Moran, of Boston, the first man up, let Bender's opening pitch go by for a strike. The second pitch was a foul-strike, the third a ball, the fourth a foul, and then he sent up a high foul fly to McInnis, and the Athletic rooters cheered. Captain Evers was given a hand by the crowd as he stepped to the plate and shot a high fly to Collins, who had to step backwards to get it. Connolly, the heavy-hitting out-fielder, was up next. He took a strike and, after fouling off another, missed Bender's next offering and the side was out.

Eddie Murphy, for the Athletics, also let the first ball pitched by Rudolph go by for a strike, but he laced the second to center field. Oldring laid down a sacrifice in front of the plate, and Gowdy made a high throw to first which Schmidt got after a fine effort and put his foot on first base for the out, Murphy taking second.

Little Maranville started a tremendous outburst of cheering by the Boston fans by shooting a single to center field, and Gowdy raced across the plate with the second tally. Deal ended the inning by hitting into a double play, forcing Maranville at second, Barry to Collins, and going out himself, Collins to Mc-Innia.

Mcinnis, in the Athletics' turn at bat, waited and got four balls. Strunk hit a sharp single to right field, which a sharp single to right field, which Moran let go through his legs, and before the right fielder recovered the ball and threw it in, McInnis had scored and Strunk was on third. Barry struck out. Schang hit an ugly grounder at Evers, who made a fine stop and, by a fast throw, caught the speedy Strunk at the plate on a close decision. Schang was forced at second by Bender, Maranville to Evers.

Rudolph Easy Out.

The Braves, with the edge on the Athletics by the narrow margin of one run, did not figure much in their third turn at bat. Rudolph was an easy out. Bender to McInnis. Moran fell a victim by the strikeout route and Evers drove out a high fly which Oldring gathered in.

The crowd stood up and stretched as Baker came to but in the seventh. Evers fumbled Baker's grounder, and the runner was safe. He moved up on McInnis' walk and both runners advanced when Schmidt gathered in Strunk's grounder and touched first. Barry struck out and Lapp ended the inning. Rudolph to Schmidt.

Athletics' Rooters See Fate.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct, 9.—The players of both teams were on the field for the first world's series game before I o'clock, with the exception of Chief Bender, who did not emerge from the Athletics' dugout until 15 minutes before the game started. He warmed up slowly, stopping occasionally to oblige a photographer by posing for pictures. After the usual prolonged conference of the umpire and captains, Evers and Thomas, play was called at 2:05 P. M.

Moran, of Boston, the first man up, let Bender's opening pitch go by for a strike. The second pitch was a foul-strike, the third a bail, the fourth a foul, and then he sent up a high foul fly to McInnis, and the Athletic rooters cheered. Gate Receipts $50,000.

The official attendance figures gave the paid admissions as 20,562, while to 5000 additional spectators must have witnessed the play from points of vantage surrounding Shib-Park. The gate receipts amounted to $49,639, of which the National Commission took $4963.90, the players $26.805 and the clubs $17,170.10.

In the distribution of individual honors, the lion's share went to Pitcher Rudolph, for it was due in great part to the masterly manipulation of the ball that the Boston emerged victor in the first game of the series. With the exception of two short periods during the contest, he had perfect control of his delivery and The sixth inning opened auspiciously for Beriter, but before it was over he was in the dressing-room, driven from bat-swingers. He mixed speed, curve the pitcher's slab for the first time in and slow balls in a bewildering fashion, cutting the corners of the plate and feeding his opponents his floater when danger threatened. It was this slow, deceptive delivery that proved the Mack men's undoing, for they are Bender, who opened for the home club, appeared unusually weak against the Braves, and once they had seen his offerings they took liberties with the Indian's delivery that astonished the thousands of Athletic supporters who thronged the stands. Similing singles, doubles and triples rang off their bats, flashing over or through the infield until at last Connie Mack signaled the chief to give way to Wyckoff and thus chief to give way to Wyckoff and thus broke the record of never having re-moved a pitcher from a world's series. Portland has taken four games, and cannot possibly lose the series, which calls for eight contests. Incidentally, this double defeat dropped the Tigers down to a dead, level with the Angels.

