

BEAVERS JUMP ON KLEPFER AND WIN

Tiger Pitcher Chased Out of Game in Eighth and Portland Takes Lead.

TALLY IS TIED BY VENICE

McCredie's Men Go Ahead Again in Ninth and Again Southerners Come Back With Tying Run. Tenth Settles Game.

Pacific Coast League Standings. Portland 99 72 599; L.A. 102 88 522; Frisco 107 66 534; Missions 82 111 422; Venice 87 87 415; Oakland 75 112 412.

Yesterday's Results. At Venice—Portland 8-0, Venice 7-0 (first game 15 innings, second five). At San Francisco—San Francisco 2, Missions 1. At Oakland—Los Angeles 7, Oakland 4.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 8.—(Special).—Suddenly coming to life in the eighth, the Beavers jumped onto Klepfer for five hits, chased him from the game and went into the lead. In their half the Tigers tied the score.

Portland took the lead again in the ninth and again the Tigers came right back with a tying run. In the 10th Evans poled out a triple to left and scored Korea, who previously had singled. This 10th inning finish was too much for the Tigers and they quit cold, the Beavers walking off with the second game, 8 to 7.

Second Game Called. It seems certain that Venice will not stand in McCredie's way of landing another pennant. He has the intention to play two games today, and the second one did start and go five innings, but neither White nor Martini would allow a score, so it was called a draw just as the sun sank into the sea.

McCredie Demands "Conference." McCredie demanded a "conference" of umpires in the sixth on Leard's play at third. A conference was held, three minutes long, and Bill was declared safe. Then Davis blocked progress by insisting that time be called while he bandaged up his foot, which he said Charlie cut in sliding into second. No one but Davis could see second, but time was called again and three minutes more lost.

(Continued From First Page.) of the park today during a conversation on Wednesday. I told him that Boston could have it any hour except between 2 and 3 o'clock, when I had ordered the Athletics to report for a final workout. He made no protest and early this morning I learned that he had charged me with unsportsmanlike tactics. I called him up on the telephone and explained that I could not reach all my players in order to notify them to report at some other hour and asked Stallings if he would not be satisfied to practice at Shibe Park either before or after 2 P. M. Stallings accused both the Philadelphia club and myself of double-dealing and one word to another until we both said things we should not have said.

Mack Admits Threat Made. "Yes, he threatened to punch me when we met, but I am sure he did not mean it. I don't see why he was so anxious to practice at Shibe Park at exactly 2 o'clock. McGraw, of the Giants, is perfectly willing to practice and we never practiced at either the New York or Chicago parks previous to the world's series of 1911 and 1910. Still, I am willing to practice at Shibe Park if the Athletics will practice at the eleventh hour of his liking."

Because of the trouble, the Boston players should not go to Shibe Park at all, and continue to practice at the National League grounds, five blocks away. The Braves devoted more than an hour to batting and fielding, while the Athletics were having a practice workout at their own park. Both managers reported that their players were on edge for the opening game, but neither would discuss the practice or the pitching or pitchers who would be called upon to work in the initial contest.

The general opinion is that Rudolph will not be called to pitch, since he is known as the sure-money pitcher and the regular pitcher for the Athletics in a world's series.

With the exception of Deal at third base in place of Red Smith, who broke his hand, the Athletics will practice at the Boston club will take the field in the order in which it played during the closing weeks of the National League season. The Athletics will practice early in the week regarding the ability of McInnis to play first, owing to a bruised hand, but the stocky initial pitcher will be in perfect condition for practice this afternoon.

Both Teams Confident. The players and managers of both clubs professed confidence in their abilities. Stallings appeared to be bubbling over with enthusiasm and predicted that his club would surprise the Athletics and their supporters. Connie Mack was equally confident, and refused to forecast the result, merely saying that he expected a close series.

So far as the general wagering in connection with the contest is concerned, the Athletics are the favorite. Few big bets have been recorded, but in the small wagering the Athletics have been quoted at odds ranging from 2 to 1 to 3 to 1. The matter of the betting has been confined to the number of games to be played and other similar wagers. The general opinion is that the series will be won in either five or six games.

Philadelphia bettors offer 10 to 1 that the Braves will win four straight; 5 to 4 that the Athletics will win the opening contest; 5 to 3 that Boston will win all that he has in store for the Whitman's march. The Missionaries are already an early season team and a hardy veteran to handle at any time.

GRIDIRON NOW LAKE

Oregon Field Is Flooded by Rain of 14 Hours.

BEZDEK BECOMES NERVOUS

New Faces on Team and Poor Condition of Grounds Worry Veteran on Eve of Battle With Arch-Foe Whitman.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, Oct. 8.—(Special).—The heavy rain of the last 14 hours has flooded Kincaid field to such an extent that the Oregon light and speedy backfield will labor under great handicap in Saturday's game with Whitman, if a halt in the downpour is not called by the weather within the next day.

No drainage system is used on the university's athletic field, and the water lies in pools until Old Sol gets to working again. Bezdek will rely upon his veteran backs to bring home a victory Saturday, and if this quarter has to swim around in small lakes itchy hope is entertained by either the coaches or students of Oregon finishing with the long end of the score.

With the exception of Cook at guard and Beckett at tackle, the lemon-yellow line is a new one and the most optimistic fan hesitates in pronouncing it on a par with the line of a year ago. Four of the new faces, Powie, end; Philbin, tackle; Risley, center; and Snyder, guard, are freshmen. These veterans have never been under fire yet and the manner in which they will stand up under these conditions is a matter of doubt. Lack of practice is responsible for this condition and Bezdek declares it taxes his nerves to send men in a conference game, important as the Whitman contest is, without at least the satisfaction of seeing them "under the guns" once.

