GUARANTEES IN DANGER

Feeling of Apprehension Overshadows Expectation That Country Would Profit by Neighbors' Loss in Commercial Way.

THE HAGUE, Sept. 18, - (Correspondence of the Associated Press.)- 21.45 inches). Holland at present has no politics. Mr. Gall so Holland at present has no politics.
"It is a blessing," said a burgher.
"For the time being we have forgotten the awful strife which during the last 10 years had made Holland a political madhouse. For once Protestant Holland and Catholic Holland realize that they have something in common."
While Holland has no politics, it has political fears. Conscious of their weakness, her people ask: "What if the Germans lose? What if they win?" England is not trusted. The Boer war was a Dutch affair, these men say, and the end of the two South African respublics is too recent an event to have be not look after her own affairs without the first without the first without the same of the consideration of the comment of Prospect Dismays Burghers.

This feeling recently has overshadowed the expectation that German's loss in foreign commerce would in part become Holland's gain. To know that until international affairs in Europe had been readjusted sufficiently to establish a new balance of power Holland would exist entirely by the srace and good will of either failty by the srace and good will of either failty by the srace and good will off either failty by the srace and good will off either failty in the French, fearing at the same time that German, locating the Russian and mistrusting England. Honest interest hes succumbs, should such be the case, would make of France the gead at Namur, who acknowlashed will try to get possession of the emplayed and that Hamburg and Fremen are even as a common of the entire Railty especial and the same time that Germany, has violated the frontiers and first the allies against the second of the case, would make of France the greatest will try to get possession of the entire Railty especial accountry may expect under these circumstances he cannot forested. What his country may expect under these circumstances he cannot fore-tell. He hears rumors that Russia will try to get possession of the entire Baltic seabord, and that Hamburg and Bremen are even incl-ded in this ambitious plan. Needless to say that makes the Russian a neighbor—a near neighbor—a conclusion attended by the thought that after all Germany, by stemming for years the tide of Russian advance, did a service valuable not only to Holland but the remainder of Europe.

RETURN OF BELGIANS UP Germany Negotiating With Holland

to Send Refugees Home.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—A movement to build a memorial to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson in the form of a model block of sanitary houses in the slum district of Washington has been started by Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, who interested Mrs. Wilson in slum work here; Mrs. Ernest Bicknell, wife of the director of the American Red Cross, and other prominent women. The plan is to raise money for the block by subscriptions from the women of the country and to call it the "Ellen Wilson Memorial Block."

*GERMANY PREPARES RAID

(Continued From First Page.) know other than that they are winning all along the line. Some more sober minds in Germany admit that they will get hard knocks some time and somewhere, but they have no doubt Germany will win.

The prevalent opinion is that in wiew of the amount of German blood spilled in Belgium that country inevitably will cease to exist, except as a part of the German Empire. Holland is regarded as a negligible quantity. whenever the skin is disordered, for its on fanaticism." An American resident of Berlin, who also has just arrived in Amsterdam says it is impossible for the people in Germany to estimate the total German casualties. The lists published in Berlin give the losses of the Prussian army only, while the losses of the Bavarians, the Saxons and Wuertemburgers are published only in those kingdor

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 .- Adolph F. Gall, an engineer in the Edison laboratories, who arrived today on the Scandinavian-American liner Helligzolav, said Germany was building guns which would make the 16-inch siege guns used against Liege and Antwerp "look like bean blowers."

The guns, according to Mr. Gall, will be 50.02 and 55 centimeters (19.50 and Mr. Gall said he received his infor-

BERLIN, Oct. 13, via The Hague.—
Negotiations are in progress between The Netherlands and Germany for the return of Seigian refugees in The Netherlands. Fermission has aiready been given for the return of women. A question has arisen, however, concerning the millitary age of Belgian men in Holland are said to be soldiers who donned civilian attire before crossing the frontier.

These refugees are becoming a burden to Holland. The German government recognizes this and is trying to solve the preblem. A conference was held this morning between the German envoy to the Netherlands and the Dutch Minister of the Interior.

The number of Belgian soldiers in terned in Holland is given as 28,000.

PARIS, Oct. 12.—A story of the bra-very and devotion of a 12-year-old received by the Fishing Gazette. Belgian soldiers in a wood near Namur saw a man fishing and taking no notice of patrols that passed. Questioned as to what sport he had had, the answer was, "The beggars won't bite."

From the fishing basket on which he was sitting came the unusual sound of a "coo-coo," and another spy was caught. "My friend," says the correspondent, "stated that the pigeons were fairly tender."

BORDEAUX, Oct. 13.—It has been decided to transfer the Belgian government to France in order that it may have full liberty of action. The foregoing was announced officially in Bordeaux today.

King Albert remains at the head of the Belgian army.