The second game was saddened by the fact that "Iron Man" McGinnity got licked, and to think that it was just nine years ago today that McGinnity licked the Athletics in the first world's series between New York and Philadelphia. This either shows that Joe has gone back some or that the Beavers are a mighty good ball team.

Are Eager for Anderson Bout. Joe Hennessy, the San Francisco lightweight, and his manager, D. W. Covington, are in Portland, and Covington is eager to match his boy with Bud Anderson. Covington thinks an Anderson-Hennessy bout would be a big drawing card if fought in the North-West. Hennessy recently broke his hand in an encounter with Andy Jost, of Ta-coma, and has been out of the ring as OAKLAND BEATS ANGELS, 1-0 a result. He had his first real workout Wednesday night at the Western club. Joe has fought two battles with Danny O'Brien, of Portland. Hennessy says he can make 123 pounds with ease.

He has had more than 40 battles. It has been suggested that an Ander-son-Hennessy battle be staged at As-

Maroons to Meet All-Stars.

The Piedmont Marcons and the Ran dall All-Stars will settle their differ-ences on the Vaughn-street grounds tomorrow afternoon, starting at 2:30 o'clock. These two teams tied for third place in the recent city championshi series, in which John Swint's Brad-fords captured first honors.

Hill Military Academy Fumbles Way to 13-to-0 Victory to Fans' Surprise.

CLARK DASHES 42 YARDS

First Half Ends With Ball on Two-Yard Line of Coach Graham's Team, but Jamison's Squad Is Unable to Score.

BY EARL R. GOODWIN. Coach Bill Graham's Hill Military Academy football warriors fumbled themselves to a 13-to-0 victory over the Jefferson High eleven in the second game of the local interscholastic league, played on Multnomah Field yes-terday. The defeat of Coach Jamison's team came as a big surprise to the fol-lowers, but the little cadets deserved to win from the outset. The first score came in the second period, when Halfback Clark picked up a fumbled ball and dashed 42 yards up a rumbled baff and dashed 42 yards for a touchdown amid the utter surprise of both squads. When the players realized what was going on, the whole field dashed after him and he was downed just after crossing the coveted line. Jones missed goal.

High School Nearly Scores. High School Nearly Scores.

The first half ended with the ball on the cadets' two-yard line, and on four other occasions the high school team was within that distance of a score, but lacked the punch to put it across. All through the third frame the ball surged up and down the field and the period ended with it on Jefferson's 25-vard line.

Scores—Hill Military Academy: S. Clark, one touchdown; Rolly Jones, one woal kick.

GUNBOAT SMITH OUTPOINTED Battling Levinsky, of New York,

Wins From Californian. NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Battling Le-vinsky, of this city, outpointed and outfought Gunboat Smith, of California, n a 10-round bout here tonight Le in a 10-round bout here tonight. Levinsky weighed 172½, Smith was ten pounds heavier. Smith did all the leading in the first four rounds, in each of which he had a fair margin. The fifth round was even, but from the sixth on Levinsky had it all his own way.

In the early rounds Levinsky made no attempt at leading. He avoided several of the gunner's rushes and contented himself with blocking eleverly and side-stepping. He hardly used his right in these rounds and depended on left hooks and uppercuts. Both men were severely punished about the body. Levinsky woke up in the sixth and waded into the gunner with rights and lefts to the body. Smith landed occasionally, but Levinsky had all the better of it, rushing Gunboat hard toward the end.

A Nickel For EL DALLO Cigar

buys a mild, refreshing smoke. Made of excellent quality tobacco and protected from the factory to you by a sanitary tin-foil and tissue wrapping. Listens like "ten-cent-quality talk"-it is, but we leave off the expensive band and give you its value in good tobacco.

You're not taking any chance on EL DALLO. Worth any man's nickeland more. Try it.
