriage of Miss Pauline Nesmith and Franklin Southwick, of Salem, will be an event of today.

The Gymna Club will hold its first dance tonight in Christensen's Hall. A large attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Banfield will entertain tonight in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, of Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin and Mrs. E. W. Weaver, all of whom have recently returned from abroad. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Banfield gave an elaborate bridge tea at her home on Portland Heights. She was assisted by the Misses Sadie and Charlotte Banfield and Miss Irene Yerex. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Banfield was admired in an imported gown of green charmeuse. Miss Yerex and Miss Charlotte Banfield gave several charming duets during the afternoon. Mrs. Marshall Grenfell and Mrs. E. A. Beals won highest honors at cards.

POPULAR MATRON WHO IS ON MUSIC COMMITTEE OF PORTLAND PSYCHOLOGY CLUB.

Mrs. Julia Helene Swenson. Erickson Photo.

have been made to care for small children. At 3 o'clock Mrs. E. M. Tuttle will address the circle on "Home Decoration." The schoolroom that is instrumental in bringing the most part to the meeting is to receive a potted plant as a prize. Guests will please register with the captain of the room. Plans for a Halloween social will be made and a large attendance is desired.

A community sing will be held tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in Montavilla school. After the music there will be a discussion regarding the measures to be voted upon at the coming election. The speakers will be W. F. O'Henry, Henry Wembridge and Lowell Bradford.

Highland Parent-Teacher Association will meet on Friday at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Thomas G. Greene will preside.

Women's Clubs

By Edith Knight Holmes

An auspicious event of yesterday afternoon was the meeting of the Portland section of the Council of Jewish Women, which was held in the new B'nai B'rith building. The address of welcome was delivered by Rabbi Jonah B. Wise, who spoke in behalf of the association and who urged the women to feel at home in the building.

He invited them and their friends to inspect the various halls and rooms after the meeting. An excellent programme was given, including an address by the president, Mrs. Isaac Swett; a group of brilliant soprano solos by Mrs. Fred Olson, accompanied by Miss Claire Oakes, and some readings by Miss Henrietta Janet Smuckler. Mrs. Swett made a plea for renewed interest in the Neighborhood House and told of the splendid work that institution is doing. Mrs. Olson's songs included "At Parting" (Rogers), "Little Pink Rose" (Bond), "A Memory" (Park), "I Hear a Thrush at Evon" (Caldman). The acoustics of the hall proved to be perfect. The rooms are all light and airy and will be ideal for social gatherings. After the programme yesterday coffee, tea and cakes were served. The table was centered with a large basket of Autumn fruits, artistically arranged. Presiding at the table were Mrs. F. Steinhart, Mrs. L. Altman, Mrs. Hart Ackerman and Mrs. Nemerovsky. Several attractively-gowned young matrons and maids assisted about the table. Mrs. Altman, Mrs. Hart Ackerman and Mrs. Nemerovsky were guests of the council. The afternoon was in the nature of a happy reunion of friends and a housewarming for the new club quarters.

Mrs. Nettie Greer Taylor and Mrs. J. E. Boynton will be delegates from the Monday Musical Club to the state convention.

Several of the leading clubwomen are so much interested in the coming section that they have decided to give their maids an opportunity to share their enthusiasm and have taken the maids in autos to the Courthouse to register.

At a business meeting of the Portland Shakespeare Study Club held Tuesday it was decided to take up the study of "Romeo and Juliet." Next Monday the delegates to the women's club convention, Mrs. Edw. Treble and Mrs. Julia La Barr, with Mrs. Helen Todd and Mrs. W. W. Downard as alternates, will leave for Eugene.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Calvary Presbyterian Church will give a reception tomorrow night in the church parlors in honor of Dr. Oliver S. Baum, Mrs. Baum and several of the new members. All friends of the congregation are invited to attend and welcome the pastor and his wife, who are rapidly making friends in Portland.

Central W. C. T. U. was addressed yesterday by Everett Jones. "Men and Measures" was the subject. Mrs. M.

rule do not two of us accept the standards set by our community, or by society, to the one of us who brushes them aside, no matter what these standards may be. And do we not do it as a rule through fear of criticism?

