John F. Gibson, 70, of Lebanon, Is Said by Prisoner to Have Entered Home Armed-Two Rifles Held as Evidence

ALBANY, Or., Oct. 11.-(Special)-John F. Gibson, 70 years old and a Civil War veteran, of Lebanon, who was shot last night at Sodaville by W. Z. Angel, a resident of that place, lies at the int of death this morning, and Angel is in the county jail at Albany, where was placed last night by Sheriff Bodine. Angel will have a prelimi-nary hearing early this week. The charge to be preferred against him will depend upon the outcome of Gibson's wound. Angel says he shot in self-defense.

Gibson was removed to Lebanon this Gibson was removed to Lebanon this morning and an operation may be per-formed to remove the bullet fired from Angel's 32-caliber rifle, which struck him in the left side just below the heart. Dr. J. C. Booth, of Lebanon, who was called to the scene of the shooting last night, probed unsuccess-fully for the pullet. From an invasivation made last fully for the pullet. From an investigation made last night at Sodaville by Sheriff Bodine and District Attorney Hill, of Albany, it appears that Gibson, who lives in Lebanon, drove to Sodaville last night and went to the home of Angel, half a mile north of the town. It is reported that he went to the kitchen door and entered the house, passing through several rooms to a bedroom where Angel and his housekeeper, Pearl Adams, were attending Eva, the 6-year-old daughter of Angel, who was sick in bed. Gibson, says Angel, held a dou-ble-barreled shotgun on his shoulder. Both barrels were loaded and the gun was cocked, Angel told the investi-gators.

was cocked, Angel told the investi-gators. It appears that Angel and Gibson had had words before, and when Gib-son appeared in the doorway, the in-vestigators say, Angel ordered him from the house. Gibson then is said to have placed the muzzle of the shot-gun against Angel's body. Angel says he managed to reach above his head and obtain his rifle, which was hang-ing on the wall. He then shot Gibson. Marshal Hazen took the two guns and delivered Angel and both weapons to Sheriff Bodine. District Attorney Hill and Sheriff Bo-dine returned to Albany with the prisoner shortly after midnight. Angel has lived at Sodaville but a short time, going there recently from Salem. He purchased a small tract of and near the town. He has two chil-dren, a girl and a boy, aged 6 and 8 years, respectively both of whom are wards of the feeble-minded school at Salem. Angel a few days ago took them to Sodaville for a rest and change, hoping their condition would be benefited as a result. Angel and his wife are separated. He is about is years of age.

JOHN MINTO.

JOHN MINTO. SALEM, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—In the simple way which has been characteristic of him through his long life, John Minto, famous pio-neer, observed his 92d birthday Saturday at the home of his son, D. C. Minto, on Sasihaw street, this city. Despite his age, Mr. Minto is hale and hearty, and after his birthday dinner walked down town and met numerous old-time friends. "I first saw Mount Hood from the timber lands of the Blue Moun-tains in 1844," said Mr. Minto during his recital of reminiscenses. "I had left Pittsburg, Pa., two years before to find the Northwest way to Oregon. I was born in England and reached Pittsburg when 18 years old." Mr. Minto was a member of the lower house of the State Lerick.

Mr. Minto was a member of the lower house of the State Legisla-ture four terms. He has been a continuous reader of The Oregonian from the time the paper was established. Among those partaking of the birthday dinner was John Douglas Minto, a grandson of the pioneer; Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Tompkins; Frank G. King, of Pendleton, and Miss Ina Harold, of Stayton.

Picketing of Seattle Restaurant Not

Warranted, Says Judge. SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 11.-(Special.) --The decision of Judge J. T. Ronald in granting a temporary restraining order enjoining the Central Labor order enjoining the Central Labor Council, and the cooks', waitresses and waiters' local unions from picketing in front of the restaurant and delicatessen of M. R. Jacobi, on Third avenue, is not based upon any charge which is disputed by the parties to the suit. His findings are solely upon the facts which are either undisputed in the record or frankly admitted by the oral evidence.
