Republican Senatorial Candidate Arranges Itinerary for Ten Days Ahead.

CITIES CLAMOR FOR TALKS

Portland Labor Organizations Claim That Lafferty's Campaign Literature Does Not Bear Union Label—Reports Rosy.

Demands upon the time of Robert A. Booth for speaking engagements in Portland and other parts of the state are so urgent that his campaign advisers are preparing a careful schedule of appointments that he may be able to meet the maximum number of individual men and women voters between now and election time.

Mr. Booth has completed his itinerary for the next ten days, but his return to the last Wednesday night campaign remains open. In addition to his dates already concluded he will return to Portland this morning and Oregon wherever time will permit.

After devoting this morning to personal calls on voters in Portland, Mr. Booth will go to Woodburn this afternoon. He will speak to some of the Republican voters there and call upon some of the business houses. He will return to Portland this morning and will be here all day tomorrow.

He will go to Salem Saturday and will address several public meetings there in the afternoon and evening.

On Tuesday he will attend a meeting in Portland Monday evening. On Tuesday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

On Wednesday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

On Thursday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

On Friday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

On Saturday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

On Sunday he will address a meeting at Sunnyside in Portland and will remain there until Wednesday.

and to prepare for the final two weeks' work before the election. The Republican situation will be discussed calmly and dispassionately and the details necessary to assure complete Republican success will be outlined thoroughly.

Willard L. Marks, County Clerk of Linn County, is here attending the Linn County Political convention and incidentally inquiring into local political conditions. He reported at Republican state headquarters yesterday that the situation in Linn County is favorable to the complete Republican ticket.

"The attacks by the local Democratic press," he said, "are helping Mr. Booth. In spite of the fact that Albany formerly was the home of Senator Chamberlain, I am confident that Mr. Booth will carry Linn County."

Republican voters at Carlton who have not yet been fixed. The exact date has not yet been fixed. Wallace McCamant, of Portland, has accepted the invitation to speak for the state ticket. The Carlton organization was exceedingly active in the 1912 campaign.

A visitor at Republican county headquarters yesterday was Joseph Weber, commission in precinct No. 98. He is one of the most active Republican workers in the county and reports conditions favorable to the whole ticket.

Leonard R. Gilbert, of Albany, who was in Portland yesterday, reported to E. H. Campbell, secretary of the Republican State Committee, that both Mr. Booth and Dr. Withycombe will carry Albany. The county is well organized here, he says, and sure of success. Citizens there will vote the ticket straight, he predicts.

W. H. Heesman, of Gates, Or., writing to the State Republican Committee about the political campaign in his neighborhood, says that political matters from a Republican standpoint are in the air. He predicts that Governor and Senator.

Vawter Crawford, publisher of the Gazette-Times, of Heppner, in writing to the state committee, says: "R. A. Booth is strong in Morrow County; so is Dr. Withycombe. It is a Republican year all the way. Of this there is no doubt."

Democratic state headquarters in the Swetland building is preparing to mail out to the voters of Oregon great quantities of copies of a speech delivered by the United States Senator on May 1st last by Senator John P. Shafroth, of Colorado, in which he defends the new Federal currency bill in the face of some adverse criticism.

The purpose of this wholesale distribution in Oregon of the address made by Senator Shafroth is to give the voters a month or more to think over the merits of the currency measure for which the present Democratic Administration takes credit. An appendix will be made for votes for Senator Chamberlain on the ground that he is the ardent supporter of the Wilson Administration.

Incidentally, the campaign documents are being mailed from the Portland postoffice under Senator Shafroth's name.

More than two score young women who reside at the home of the Portland woman, were addressed on Tuesday evening by J. E. Warlick, Esq. Mrs. Alice R. Nugent on the issues of the campaign. After the speeches it was learned that more than half of the women present registered.

Dr. C. J. Smith, Democratic nominee for Governor, is expected to arrive in Southern Oregon for a few days. He will go south as far as Ashland and will visit several intermediate points.

It has been learned that there are numerous vacancies and it is the purpose of this organization to fill all the vacancies promptly so that the new appointees may serve also at the proposed recall election.

One of the most encouraging reports received at Republican county headquarters in the last few weeks is that of the poll recently conducted in Clatsop county. It is evident that Booth will carry Multnomah County by a big margin.

Milton A. Miller, collector of internal revenue, will go to Newberg Friday evening to address a Democratic meeting at Newberg. Democrats at Newberg also will speak.

