CONSOLIDATION HAS FOES
Chamber of Commerce Opposes Any Junction of State Departments.
Resolutions adopted by the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting of its trustees Wednesday, endorsing the Corporation Commission and opposing the initiative bill directed against the commission, were drawn up yesterday.

Whereas, initiative bill Nos. 338 and 339, purporting to consolidate the Corporation Department of the State of Oregon with the Insurance Department, would not in fact effect such consolidation, but rather subordinate the Corporation Department to the Insurance Department, resulting in no decrease in administration costs; and
Whereas, an efficient, independent admin-

ROSE WORKERS WANTED
Societies Urged to Put Committees on Plan for Flower Planting.
Either the Rose Festival Association or the Rose Society or both should head any movement to encourage the wider growing of roses in Portland is the opinion expressed yesterday by H. D. Ramsdell, president of the Commercial Club.

from one or the other of these organizations, or a joint committee from both. Every other club and civic organization in the city, I am convinced, will co-operate most heartily with them in the movement. Each club, after the general plan is developed can appoint its committee and work out the details of its share of the campaign.

'REALTY' MAN FACES TRIAL
C. T. Selby Held for Fraud by Mail
in Arithmetical Puzzle Case.
C. T. Selby is being held under $500 bond to the November United States grand jury on a charge of fraudulent use of the mails. Using the name, Central Building & Financing Company, Selby had offices at 123 Chamber of Commerce building. He inserted advertisements in newspapers, offering "lots in the heart of California, in a great resort near San Francisco," to be given free to anyone who would solve a simple arithmetical puzzle.
