

LAFFERTY HELD UP AS POOR MATERIAL

Washington Progressive Nominée Sees "Yellow Streak" in Independent.

PARTY JUMPS UPBRAIDED

O. C. Hanson, Candidate for United States Senate, Says Oregon Representative Should Be Out Helping His Rival.

"I have no use for a man who, when he is soundly thrashed, can't stay whipped," declared O. C. Hanson, Progressive nominee for United States Senator in the State of Washington, in speaking of A. W. Lafferty, independent candidate for Congress in Multnomah County, before a large crowd in Scandinavian Hall Tuesday night.

Although Mr. Hanson's speech was, in the main, a simple appeal for support of the Progressive principles generally, he alluded several times to Representative Lafferty, whose action in running independently after his defeat at the Republican primaries last Spring he seemed particularly to resent.

"Lafferty says he is independent," exclaimed Mr. Hanson, "He ran first time as a Republican, then as a Progressive and again as a Republican, and now when he is beaten he comes out independent."

"A man like that must have a yellow streak. If I wasn't game enough to stay whipped after once I had been counted out I'd deserve never to be elected to anything."

"If he had any good principles about him he'd get now to help elect the man who defeated him."

Independence Is Distasteful.
Mr. Hanson asserted that he has little sympathy for the man who can't find a place in either the Republican, Democratic, the Progressive, the Socialist or one of the other regularly organized parties. "There is no place in his category for the independent candidate who once has been defeated in the party primaries."

At another time Mr. Hanson referred to Lafferty as a "yellow streak." It was when he was speaking of the investigation recently conducted by a Government commission into the farm loan systems of Europe.

"The commission was composed," he said, "of a body of honest, upright, able men—and Congressman Lafferty, of Portland."

The speaker dwelt at considerable length on the farm loan question. He declared that a proper system of farm loans would bring about the effective agricultural and industrial development of the Northwest. He proposed that the Government should make the postal savings bank deposits, pay a higher rate of interest on them and lend the money to farmers at a 1 per cent advance.

Wilson Is Praised.
He praised President Wilson for his peace policy and denounced those citizens who are "constantly screaming for war."

Modern civilization demands abolition of warfare, he said, and predicted that the time soon will come when all systems of war will be sunk.

He criticized the Democrats of the South for failing to abolish child labor, either in their own states or through Congressional action. He declared that it is the opposition of the Southern Democrats in Congress that prevents passage of effective child labor laws.

"I don't know anything about the tariff," he said in brief reference to that subject, "and neither do you."

"I never saw a man or woman who did know anything about the tariff. They think they do, but they don't."

Tariff Rout Advocated.
"The tariff question ought to be taken out of politics and placed in the hands of a nonpartisan commission."

He admonished his hearers ever to be ready to leave their party for the sake of principle.

"You're American citizens before you are Republicans, before you are Democrats and before you are Progressives," he said.

Mr. Hanson will hold a bonfire rally at Vancouver tomorrow evening. The Democrats also have a meeting scheduled, but refused to divide the time with Hanson, although the chairman of the Progressive County Committee offered to pay all expenses. Hanson had several thousand at his bonfire rally in Spokane and a large attendance is expected. The bonfire will be built at the City Park.

EAST ARMY REINFORCED

GERMANS RETREAT, HOWEVER, SAYS PETROGRAD.

Two Columns of Czar's Troops Advancing Through Hungary to Join Servians.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The Russian official statement given out at Petrograd today deals only with the situation on the frontier of East Prussia. It says that the Germans have been reinforced from Koenigsberg and that their positions are under a heavy artillery fire.

A Petrograd dispatch received by way of Paris says the Germans are retreating along the East Prussian frontier.

News from Budapest, received here by way of Rome, says Russians invading Hungary with the intention of erecting a junction with the Servians are advancing in two columns. One column is making an assault on Hosszeg-Doboz (in northwest Hungary), 68 miles southeast of Cluj, and the other is rapidly descending the valley of the Nagyan against Huszt (province of Marmaros), 90 miles northeast of Debrecen.

The Servians are also reported to have begun a northeast advance from Belgrade.

The correspondent of the Post in Petrograd in a story contrasting Russian and German strategy to the disadvantage of the latter says:

"Instead of following sound military principles of seeking out the enemy's strength and endeavoring to smash it, the Germans seem to follow the lines of least resistance."

"Both the great German defeats in Galicia and in Western Russia exemplify the same tactics of following the line of least resistance. In both cases the Russians caught them in precisely the same trap. In the latter case the Russians left a gap of 20 miles open like a mousetrap door and the Germans marched gaily in."