Some of the standards set by society are right and necessary. But some are of the past and we need to progress out of them as these two men needed to go forward into a broader and higher conception of womanhood. But we are afraid. We haven't the fine courage of the third man to act for ourselves according to the standards we believe to be just, and to see that the vision of the right time and the true condition. But having discerned these we should not pause because of criticism, nor lack the courage to go the way we think is right.

One such man as this third one in that little mountain community would eventually improve the condition of the women there a hundred-fold and bring freedom and happiness to them. Hundreds such as the other two would never lift them one-sixteenth of an inch toward a better life.

The world needs those who will simply and directly brush aside old standards and advancing thought requires new ones.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT
By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

The Two Rosebushes.
O'nce upon a time there was a little house at the edge of a wood. Her name was Elsa.

One day a fairy came to her and said: "Elsa, I will give you three wishes, because you are a good little girl. What will they be?"

"I want a white rosebush on one side of my door," replied Elsa.

"You shall have it," said the fairy, waving her wand. And there was the rosebush full of white roses standing on one side of Elsa's door.

"What if your second wish?" asked the fairy.

"I want a red rosebush on the other side," replied Elsa.

The fairy waved her wand a second time and there on the other side of the door was a bush of red roses.

"And your third wish," said the fairy, "what will it be?"

"I wish that they might always bloom," said Elsa.

"It is granted," said the fairy, and she waved her wand over the bushes three times.

When the weather began to be cold Elsa thought her roses would stop blooming one morning as the frost crept there she said: "You beauties, I shall miss you when the frost and snow come." "Have you forgotten your wish?" said a voice. Elsa looked under a rose and there was a fairy.

"You wished that your rosebush might always bloom," said the fairy, "and I granted the wish. You will have roses all the winter."

One day when the snow was on the ground, a beautiful carriage drawn by two black horses stopped before Elsa's house and a young man got out and knocked.

"I want to buy your rosebushes," he told Elsa. "I have never seen such beautiful roses and I have all the different kinds that are known. But I have none like these. How much money do you want for them?"

"Oh, I don't sell my rosebushes," Elsa replied. "I don't know. But I will pick you a bunch of your blossoms."

"You get a big price for them?" asked the young man. "You must sell them or you will be willing to sell the bushes to me?"

"Elsa replied, 'I give them to the sick and the old people who cannot get out to enjoy the beautiful world.'"

"I will give you any amount you ask," replied Elsa. "You cannot buy them."

The king's son rode away, and when he reached home he told his father: "I have a plan we can use; for she reaches the hearts of the people and she thinks more of making people happy than having gold for herself."

"I will give you my wife if she will have you," said the king. "There is not another in all my kingdom who is more worthy to be a Queen and it will not be long before you are King; I am an old man."

So the Prince went back to Elsa and asked her to marry him. And although Elsa had loved the Prince and after a while a Queen, she was called by the name who knew her "the Lady of the Roses." Copyright by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, New York City.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TONIGHT

By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

THE TWO ROSEBUSHES.
O'nce upon a time there was a little house at the edge of a wood. Her name was Elsa.

One day a fairy came to her and said: "Elsa, I will give you three wishes, because you are a good little girl. What will they be?"

"I want a white rosebush on one side of my door," replied Elsa.

"You shall have it," said the fairy, waving her wand. And there was the rosebush full of white roses standing on one side of Elsa's door.

"What if your second wish?" asked the fairy.

"I want a red rosebush on the other side," replied Elsa.

The fairy waved her wand a second time and there on the other side of the door was a bush of red roses.

"And your third wish," said the fairy, "what will it be?"

"I wish that they might always bloom," said Elsa.

"It is granted," said the fairy, and she waved her wand over the bushes three times.

When the weather began to be cold Elsa thought her roses would stop blooming one morning as the frost crept there she said: "You beauties, I shall miss you when the frost and snow come." "Have you forgotten your wish?" said a voice. Elsa looked under a rose and there was a fairy.

"You wished that your rosebush might always bloom," said the fairy, "and I granted the wish. You will have roses all the winter."

One day when the snow was on the ground, a beautiful carriage drawn by two black horses stopped before Elsa's house and a young man got out and knocked.

"I want to buy your rosebushes," he told Elsa. "I have never seen such beautiful roses and I have all the different kinds that are known. But I have none like these. How much money do you want for them?"

