Gowdy Hero of Day.

Although Gowdy did not cross the plate with the run which his double started, he was the hero of the game. His two doubles and home run in four times at bat were the feature hits of the contest. Captain Johnny Evers was second with three singles, and Schmidt, Deal and Maranville also contributed opportune hits. Murphy, with two doubles, and Baker with a double and single, were the leading Athletic batters, The battery work was not as cleancut or spectacular as in the preceding sames. games. In addition to Bush's wild throw that closed the contest, Catcher Schang was charged with an error for the Athletics. Bush in 12 innings fanned four and walked an unusual number of Boston batters. Tyler struck out four and passed three Mackmen in 16 innings, while James fanned one and walked three in his two periods on the mound.

Fielding honors were divided by with two successive stops and Eaker, with two successive stops and throws in the ninth inning, and Schmidt, who in the eighth inning got Bush's whistling drive along the base line with a one-hand stab, and while prone on the ground threw the runner out at first. Connolly contributed the Braves' only error, when he dropped Collins' hoist in the opening inning.

A record Boston world's series crowd witnessed the game, 25,520 persons paying 362,808 to pass through turnstiles into the park.

Of this sum the National commission took $6380.89; the players received $34,-456.32, and the club owners $11,485.4. Had the capacity of Fenway Park been took $6380.89: the players received $34.4.456.32, and the club owners $11,485.44. Had the capacity of Fenway Park been greater these figures would have been increased considerably. Here's where Barm's brain cogs began clicking over the speed limit. Instant of the diamond a yard or two, took the throw on the back of his neck, stumbled into the first bag safe and sound, and the tying run romped over the old home dishpan.

Instantly pandemonium broke loose. Also bedlam and a heliva racket besides. But all this noise was as a gentle zephyr beside where the plate.

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

son occurred today, when Carrol Olson, 29 years old, died at a local hospital from concussion of the brain, the result of injuries received in a game played Sunday.

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mat the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the advice of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to so lubricate the muscles and to thus so relieve the pressure reacting on pressure reacting on the nerves, that the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local distresses.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc. may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmother's earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women gladly recommend.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., 207 Lamar Bidg., Atlanta, Ga.