They found no opposition until they met an unpleasant surprise at the fantastic bends of the river Niemn, and while they were trying to cross the Niemn, the jaws of the trap closed upon them."

According to another dispatch from

Petrograd, the Bourne Gazette learns that, owing to favorable news from the seat of war, subscriptions will be invited for an internal loan of 500,000,000 rubles ($150,000,000) at 5 per cent.

A writer in the Army Gazette estimates that the war with Germany will drag on for a year because the Winter campaign cannot have an intensive character. The fighting will, however, break out again in the Spring, with its previous fury, he says.

FRENCH CONTENT TO REST

Newspapers, Mail and Tobacco Are Given Men in Trenches.

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The correspondent of the Times at Eprenay, France, telegraphing under date of Sunday, says:

"The battle of the French rivers has entered upon its fourth week and unless some flanking movement is carried through there appears no reason why the titanic struggle should not continue for a long time."

Now that the perfection of the German trenches is rivalled by those of the allies it has become a struggle in which one is pitted against an invisible foe who is never seen until he springs upon them from his hiding place. The countryside along the Aisne is a vast military rabbit warren.

Both sides are resolutely determined not to give ground. The Germans are continually delivering attacks and counter attacks, but the allies are not advancing any definite attempt to advance in this region. They are content for the time being with beating back all German attacks and are not trying to occupy the enemy's trenches.

"The forces of the Germans are worn by hard campaigning and frequent attacks, while the allies' troops are fresh because they are frequently in the stone wall policy is that the casualties on the allies' side have been very slight recently."

"Everything possible is being done to relieve the men from the strain of waiting. Tobacco and newspapers are provided and mail is delivered regularly. The strain of waiting has been especially severe on the African troops. One of the most useful articles of the German war equipment is a sky-rocket which gives a powerful illumination lasting 40 seconds above the ranks of the enemy, enabling the German artillery officers to obtain an accurate range of the trenches."

GERMANS ATTACK VIGOROUSLY

Great Force of Cavalry Disproves Report of Glanders in Horses.

FROM THE BATTLE FRONT, via Paris, Oct. 7.—German cavalry made its reappearance on the scene of action in great force today, thus disproving the reports that all of its horses had been rendered useless owing to an epidemic of the glanders.

The allies' extended front has met with vigorous counter attacks on the part of the Germans, who seem to have weakened their position on the center of the battle line in order to throw heavy masses of men against the right and left wings. The allies, although forced back short distances at some points on their left, have been generally able to hold their own.

The eastern wing of the scene of severe combats today, but there the battle was between infantry and artillery, and the allies were able to push forward.

In the center, where the infantry had been deeply entrenched since the beginning of the battle, the French and English commanders took the opportunity to relieve many regiments which had been on the advanced firing line. Two brigades of British troops, chiefly Highlanders, had not had relief for 5 days. They had burrowed so well that their casualties were unimportant, but the men were thoroughly exhausted from continued watchfulness and the incessant boom of the guns.

It is currently reported at the front that the Germans took 100 civilians with them when they departed from Roye.

DR. C. J. SMITH ROBBED

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE'S HOUSE IS LOOTED SECOND TIME.

Burglars Armed With Key Enter When Family Is Away, but Take Little of Value From Rooms.

For the second time this year burglars entered the home of Dr. C. J. Smith, gubernatorial candidate, at 1254 East Twenty-second street, Tuesday night, securing some jewelry, but little else of value. Entrance was effected through the rear by means of a skeleton key. The robbers entered between 8:30 and 9:15 P. M., as that was the only time that the house was vacated.

Upon their return from a visit with friends, Mrs. Smith found the house had been robbed. Dr. Smith was out of town, but was expected home later at night.

The house has been the mark of burglars several times. It is reported that twice during the time it was occupied by its owner, Mrs. E. W. Langdon, it had been entered. Dr. and Mrs. Smith rented the residence about eight months ago. The latter part of last June prowlers forced an entrance while the family was away and secured more than $200 worth of jewelry and cash. The house had only been left for 45 minutes last night, the maid leaving but a short time before Mrs. Smith returned.

PIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then be free of those poisonous accumulations of acid and uric acid which are the cause of kidney and bladder troubles.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.—Adv.

BAKER WINS STAR

Miss Irene Oshier, New York, to Play Emotional Roles.

TWO TO BE LEADING WOMEN

New Member of Players to Take Heavy Portrayal and Miss Bonnie to Be Ingenue—Record of Actress Is Notable.

A New York emotional actress of note is coming to Portland. Not for a week, but for a season. She is to join the Baker Players and will play leading emotional roles in the emotional plays which George L. Baker has promised for this season.