"Oh, I don't sell my rosebushes," Elsa replied. "I don't know. But I will pick you a bunch of your blossoms."

"You get a big price for them?" asked the young man. "You must sell them or you will be willing to sell the bushes to me?"

"Elsa replied, 'I give them to the sick and the old people who cannot get out to enjoy the beautiful world.'"

"I will give you any amount you ask," replied Elsa. "You cannot buy them."

The king's son rode away, and when he reached home he told his father: "I have a plan we can use; for she reaches the hearts of the people and she thinks more of making people happy than having gold for herself."

"I will give you my wife if she will have you," said the king. "There is not another in all my kingdom who is more worthy to be a Queen and it will not be long before you are King; I am an old man."

So the Prince went back to Elsa and asked her to marry him. And although Elsa had loved the Prince and after a while a Queen, she was called by the name who knew her "the Lady of the Roses." Copyright by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate, New York City.

Ghostly Visitor Puts Neighborhood in Panic
Specter Keeps Lonely Vigil on Street Corner, Disappearing in Air as Pedestrians Approach, Says Police Report.

A REAL, sure-enough ghost at large on Portland's streets? "Pish! tish!"

But read what Patrolman Ben F. Hunt, a proxy policeman, says in his report for the "first relief" last night: "People living in the vicinity of Tenth and Columbia streets report the appearance every evening between the hours of 8:30 and 10 o'clock of a tall man in black coat and stiff hat who vanishes into thin air when approached. This mysterious person is said to appear regularly at the southwest corner of the intersection of these streets."

The policeman goes on to say that no one has been able to come close enough to this specter to describe him minutely, but that the "spook's" appearances are causing much alarm in the neighborhood.

"He must have some hole to hide in," comments the policeman, but he fails to say what need a regular ghost would have of a place to hide when its mysterious disappearance is supposed to be a spook's long suit.

DELEGATES WAIT IN VAIN

People Seeking New School Building Fail to See Committee.

To hold the members of the building committee of the School Board to their promise that a new school building would be erected soon in the place of the present Kennedy building, 25 residents of the Irvington Park district appeared in the rooms of the School Board in the Courthouse last night, where they understood the regular meeting of the committee was to be held. But no committee appeared.

PERSONAL MENTION.

A. A. Hall, of Seattle, is at the Carlton.
F. D. Nash, of Tacoma, is at the Oregon.
R. W. Wilson, of Astoria, is at the Oregon.
J. S. Brown, of Chicago, is at the Nortonia.
G. F. Martin, of Rainier, is at the Cornelia.
James Kennedy, of Fargo, is at the Multnomah.
W. J. Hammond, of Chicago, is at the Washington.
H. D. Woodward, of Seattle, is at the Washington.
E. V. Grant, of Ashland, is at the Washington.
M. O. Anderson, of Spokane, is at the Carlton.
R. M. Stanfield, of Stanfield, is at the Imperial.
J. M. Crawford, of Walla Walla, is at the Oregon.
C. F. Fayette, of Bedford, Mich., is at the Oregon.
J. H. Albert, of Salem, is registered at the Imperial.
H. T. Keisler, of Chicago, is registered at the Nortonia.
Senator N. Wheelon, of The Dalles, is at the Perkins.
Mrs. J. F. Wheeler, of Huntington, is at the Washington.
S. T. Grindle, and wife, of Napavine, are at the Cornelia.
H. D. Harbour and wife, of Seattle, are at the Nortonia.
K. Baker and wife, of Monticello, are at the Nortonia.
Mr. and Mrs. Lindgrund, of Albany, are at the Cornelia.
Leo J. Curry, of Coquille, and family are at the Multnomah.
Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Halling, of Seattle, are at the Seward.
W. A. Martin, of Seattle, is registered at the Cornelia.
Mme. Olive Fremstad, the opera singer, is at the Multnomah.
Alex Phillips, of St. Helens, is registered at the Washington.
Hugh Seddon and family, of Marshfield, are at the Perkins.
C. E. Simpson, of San Francisco, is registered at the Baxter.
Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fulton, of Astoria, are at the Imperial.
A. C. Dixon, of Eugene, general man-

Imported Ostrich Novelties

Special for Today $1.95

—A fortunate purchase of an importer's entire line of Ostrich Fancies and Novelty Stick-up effects enables us to make this unusual offer.

