STRAIGHT TICKET IS REPUBLICANS' AIM

C. N. McArthur, Nominee for Congress, Notes Marked "Top-to-Bottom" Intent.

CUTTING FOLLY LEARNED

Candidate After Tour of Multnomah Districts Is Impressed by Desire of All to Make Votes Count for Party-Issues Clear.

"Never in my previous political ex-perience have I felt such a disposition on the part of Republicans to vote their ticket straight," said C. N. McArthur, Republican nomines for Congress in the Multnomah County district, yester-

Mr. McArthur has just completed a tour of the outlying precincts of the county and has been pretty well over Portland and the congested districts and has met voters of all classes. He says the plan of Republicans to support the ticket from "top to bottom" to be a proper to be a proper to be presented by the plan of the plan of the property of the ticket from "top to bottom" to be a property to be presented by the plan of t appears to be almost unanimous, "I have been through a good many campaigns," he commented, "but this is the first time that I have seen so much determination to refrain from scratching. That probably is because the issues of the campaign are well defined and people know that to make their favorite issues prevail they must support their party ticket in every particular. The Republican voters understand pretty well, I believe, that they cannot make their vote effective by voting for candidates of two or more political parties. They appreciate the necessity of supporting the whole ticket from Senator down to Constable." refrain from

One of Mr. McArthur's strongest form planks is his expression of "abiding faith in the integrity of party under whose guidance our ntry has been carried through an era of progress and prosperity unparal-leled in the history of nations."

He is making this right as a Republi-can, upon a Republican platform, and he believes the chief issue of the cam-paign to be the question of whether the laborers and producers of this country are to enjoy the protection of a just and equitable tariff law. He be-lieves that the issue is a simple one, and is understood by all classes of peo-

"This contest is between the two great representative political parties," said Mr. McArthurt "The one stands always—and the proof is history—for good government, prosperity and protection to American laborers and producers; the other for misadministration, extrayagance free trade failure election

During the remaining two weeks of the campaign, beginning next Monday, the Republican state candidates will give nearly all their time to the work in Multinomahi County.