Miss Irene Oshier, of New York, one of the two first American women to play "Madame X," is the actress. Also she is the "surprise" which Mr. Baker promised Portland theatergoers on his return from New York a few weeks ago.

Miss Oshier will arrive in Portland in about two weeks. She will join the company as leading emotional woman.

Miss Bonnie Second Star.
"But this is not all. Manager Baker, following the profitable example set by Daniel Frawley in developing promising ingenue stars, has created a star ingenue billet in the Baker company, and Miss Cora Belle Bonnie, who has shown her versatility by playing light and heavy leads without making any fuss about it, will fill the niche."

"The idea," said Mr. Baker yesterday, "is to have two strong leading women—one for big emotional plays, the other for plays which demand a keen, talented ingenue. When I saw Miss Bonnie's work in the East I realized I had the actress with whom I could hope to try out successfully my plan in Portland. I brought her to Portland with this understanding and then I began to try to sign up a leading woman who could take care of the emotional roles. I have just been able to close negotiations with Miss Oshier, who is still busy in New York, but who will come to Portland within two weeks."

"Miss Bonnie has won the Baker patronage from the start with her ingenue portrayals and we have been overworking her in carrying the heavier leads pending successful negotiations for an emotional actress which I promised as the 'surprise' for Portland when I returned from the East."

Success Is Notable.
"In Miss Oshier I think I have one of the foremost young emotional actresses of America. She began her career under Blanche Walsh in 'The Resurrection,' followed Dorothy Donnelly as 'Madame X,' the second woman to play the part in America, and she starred in 'The Poor Little Rich Girl.' Besides these telling roles, Miss Oshier has done 'The Third Degree' for Henry Harris, and she was the first leading woman of the Municipal stock company of Northampton, Mass., the first theatrical organization conducted by a city government in America. She has been leading woman for the Manhattan stock company in New York, and with the Davis stock company in Pittsburgh and in other places."

Actress to Appear Soon.
"This is her first stock engagement in this part of the country, although she was in Portland a few years ago with Creston Clarke, Edwin Booth's nephew, in 'The Power That Governs.' Miss Oshier will leave New York

Appetite Follows Good Digestion

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. CHILD SAVING IS FIRST

LAURELHURST WOULD GIVE UP IF THEY PREVENT PLAY.

Recreation Grounds for Conservation of Youngsters Proposed at Kerns School District Meeting.

Conservation of children is of more importance than trees, was decided Tuesday night at a meeting of the residents of Kerns School District, and it was agreed that the proposed recreation center at Laurelhurst Park or on adjoining property be approved. The chairman was William M. Davis.

It was pointed out that the present playground of Kerns School, near East Twenty-eighth and Couch streets, is being much used by children of the district, but that the location is not ideal, because of the multiplicity of trolley cars going to and from the car barns. A better and safer location was thought to be the site of the proposed recreation center in Laurelhurst.

One speaker, from Laurelhurst, hoped that the proposed playgrounds, swimming pool, etc., at Laurelhurst might not spoil the natural beauty of the location, but that the site of the tree to be cut down or interfere with the proposed artificial lake.

Then it comes to the conservation of trees in beautiful Laurelhurst, or the conservation of children in the school district, let us prefer children every time, asserted another speaker.

The Laurelhurst crowd said that it was not opposed to the erection of a recreation center in that district.

The sentiment expressed at the meeting was unanimous. Much of the good result accomplished is due to the personal interest shown by Isaac Sweet, and Mrs. Angeline E. Watson, the latter principal of Kerns School, who made speeches.

Quality First

After You Have Bought Your Piano---What Then?

To know that the house of which they have bought their piano or player-piano has constantly in mind their welfare, the condition of their instrument and their continuous enjoyment of it, gives to most buyers a deep feeling of satisfaction.

One most potent factor of our business is the service extended to each and every purchaser. The satisfaction of the buyer being paramount, no request is too small, no demand too great to meet the courteous and immediate response of our service department. This service is unique in the piano industry. It is doubly so because, to buyers of pianos, player-pianos and talking machines, it is, for one year, absolutely free; just what you have a right to expect and receive.

Not only for the exclusive character of service offered does our House merit your consideration. It is worth your while, a duty to yourself, to investigate our selling methods, our easy payment plan and the quality of our Pianos and Player-Pianos before your purchase is made. We know that you will find here Pianos and Player-Pianos which, at their prices, cannot be duplicated in durability, quality and musical worth in the West. Every one is made right and priced right—at identically the same figures that you would pay, save for the addition of Eastern freight, on the floors of their manufacturers in New York, Boston or Chicago.

Your old piano taken in exchange at its full value. Easy payments.