—Under ordinary circumstances these fancy novelties could not be bought in any store in the city for less than $3.50 to $7.50.

—The colors and quality of the entire lot are the most beautiful and finest grade of Ostrich procurable—all colors and shadings.

—We place the entire line for your choice today $1.95

The Wonder Millinery

At Morrison and Fourth Streets

E. H. Kibban, of Des Moines, is registered at the Carlton.
Dr. B. E. Wright has taken apartments at the Seward.
Agent of the Booth-Kelly Lumber Company is at the Imperial.
T. W. Lusk and Homer Lusk, of Silverton, are at the Perkins.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Harbin, of Wallace, Idaho, are at the Perkins.
M. L. Watts and W. L. Ferguson, of Athena, are at the Multnomah.
J. E. Fingalis, of Sioux Falls, and Mrs. Fingalis are at the Carlton.
E. P. Staples, manager of the Farm-ers Mercantile Company, at Haines, was in Portland on business and was registered Monday at the Perkins.

After waiting for more than an hour, with no official but the janitor in sight, they left in disgust together with other delegations who were waiting to take up matters with the committee.

"For more than a year they have promised us a new school," said Mrs. Maude S. Bushnell and Mrs. M. S. Fitzgerald, leaders of the delegation last night. "And so far we have seen no results, but we are going to keep right on fighting."

PROPOSED LAW OPPOSED

Spiritualists and Members of Other Cults Don't Want Privileges Cut.

Spiritualists and followers of other similar cults are aroused over the announcement of City License Collector Hutchinson that he will seek to have the City Council pass an ordinance prohibiting private readings or demonstrations of the system for the reason that he suspects fraud is being perpetrated at such sessions. The spiritualists object to the abolition of the private readings, holding that they are virtually the same as private gatherings of a religious nature.

Inspector Hutchinson says he is convinced that the law is violated by readers taking money for fortune telling in such sessions and he proposes to continue his plan to have the ordinance changed so as to eliminate private readings and demonstrations.

Cottage Grove Mail Held Up.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Oct. 7.—(Special.)—The refusal of the Postoffice Department to accept any of the recent bids submitted for carrying the mail on the Cottage Grove-Bohemia route has resulted in the mail remaining in the postoffice here, where it is now reaching mammoth proportions. Postmaster Van Dumburg and the Commercial Club have sent urgent telegrams to Washington. A reply to the Commercial club's message does not promise immediate relief.

Beginning next Monday and continuing until April 30, 1915, night school classes will be conducted between 7 and 9 o'clock, Monday Wednesday and Friday evenings, in the Albina Home, Arleta, Montavilla, Peninsula and Sellwood grade school buildings, in the Boys' and Girls' Trades Schools and in the Lincoln and Jefferson High school buildings.

The regular courses conducted in the day schools will be followed, the purpose being to give those who are occupied at labor in the day an opportunity to avail themselves of a practical education. Work done in the night schools will be credited toward graduation in the day schools. No tuition fees are charged residents of the school district and no charge is made for the use of textbooks, the deposit of $1 being refunded at the end of the term. Indications are that last year's enrollment of 4265 will be exceeded materially this year.

NIGHT CLASSES TO OPEN

Study to Begin at Various Schools

Next Monday at 7 P. M.

Two Pair of Glasses in One

—Kryptoks save time, patience and eyestrain;
—the genuine Kryptok is so cleverly made that you can't see the union of the far lens with the near;
—Kryptoks are an Optical achievement, a blessing and an economy, because one pair of Kryptoks does the work of two of the old style glasses;
—We are the exclusive Licensee manufacturers of the genuine Kryptoks in Oregon.
—Any lens specially ground to your prescription in an hour.

DELEGATES WAIT IN VAIN
People Seeking New School Building Fail to See Committee.

To hold the members of the building committee of the School Board to their promise that a new school building would be erected soon in the place of the present Kennedy building, 25 residents of the Irvington Park district appeared in the rooms of the School Board in the Courthouse last night, where they understood the regular meeting of the committee was to be held. But no committee appeared.

