BOSTON, Oct. 13.—The wise ones had figured that Connie Mack would send Bender back at the Braves to stave off final defeat and there was some surprise when Bob Shawkey came out of the Athletics' dugout and started to warm up. Rudolph had been picked to pitch for the Braves. The only change in the batting orders was the switching again of Gowdy and Deal, the former batting sixth and the latter eighth.

Rudolph opened the game by grooving a strike on Eddie Murphy. The next pitch was a ball. Murphy drove the third one straight at Evers and was out at first. O'Driscoll, who had been a poor performer at the bat in the series, sent up a high foul to Gowdy and walked disgustedly to the bench. Collins slashed a single over second and was left at first as Baker sent a high fly to Whitted in center field.

Boston's first turn at bat was short. Moran chopped a grounder at Baker and was thrown out. Evers also offered Baker a grounder and "Stuffy" McInnis made a fine pickup of the third baseman's low throw. The Braves' captain walking Baker raised a high foul to Deal and Collins. Connelly flied out to O'Driscoll.

Rudolph Near Trouble.
It looked like trouble for Rudolph in the Athletics' second inning, when McInnis tapped a slow roller which Deal ran in on, making a fine throw to first for the out. Walsh, playing for Amos Strunk, who has an abscess on his hand, slammed a two-base hit against the fence, bounding from the stands in left field. Connelly seemed to misjudge the ball as it struck low enough for him to have caught it. Jack Barry was tossed out. Maranville to Schmidt, Walsh being unable to advance on the out. Schang struck out.

The National League champions got a man on in their half of the second, after two were out, but failed to advance. Whitted sent a hot liner that O'Driscoll ran in to get. Schmidt punched a grounder to Shawkey and was retired at first. Gowdy waited and was given a base on balls. He was forced out at second by Maranville. Barry making the toss to Collins.

Shawkey opened Philadelphia's third inning by striking out. Murphy went out on a quick scoop and throw by Deal. Rube O'Driscoll made the Philadelphia fans rejoice by getting his first hit in the series, a clean single to center field. He tried to steal second and was out on Gowdy's line throw to Maranville.

Braves Out Easily.
The Braves went out in one, two, three order in the third. Deal raised a fly to O'Driscoll. Rudolph poked a grounder at Barry and was thrown out. Moran went out the same way.

The Athletics got two hits in the fourth inning, but did not have the punch to put a man across the plate. Collins opened with a sharp grounder to Evers and easily was tossed out. Baker shot a hot drive at Schmidt, which the big first baseman could not handle. Play was stopped while Schmidt regained his equilibrium, the ball evidently having struck him in the face. McInnis ripped a single into left field. Baker made a great dash to third and Connelly's throw. On the throw in McInnis tried to reach second, but was out. Connelly to Deal to Evers. With two out the Athletics did not look so dangerous. Rudolph was cheered as he struck out Walsh.

Boston scored its first run in its half of the fourth inning. Evers drew a base on balls and went to second on Connelly's out. Collins to McInnis. The Philadelphia second baseman intended trying for a double play, but momentarily juggled the ball and threw it harmlessly only in the nick of time. Whitted shot a hard drive at Collins and the ball was deflected sufficiently by the fielder to permit Whitted to reach first and Evers third.

Collins Turns Ankle.
Collins in trying to field the ball, turned his ankle and play was stopped for a few minutes. He limped to his position and play was resumed. Then came the first real cheer of the Boston fans. Schmidt shoved a slow grounder at Barry, who threw the Boston first baseman out as Evers crossed the plate. Whitted moved to second on the out and was left there when Shawkey threw out Gowdy. Up to this time the Athletics had made five hits without scoring, while Boston manufactured a run out of a base on balls, an out, a short single and a second out.

Barry made his first and only hit of the series in opening the fifth inning. It was a single which Maranville could not handle in time to beat the Athletics' shortstop. Barry went to second on Schang's out. Evers to Schmidt, and came home with the Athletics' only run on Shawkey's long two-base drive to left center. Murphy was an easy out. Evers to Schmidt. Shawkey moving up to third. O'Driscoll swinging at wide balls and was out on strikes.