Graduates appearing each evening are aiding the regular Oregon coaches in getting the varsity into shape. "Dick" Smith, former Oregon coach and at one time an All-American selection as fullback while playing on the Columbia team, New York, has been out with the squad each afternoon of the week. Smith has devoted the most of his time to the linemen in an effort to polish off their work. Dr. Eberle Kuykendall, quarterback on the last champion varsity team, has given much of his time to the care of the injured and the welfare of the punt receivers.

"Kak" Moulton, kicker on old eleven, has worked hard with Bryant and fullback is showing a decided improvement in his boots from placement. Shifts have been made so frequently in the varsity lineup that just who will start the game is yet uncertain; from appearances Bezdek intends to use all that he has in store for the Whitman's march. The Missionaries are already an early season team and a hardy veteran to handle at any time.

The merchant who sells Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

You probably know who he is; the fact that he sells these clothes is one of the facts he wants to have known about his store

THERE is hardly a good town in the country where such a clothing merchant cannot be found; one sign of the progressive spirit in any town, large or small, is that there is such a merchant in it.

Generally speaking, the merchant who sells our clothes is the best in town; as a rule, the spirit of service to the public which goes into the making of the goods is an inspiration to the men who sell them.

The merchant who sells Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes wishes to guarantee the fullest satisfaction to his customers; he believes in good merchandise, liberal treatment and moderate profits. You may not only expect, but you will get these things of the merchant who sells our clothes.

Go and see him now; ask for our goods; let him show you what $25 or more will do in clothes-buying. Our label in them is a small thing to look for, but a big thing to find.

speculators were parading the streets offering coupons for almost every section of the stands.

Ticket Probe Ordered. Just how they obtained possession of the bunches of tickets for only the members of the fraternity known as the fans charge that the police connived with the speculators in securing choice places in the line at the public sale on Wednesday, and Director Fennell of the department of public safety, has ordered an investigation.

In the midst of the bitterness due to the inability to obtain seats some funny experiences crop out. Three of the Athletics promised their boarding-housekeeper tickets for the series some time ago and when they failed to make good their promises the landlady was so wroth that she ordered them out of her house, bag and baggage, and tonight they are sleeping at the home of a friend, three in a room.

The widespread interest throughout the country in the present series is being attested by the fact that the demand for accommodations in the press stand. Close to 300 seats have been allotted to newspaper writers from all parts of the United States, and even the Hawaiian Islands. Even in this department many requests for reservations were refused.

Mack-Shibe Clash Denied. Late in the evening the newspaper corps were sent scurrying by a report that Connie Mack and John Shibe, business manager of the local club, had been seen together in the vicinity of the ticket office, but this story was emphatically denied by the club management.

Scenes about Shibe Park tonight became more and more heated as the game proceeded. At midnight a line of more than 1000 men and boys trailed away for several blocks and was expected to increase rapidly as soon as daylight broke. Many had been in line for hours and the lunch and soapbox vendors did a lively business supplying the needs of the determined fans.

PACIFIC COACH IS HOPEFUL Men Showing Up Well and Team Rounding Into Shape, Says Yakel. PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, Forest Grove, Or., Oct. 8.—(Special).—Coach Yakel feels encouraged over the way the men are showing up and expects to have the team rounded into shape within another week. Stanley and Lucas, who made a big showing in the freshman sophomore game, are making a strong bid for positions on the varsity. Parker and Long are also new men who are sure of places.

Clark, who has been out of the game for two weeks with bad leg, will be out again in a few days. Reuben Frost, sprinter and weight-man on the year's track team, will probably hold a position on the back field. The team will be as fast as last year and will be somewhat heavier.

ETAWAH BREAKS RECORD

TRANSYLVANIA STAKE WINNER SETS NEW MARK.

Murphy Leading Driver of Day at Lexington, Taking Kentucky Pacing Futurity and Also 2:20 Pace.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 8.—The 25th renewal of the Transylvania stake was won today by Etawah, driven by Geers, and owned by F. G. Jones. The record for the stake of 2:04 1/2, made by Fenian Maid in 1909, was beaten in each heat, reducing Etawah's own world's record for a three-heat race, made last week at Columbus. Omar Marquardt was the contender, and Peter McCormick was displaced in the first heat. May Mac broke on the first turn in the second heat.

Murphy was the leading driver of the day, winning the Kentucky pacing futurity with Anna Bradford and the 2:20 pace with 3-year-old Baron Marquardt. The unfinished 2:17 trot was won by Hazel Lains, driven by Andrews. Peter Pearl was the contender in the two heats trotted today.

The 2:04 pace was a mere jog for R. H. Breat. Harry Stokes, who raced King Couchman last year, drove him, but R. H. Breat was much the best.

William failed to beat his first 4-year-old world's record in 2:06. Mr. Billings rode Ulian an eighth of a mile under saddle in 1:33 seconds. Summary: 2:04 pace, 2 in 5, purse $1000; 2 heats Wednesday, 2 in 5, value $1000.

SCHOOLS WILL BATTLE TODAY Jefferson High and Hill Cadets Ready for Grilling Game.

The second game of the Portland interscholastic league 1914 football schedule will be played this afternoon on the Multnomah Field, with Jefferson High trying to win from the Hill Military Academy. The game will start promptly at 3:15 o'clock.

Coach Jamison, of the East Siders, has been drilling his players in most open work since his return from Aberdeen, where his team was defeated, 25 to 3. Captain Irvine has not been able to get much active playing since the season opened, due to an abscess, but he probably will start the affair at quarterback tomorrow.

Coach Bill Graham, of Hill, has secured the services of Ernie Magus, former Jefferson star, and Clarke, of East Portland fame.