RASH DISFIGURED CHILD'S FACE

Also on Scalp. Very Scaly, Itched and Caused Child to Scratch. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Saa Martin, Cal.—"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment on my child's face for a bad rash, also on his scalp which was very scaly. The rash disfigured him for the time being. It itched and caused the child to scratch it. He also had an eruption on his scalp. When putting him to bed I would wash his face and scalp with Cuticura Soap and then use the Cuticura Ointment. He slept well after the treatment and there were no signs of the eruption after a few months." (Signed) Mrs. I. E. Clark, May 14, 1914.

ECZEMA OVER ARM AND HAND

822 S. Topeka St., Wichita, Kan.—"The eczema first commenced in my hand and went up my arm and swelled dreadfully. It came as the pimples and then became crust over my arm and hand. It itched and burned so that it kept me awake at night. I just suffered with the burning and itching for three weeks.

"Then a friend told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment and use them freely. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then used the Cuticura Ointment and in a week I could see it was doing me good. I soon could feel the dry skin of my hand and arm and now I am completely healed and have not been bothered since." (Signed) Mrs. M. P. Wood, Jan. 26, 1914.

Parent Teacher Associations

THE Mount Tabor Parent-Teacher Circle will meet today at 2 o'clock in the school assembly-room. All parents and friends of the school are invited. Women are asked to bring their handwork and enjoy a social hour from 2 to 3. Refreshments will be served by the social committee. Arrangements

THE PORTLAND, with its rare courtesy of service, its attractive dining places, and its delightfully tempting cuisine—appeals to people of refinement and discrimination.

The new ivory-and-gold ballroom is an added attraction provided by the management for the pleasure of the Portland's clientele. Available for afternoon, evening or after theater.

Columbian Optical Co.

Floyd Brower, Mgr.
145 Sixth St., Bet. Alder and Morrison

Table d'Hotel Dinner Served 5:30 to 8. Service in the Grill to 1 A. M.

The Portland Hotel

G. J. Kaufmann, Manager.

DELEGATES WAIT IN VAIN
People Seeking New School Building Fail to See Committee.

To hold the members of the building committee of the School Board to their promise that a new school building would be erected soon in the place of the present Kennedy building, 25 residents of the Irvington Park district appeared in the rooms of the School Board in the Courthouse last night, where they understood the regular meeting of the committee was to be held. But no committee appeared.

RASH DISFIGURED CHILD'S FACE

Also on Scalp. Very Scaly, Itched and Caused Child to Scratch. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

Saa Martin, Cal.—"I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment on my child's face for a bad rash, also on his scalp which was very scaly. The rash disfigured him for the time being. It itched and caused the child to scratch it. He also had an eruption on his scalp. When putting him to bed I would wash his face and scalp with Cuticura Soap and then use the Cuticura Ointment. He slept well after the treatment and there were no signs of the eruption after a few months." (Signed) Mrs. I. E. Clark, May 14, 1914.

ECZEMA OVER ARM AND HAND

822 S. Topeka St., Wichita, Kan.—"The eczema first commenced in my hand and went up my arm and swelled dreadfully. It came as the pimples and then became crust over my arm and hand. It itched and burned so that it kept me awake at night. I just suffered with the burning and itching for three weeks.

"Then a friend told me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment and use them freely. I washed with the Cuticura Soap and then used the Cuticura Ointment and in a week I could see it was doing me good. I soon could feel the dry skin of my hand and arm and now I am completely healed and have not been bothered since." (Signed) Mrs. M. P. Wood, Jan. 26, 1914.

Parent Teacher Associations

THE Mount Tabor Parent-Teacher Circle will meet today at 2 o'clock in the school assembly-room. All parents and friends of the school are invited. Women are asked to bring their handwork and enjoy a social hour from 2 to 3. Refreshments will be served by the social committee. Arrangements

THE PORTLAND, with its rare courtesy of service, its attractive dining places, and its delightfully tempting cuisine—appeals to people of refinement and discrimination.

The new ivory-and-gold ballroom is an added attraction provided by the management for the pleasure of the Portland's clientele. Available for afternoon, evening or after theater.

The Portland Hotel

G. J. Kaufmann, Manager.