PULLMAN TEAM IS UNKNOWN

Odds and Ends Not Yet Tested May Turn Surprise Saturday.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Washington State College historians in football matters point to the fact that in certain vital particulars the team from Pullman which meets the University of Oregon in Portland Saturday resembles quite closely the 1907 team which Bender coached the first season he was at the college, That team, like the present one, was made up of odds and ends pulled tomade up of odds and ends pulled together after the retirement of the mainstays and backstays of former years. It was light, green, quite inexperienced, and it was wholly a guess as to what it could do. Oddly enough, contrary to all expectation, the team

was not scored on during the season.
Already the present team has been defeated by the University of Montana,
10 to 0; but it is observed that at Montana the college was outweighed nearly
20 pounds to the man.

20 pounds to the man.

Bernard at quarter, ably backed up
by Durham and Smith, Bangs, Satters

thwaite and Dietz back of quarter, with Heg and Tyrer on the ends, undoubtedly constitute about the shiftiest combination recently seen here. George Harter will be seen no more at center, but his place is filled by the only veteran on the team—Asa Clark. Applequist and Langdon, right tackle and guard respectively, are hefty, sure fellows, and as much can be said for Captain-Alvord and Zimmerman on the other side of center.

Commissioner Receives Report of All Industries.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The field deputies of Labor Commissioner Hoff's office have collected data on all industries of the state for publithe trial as the prosecution was trying to introduce the confession of Wolfman.

"Star chamber methods have been used in this case," declared the Court Mr. Robison has used undue zeal. The District Attorney's office has no right to coquette with defendants, to for from one to the other with stories that each has confessed.

"For two months or more Mr. Robison's conduct in this case was unjustifiable. He was overzealous and used illegal means to get this confession. I place no blame upon Mr. Evans, the District Attorney. There is nothing to show that he knew the methods used. I would not feel justified if a conviction were found in this case, in allowing it to stand."
