"Many of the people of Antwerp had resolved to withstand the bombard-ment and were content to stay bur-rowing among the ruins so long as the Germans could be kept out. To them the retreat of the defending army was the retreat of the defending army was the last blow of fate. They abandoned the cellars and retreats and set out in flight. It was the last and most pitiful exodus, for these were the elect of the cltizens. As they passed to the Dutch frontier or toward the quays, some met their death from bombard-ment. ment

TWO GREAT SALES NOW IN ONE The most important event in West-ern plano merchandising, the Manu-facturers' Emergency Surplus Sale, merged with the Soule Bros'. Failure Sale, merged with the Soula Bros'. Failure Sale. Soula Bros, old-established musical instrument merchants, their stock, after authority and direct order of court, was taken over by C. E. Lucore, the wholesale plano man and repre-sentative of some of the creditor man-ufacturers. Nearly all the inexpensive planos were quickly sold at 388 Mor-rison, but the more costly kinds were left on hand. There was no time to lose. A quick turn was necessary and we were able to get them in one lump, so that we can sell them for almost what they sold their medium and cheaper priced planos for, for we de-clined to take over any but the finest instruments in the sale. All remain-ing less inexpensive instruments are going to go at Auction Wednesday, as is being advertised in this issue, but the better makes and higher grade planos, the really much-to-be-desired instruments will be on sale at Ellers Music House by 9 o'clock this morning. In these two great sales at Ellers Music House will be found planos for a great deal less than what the manu-facturers expected to set for same when they billed them to their agents, Some of them, oldest established makes, time honored, time tried names, are included in this great sacrifice ale now, and positive assurance that every instrument is reliable, depend.
