An Open Challenge

To Rev. William T. Foster, President of Reed College, and to Dr. Herbert C. Miller, President North Pacific Dental College, Either or Both of You:

Since you have seen fit to appear publicly as the champions of the Ethical Dental Trust in opposition to Dentistry Bill 340, I make this offer to meet either or both of you in joint debate on said Dentistry Bill.

I give you the choice of meeting me jointly or singly, in one debate or in any number you suggest; to be held in Portland or elsewhere in Oregon.

I also give you the choice of dividing the time equally with me or taking most of the time if you desire.

Further, I agree to pay all expenses of such joint debate.

This offer is made with the understanding that said debates, whether held indoors or in the open air, shall be with free admission to all, and that either or both of you accept this challenge and arrange details on or before Thursday, October 15, 1914. Yours,

Expenditure Stirs Protest.

"I am taking this action," said Mr. "Mason yesterday, "because I oppose a recall election being called under pres-ent conditions. If involves an expendi-ture of about $25,000. Why hold an election and expend this amount of money when the whole thing is now before the Supreme Court with the chances strongly in deser of its being chances strongly in favor of its being illegal?

"It is not that I and the Non-Faril-san League are attempting to protect any of the officials sought to be re-called, but it is meredy a step to pre-vent an nawise and probably an illegai expenditure of $15,000. I think a recall would clarify conditions if, after we had expended $25,000, we should find that it had all been wasted. I do not believe the City Commission or City Auditor Barbur will take any chance on be-ing held personally remonsible for an expenditure of this kind. I have gone into the recall question extansively and i am informed by some of the best law-yers in the city that it is almost eer-tain the Supreme Court will rule that the recall is not in effect because the is not that I and the Non-Farti-

California Producers Announce Or-ders for 3,000,000 Gallons, SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—Activity in the shipment of California wines to the Atlantic Coast via the Panama Canal is noted in the manifests of ves-sels leaving this port for the Eastern published here today that Eastern or ders for 3,000,000 gallons are now be-ing filled by this state's producers. The stimulated demand for the do-mostic wines is due partly to the Euro-pean war, it is said, but largely to the expected Federal tax on wines, which it is, belleved, would not affect goods that already had left the wine cellar after maturing.
