SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16 .- (Special.) One of the most remarkable double-eaders ever played in the Pacific Coast League was that of today at Oakland between the Beavers and the Oaks, when the two clubs divided honors and when Evans, of Portland, pitched a no-hit, no-run game, and Bromley, the youthful southpaw recruit of the Commuters, pitched a no-run and one-hit game. Bromley had a wonderful fast oall and his spitter was perfect. The first game went to Oakland by a 1-to-0 game of the St. Louis city series for ducted in the schoolhouse score, and Portland won the second the Browns. W. S. Linville, of Carlton, says that the Republicans of that place are mak-ing great preparations for a "grand and enthuslastic meeting" there next Saturday at 8 P. M. There will be delsegations present from McMinnville, Sheridan, Newberg, Yambili and other nearby towns. Wallace McCamant, of Portland, will represent the Republi-can State Committee and make the principal address at the meeting. The Republican meeting scheduled to take place at Sunnyside next Tuesday has been postponed on account of the inability of some of the speakers to attend. It will be held later in the campaign.

Democratic women of Portland are active in their preparations for the reception that is to be tendered Senator and Mrs. Chamberlain at the Commercial Club Monday afternoon. Dr. Esther Pohl Lovejoy will deliver the address of welcome on the part of the women. While the plans are in charge of the Democratic women they propose to make it a non-partisan affair and are issuing invitations to men and women of all parties to attend. The reception will continue from 3 to 6 o'clock. Senator Chamberlain will speak about 4 o'clock. Democratic women of Portland are

"The Republican organization of Co "The Republican organization of Columbia County is working heart and soul for the success of the whole ticket in November." said W. H. H. Dufur, who attended a recent meeting of the Republican State Central Committee. "They have laid aside all personal and local differences and are working for the ticket from top to bottom. They adopted stirring resolutions of a 'vote-if-straight' character at this meeting, which was one of the most enthusiastic political gatherings which I have ever attended."

H. R. Kincaid, former Secretary of State, has written a letter to Charles B. Moores, chairman of the Republican State Committee strongly indorsing R. A. Booth for the United States Senate. He calls attention to the fact that in order to preserve the high standard of living to which the American workingman is accustomed and to which he is entitled it is necessary to maintain a high protective tariff on all commodities produced in this country. He points out that the Democrats invariably agitate and legislate against this theory and calls upon the people therefore to vote for Booth. In writing of the Republican Senatorial nominee, he says:

Two Republican railies tonight—one at Sellwood and the other at Lents—will serve to open the Republican campaign in Multnomah County.

Some of the candidates on both the state and county tickets will speak at each place, and a few of them will speak, probably, at both places. Special invitations have been issued to the women voters.

The speakers at Sellwood will be exgovernor Geer, Thomas M. Hurlburt, candidate for Sheriff, and C. N. McArthur, nominee for Representative in Congress. W. H. Golding will preside.

At Lenis both Mr. Geer and Mr. McArthur will speak, besides S. B. Huston, candidate for the Legislature, George Hall and others. F. R. Peterson will preside.