The new world's champions won the title in their half of the fifth inning. Maranville went out. Barry to McInnis, and Baker threw out Deal. Rudolph brought cheers from the fans by shooting a single into center field, and the rosters were brought to their feet when Moran drove a two-base hit to left field, on which Rudolph took third. The big crowd made much noise as Captain Evers stepped to the plate. Moran took a big lead off second and then the Braves' captain, after two strikes, dropped a single field, on which both Rudolph and Moran scored.

The Royal Routers' band struck up a lively tune and Connie Mack sent Penneck, Wyckoff and Bressler on to warm up. The crowd roared for Connelly to help, but while he was at bat Shawkey's low, nipped Evers off first and the side was out.

Athletics Are Discouraged.
The Athletics looked a bit dejected as they came off the field. There was a noticeable increase in the enthusiasm of the Boston players as they took their positions in the sixth with a two-run lead and their pitcher going fine. Mar-

STRIKING ACTION PHOTOGRAPHS FROM FIRST GAME OF WORLD'S SERIES AT PHILADELPHIA. WHEN BRAVES OVERWHELMED ATHLETICS, 7-1.

1—First inning. Murphy, of the Athletics, on a single, managed in due course of time to get to second. On a foul to Schmidt by Baker, he attempted to make third. Schmidt throws to Deal, who was covering third in place of Smith, who had broken his leg on the eve of the big game. It was a mighty nice play when Deal caught Murphy as he attempted to slide into the base, as shown in the photograph.
2—Fifth inning. Hank Gowdy, of the Braves, followed his double in the second inning with a wallop to center which brought him to third. The photograph shows Hank raising the dust around third base as he slid into it, while Evers, of the Athletics, is waiting for the ball. The umpire Klem is in a stooping position.
3—Captains conferring with umpires on ground rules. Ira Thomas, in white suit, Evers in dark. George Hildebrand seen at left of photograph.
4—Eighth inning. On a single to left, Schmidt, of the Braves, reached first. Gowdy, on a single to left, sent Schmidt to third, then Maranville struck out and Schmidt made a double steal, Gowdy going to third, while Schmidt made a daring steal to home. The photograph shows him stealing home, while Catcher Schang, of the Athletics, in an attempt to stop him, fell on the home bag.

anville robbed Collins of a base hit by sprinting over back of second, picking up a sharp hit grass cutter and tossing out the Athletics' speedy runner while tarry juggled the ball and threw it harmlessly only in the nick of time. Whitted shot a hard drive at Collins and the ball was deflected sufficiently by the fielder to permit Whitted to reach first and Evers third.

Herbie Penneck, one of the Mackmen's left-handers, replaced Shawkey and Mann was sent in by Manager Stallings to bat for Connelly against the left-handed pitcher. Rudolph, who had flied out to Walsh. Whitted singled to left field and went to third on Schmidt's wicked drive at Collins for one base, the ball being fast for Collins to handle. Gowdy fell a victim to strikes and a moment later Schmidt was caught between first and second, Penneck to McInnis, retiring the side.

Schang Strikes Out Again.
Mann went in to left field in Connelly's place in the seventh inning. Walsh received a base on balls and went to second on a wild pitch. Barry struck out and on the play Gowdy threw to second and caught Walsh off the bag for a double play, Evers taking the throw. Schang again struck out.

Boston's seventh inning was over quickly, although one man reached first. Maranville was thrown out by Collins and Deal was retired by Baker. Rudolph was given a base on balls and was left at first as Moran flied out to Baker.

Whitted Steals Only Base.
Captain Evers, first up in the eighth for Boston, took his strike-out good naturedly. Moran was thrown out by Collins, but Whitted was given a base, the only steal of the game, and moved up to third on Schang's passed ball. Schmidt ended the inning by striking out.

The Athletics' erstwhile heavy artillery, Collins, Baker and McInnis, who all hit over .300 in the American League season, came up in the ninth in a last desperate effort. They made a sorry showing. Collins struck out. Baker