William Hanley, Progressive Senatorial candidate, spoke at Arlington and Heppner yesterday and visited many voters in Gilliam and Morrow counties. He will visit W. W. Dawson today, speaking at Durum and several other points, and will return to Portland tomorrow.

W. S. U'ren, independent candidate for Governor, addressed the state club yesterday at Heppner. He will visit Ashland and Medford today and will remain in Southern Oregon until the end of the week.

Miss Anne Shannon Monroe will speak at the Liberty tomorrow evening in support of William Hanley, candidate for Senator. A brief musical programme also has been arranged.

A. E. Fiegel, candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket, made two speeches in two different parts of town last night. His first was before a group of Woodstock voters in the schoolhouse at Woodstock, and the second before a crowd in the Brooklyn schoolhouse.

Ex-Governor T. T. Geer will go to Hillsboro on Saturday to deliver an address before a group of Washington voters. He has proposed to organize an auxiliary to the Republican county committee.

Mark Holmes, a Democratic war-horse, is reported to have deserted Chamberlain. "And we are given to understand," says Tillamook headliner in commenting on this report, "that there are Democrats in Tillamook who have had enough of Chamberlain's free trade, and they are turning to the Republican side."

B. J. Jones, who is writing letters to the Democratic paper, states in some of the candidates on the Republican ticket, is the same Jones who was defeated for the Republican nomination for Congress in the First District in the May primaries.

It is pointed out, even by the Democrats, that the Democratic party is in a weak position. The Democratic party is in a weak position.

Every candidate on the Republican state and county ticket will attend the dinner at the Commercial Club tomorrow evening at a special meeting of the executive committee of the County Central Committee.

Likewise every member of the state and county committees has been invited to attend—especially the women. The executive committee proposes in this manner to assemble the entire Republican organization under one roof

SUGAR OFF QUERRER

Pacific Coast Markets Follow Decline in East.

UNDERCURRENT IS EASY Trade Interested in Offer of Cargo of Austrian Crystals at Low Price — Importation Not Likely to Be Effectuated.

As a consequence of the break in the New York sugar market Tuesday afternoon refined sugar prices in all the Pacific Coast markets were reduced 25 cents a hundred pounds. Prices are now where they stood early in August, when a new crop coming on, a further decline is not improbable.

The New York trade is interested in the reported offer of 12,000 tons of Austrian sugar at a price that would bring the sugar to a port in this country at a cost of 4.75 cents per pound, duty paid, without including the cost of international law have declared that goods purchased from a warring nation and paid for by a neutral could not be captured on the high seas as a prize of war. It is therefore possible that American interests so desire, to send an American steamer to an Austrian or Italian port and load a full cargo of Austrian sugar and sail through the Mediterranean unmolested by British or French war vessels, in commenting on the matter the Journal of Commerce says:

"It is understood that neither Germany nor Austria are in want of sugar, but the belligerents are that they will not tolerate the export of sugar during the war. While the fact that the production of sugar in this year will be well over their normal consumption needs is readily conceded, it is understood that surplus stocks of sugar will be held and a large part of the surplus will be devoted to grain crop on next spring's sowings.

"By this plan Germany and Austria will be able to offset the effect of England's stoppage of exports of grain from this country to Germany through Rotterdam. The importation of grain from Russia, Black Sea ports has naturally been stopped, but fortunately the Austrian crop this year will be of sufficient proportions to enable both Germany and her ally to overcome the blockade of their ports."

BETTER FEELING IN HOP TRADE Larger Orders Received and Prices Are Maintained.

The hop market appears to be holding its own pretty well. In fact, if anything, the feeling was better yesterday. As larger orders come forward from the East, the market is held steady.

which was sold for $1.00 per bushel. The cars have been routed to New York, points in Nebraska, Minnesota, Texas and California. Some of the apples will go to England.

The greater portion of the picking will be finished this week. The estimate of 1,000,000 boxes for the year's crop will shrink about 100,000 boxes.

Country Produce Is Weak. The country produce markets were weak. Receipts of poultry with a new crop coming on, and buyers were indifferent. Hens and Springs sold at 11 1/2 and 12 cents. Veal quoted at 11 1/2 and 12 cents and pork at 9 1/2 cents.

The egg market was in good shape, with a steady demand for fresh ranch and storage eggs. Dairy produce was steady at quotations.

Fruit Receipts Light. Fruit receipts of all kinds were light and trade on the street was slow. Apples and apples command good attention and prices are holding steady. Southern onions are arriving freely. Potatoes are quoted weaker, as more are being offered by farmers.
