FINAL BATTLE FOR PENNANT ON TODAY

If Angels Make Clean Sweep of Last Series Beavers Must Win 3 Games.

CHANCE OF SLIP SLIGHT

Attorney for "Hunky" Shaw Says He Will File Amended Complaint Asking $4000 Damages From San Francisco Club.

Pacific Coast League Standings. W. L. Pet. W. L. Pet. 110 80 586 Venice. 109 94 537 112 98 554 Mission. 86 118 422 111 95 544 Oakland. 76 129 370 Where the Teams Play Today, Portland at San Francisco, Oakland vs. Missions at Cakland, Venice at Los Angeles, There were no games yesterday.

The final struggle in the Pacific Coast League pennant race will begin this afternoon, when the Beavers will this afternoon, when the Heavers will open a seven-game series with the Seals at San Francisco and Los An-geles will tackle Venice for the same number of games in Los Angeles. The Missions and Oaks will fight it out in akiand.

If by any chance the Angels manage heat hap Hogan's Tiger crew in all even games and the Beavers drop five ames to the receding Seals. Portland ses the pennant. It is not at all kely, however, that the Angels will win all seven games, and it is just as unlikely that the Beavers will not be able to capture three games from the Shirley D. Parker, attorney for Royal N. (Hunky) Shaw in his suit for alleged back salary due him from the San Francisco baseball club, saya he will file an amended complaint some time this week, asking damages amounting to $4000.

wankee, Wis.

The teams will play in Portland Gotober 31 and November 1. A plan to have a team composed of Beavers and Colta play the big leaguers here is being talked of, but it is unlikely the major players will be able to stay over the time scheduled, as they are to play a number of games in California before sailing for Honolulu on Denia before sailing for Honolulu on De-

Portland was the only city in the Northwest that obtained two dates.

Dave Bancroft, the Beaver shortstop pave Bancroft, the Beaver shortstop gensation, is being inquired after by three major league clubs, according to reports from San Francisco. Scout Billy Neil, of the Phillies, is in San Francisco to give Bancroft the once over. Besides Philadelphia, the St. Louis Nationals and an American League club are reported angling for Daye's services.

Dave's services.
It is said that Walt McCredie looks with favor on the offer the Cardinals have made for his shortstop. Walt says that he is likely to part with Dave and is anxious to get a fair price for him. The Beaver boss also wants to do right by Bancroft and place him with a club.

Sounding the Sport Reveille where he will be able to show to good advantage.

Tom Hughes, the veteran big league twirler with the Angels, considered one of the best judges of youngsters in the country, thinks that Bancroft is a grand little ball player and one of the likely looking young players he Scout Nell is looking over other prospects for the Phillies, and it is expected that at least one Coast Leaguer will get a trial at Philadelphia next Spring.

Scout Neil looks for a big boom in baseball throughout the country. He believes that the off season baseball club. There is talk of putting a Fedhas experienced this year will be made eral League team there.

FISHER STILL LEADS AT BAT

Figures Show Howard Second but Wolters Should Have It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—Although Gus Fisher, of the leading Beavers, fell off nine points this week in his batting average, his work for the season has been consistent enough to leave him out in front, with a mark of .254.

Del Howard, the Seals' manager, no lenger can be counted fairly in the running, for though Howard's percentage is .352, he has been out of the game for so many weeks that second place rightly goes to Harry Wolters, of the Angels, who, besides averaging .333, SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19 .- Although Angels, who, besides averaging .333, also has lined out 257 safe hits, more than any other player in the league; has eight home runs to his credit, one less than Lober, of Portland, and is tied with Bayless, of Venice, for 23

Harl Maggert has scored more runs ian any other player, but his total of it is only two shead of Wolters. Rodgers, of Portland, has stolen 69 bases and has virtually no rivals. O'Leary, of San Francisco, has bunted out exactly the same number of sacrifice hits, which comes near being a world's record.

In team hitting Portland, with a percontage of .278, is five points ahead of Los Angeles. The Beavers' work with the stick is responsible for their stand-ing in the league, for in fielding Ven-ice, San Francisco and Los Angeles all

LESTER-BONDS BATTLE IS NEAR

Heavyweight Championship Match at Tacoma, October 29.

TACOMA, Oct. 19.—Jack Lester, the man who, Tommy Burns believes, will some day be the champion of the world, and Joe Bonds, the Tacoma heavyweight, will box at a local lodge smoke California with his manager reddie Peltz.
Bonds started training today. contest will decide the heavyweight championship of the Pacific Northwest.

