In the party that will go out of Port-land this morning will be Robert A. Booth. Republican Senatorial nominee; C. N. McArthur, candidate for Representative in Congress; Thomas M. Hurlburt, candidate for Sheriff, and ex-Governor T. T. Geer, representing Dr. James Withycombe, the regular Gubernatorial nominee, who is absent on a speaking tour of the southern part of the state.

They will be accompanied by T. R. reuder. W. H. H. Dufur and other ominent Republicans well known in a rural districts outside of Portland. The people of Lents have planned to entertain the visitors at a dinner in Oddfellows Hall. It is probable that some of the candidates will address the people gathered at the dinner.

the people gathered at the dinner.

They will attend a grange meeting at Gresham and will stop at farm houses and small towns along the way to get into personal touch with the farmers and the mambers of their families. In every precinct they will be escorted through the community by the regular county committeeman representing the county organization.

This is the first of a series of similar trips planned by the Republican County Committee. It is intended to repeat this kind of campaign work in a different portion of the county sev-

Officials in charge of the headquarters are pre-pared to answer all probable questions from women who have been appointed judges and clerks at the forthcoming state election as well as those who may serve if the proposed recall election is held.

The organization is composed strictly of Republican women. Prominently displayed in the office is a card bearing the following extract from the oath signed by every person accepting appointment as an election official:
"I am in good faith a member of the party of which I am registered."

Under this provision, it is pointed out, the election officials are bound to exercise partisanship in their pre-elec-tion work. Moreover every official will be urged to support the full Republican be an important factor in this year's election, as most of the voters will go to the polls. He thinks the Republican ticket will measure its full registered strength.

George Schmidt, of Warrenton, Clatsop County, has written the Republican State Committee that he has completed a canvass of his precinct and that he has found a strong Republican sentiment among the voters. Both Booth and Withycombe are popular, he reports. He advises, also, that Representative Hawley will receive his usual

Miss Monroe will speak tonight in Gre-bel's Hall. East Stark and East nightieth streets. She will continue to speak for Hanley at various places in the state until the eve of election.

A. W. Lafferty, independent candidate for Congress in the Multnomah County district, will leave Washington, D. C., for Portland today. He will come directly to this city and open up his personal campaign as soon as he gets here. He will hold a series of night meetings both in Portland and in the outlying districts.

Thomas M. Hurlburt, Republican nomines for Sheriff, is receiving daily promises of support from Democratic quarters. On his trips through the outlying districts of the county he is meeting with much encouragement. His headquarters at 317 Platt building are in receipt of regular reports from voters of all parties who promise to support him.

Emphasis is placed on the fact that Thomas M. Hurlburt is in no way related to C. M. Hurlburt, Republican nominee for the Legislature in the Multnowsh-Clackamas joint district, who has been repudiated by the Republican organization.

"The Democrats in the Cottage Grove district feel that R. A. Booth is a home asset and they cannot afford to turn him down," said J. F. "Booth has done more." said Mr. Spray, "than any other man in the state to "than any other man in the state to develop our section. He has employed our labor, treated it liberally and been our friend. We know "Bob" Booth and nobody can tell us that he is not capable and trustworthy. In my judgment he will poll 50 per cent of the Democratic vote of Cottage Grove. There is hardly a man in Lane County who has not handled Booth-Kelly Company checks. This company has always paid good wages and I have never heard of good wages and I have never heard of a large corporation like they are that had as little trouble with their men."

The Ladd Grammar School light-weight football team played the Portland Academy second-string players Thursday, and the Academy won, 12 to 6. The winners outweighed the school squad about 20 pounds to the man. They scored both touchdowns in the last half. Harry Morrison, Vaughn Dickinson and "Indian" Walker, of the Ladd School, were the stars of the match. Ladd's lineup was picked by Coach Grant Hemphill from the following: Morrison, Walker, Dickinson, Meiton, Burnstein, Lake, Eoff, Bicknell, Smith, Foster, DeCorrey and Mitchell. Rain Thursday and yesterday prevented the taking of motion pictures of the Washington High School, Jefferson High School and Columbia University football squads. The pictures will be taken the first of next week.

John Casey and Stanley Anderson, the two Washington High School players knocked out at once in Wednesday's game against Columbia University, were at school yesterday, but Coach Earl did not allow any practicing. Seven stitches were taken in Anderson's wound and it was necessary to put four stitches in the injury to Casey's forehead.

FAIR REGATTA IS POSTPONED

Date for Boat Races Changed From April to August and September.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. S .-- A decision to postpone the international yacht re-gatta at the Panama-Pacific Exposi-tion from next April to August and September was reached yesterday by the Yachting Bureau of the Exposition, after a canvass of the Pacific Coest yacht clubs had been made to get a consensus of opinion. The changs, it is said, will benefit greatly all American yacht clubs intending to enter, and permit several new boats to participate.