PORTLAND BOY OUT OF GAME

Ed Leader's Broken Wrist Costs Him Place on Washington Team.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Se-ttle, Oct. 12.—(Special.)—A broken know.

wrist, sustained last Saturday night in a scrimmage with the varsity scrubs, will keep Ed Leader, of Portland, Do-bie's choice for right end, out of the running for that position on the Uni-versity of Washington football team this sesson.

versity of Washington football team this season.

Leader has been one of the most dependable men on the varsity this year, and his position almost was assured until Saturday. Leader's absence will be feit keenly in the Washington-Whitman game to be played here next Saturday, as he has been playing with the first team for the past week.

FED COUP NEAR IS REPORT FIGHTING SPIRIT IS REVIVED

Brooklyn Club Backers May Buy New York Americans, Is Story.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Local baseball reles were startled today by a report bat Ward brothers, backers of the Brooklyn Federal League club, were ne-gotiating for the purchase of the New York American League club. The re-was due him for the time lost during his suspension.

Dave Bancroft, Beaver Shortstop, Sought by Three Major League Clubs.

Shaw was suspension.

Shaw was suspension the San Francisco Coast League Club September 24, 1911. He claimed he had other chances to piay bail, but the club would not give a release to him. He was with the Vancouver Northwestern League team last season.

Every player on the All-National and American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected wish baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected with baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected with baseball who said that the would take the content of the local American League teams to play a man in no way connected with the "Dohi baseball to return kicks for 20 and 30-yard gains more satisfactory results will be obtained.

Idaho Feared by Bezdek.

Bezdek now has the fighting men, and when their tackling gets to such a degree that a quarterback will be unable to return kicks for 20 and 30-yard gains more satisfactory results will be obtained.

Idaho is reputed better than a year ago, and if the Bezdek craft sails successfully through the story.

Robert E. Ward, of the Brooklyn Federals, said he had been approached by a man in no way connected with the would take the content of the proving the content of the proving the content of the proving was with the Vangouver Northwestern League team last season.

Every player on the All-National and American League teams to play here the last of this month, was required to put up $200 as a guarantee that he would take the trip. The first game was played last Saturday at Milwaukee, Wis.

The teams will play in Portland October 11 and November 1. A plan of the market and recognized by the major leagues. This case of this season may be heard from active service. Huntington, Monter that he and November 1. A plan recognized by the major leagues. This contest, will be exception of the Story.

Willametts contest, will be enjoyed before invading Seattle to give battle to the "Doble champs" November 14. Changes in the present varsity are inevitable. Lyle Bigbee and Cornwell are men who deserve selection. Malarket that he answered that he would, if the purchase of the club. Mr. Ward said that he answered that he would, if the price was right and the other Federal League club owners were protected and recognized by the major leagues. That city. There was a parade with ten bands and several drum corps and more than 5000 men in line. Nearly every organization in the city was represented

Arriving in Home Town.

Captain Evers rode at the head of the column in an automobile with Mayor Burns and he was wildly cheered all along the line of march. After the parade there was a banquet that is to come to the Coast this Winter, "Portland" Bill James will be a member of the squad. "Seattle" Bill will be a member of the apposing team.

It would be a great piece of luck for local fans if these two twirlers should appears each other on the mound in It would be a great piece of luck for local fans if these two twirlers should

The following was received last even The following was received last evening in the sporting editor's mail. After giving it the "once over" he passed it along with the remark that he has already gathered more than his share of wrinkles from putting friends right who insisted on arguing over such things at this:

who insisted on argume things as this:

Sporting Editor: In a friendly argu-ment a friend of mine made the state-ment that baseball during the baseball season is the best-paying business in the United States today. I said that farming was a better paying business during that season than baseball. Please answer through your paper telling us which is right.

A READER.

"How old is Anne?" Dear Mr. Reader, your question takes the prize of all we were ever called upon to answer. Farming is a large and thriving industry and according to Webster's is the art of "cultivating

Now it is a well-known fact that during a good season (we do not refer to the one just ending) a baseball mag-nate has never been known to want for an overcoat whilst the chilly winds of winter are blowing. On the other hand the modern farmer who owns acres running into the thousands also cleans up a neat pile of the filthy lucre in a good season.

The difference then, perhaps, is between the farmhand and the ballplayer—the two hired hands. In comparing the salaries of these two most valuable assets of the businesses we can easily see that the farmhand would welcome a chance to jump to the Feds.

There can be no comparison between the two as a business.

Connie Mack said that George Stallings was "too much like Jack Johnson." However, George must not be so much like the big colored scrapper after all, seeing that he has just turned down an offer of umity ump thousand dollars for a three weeks' vaudeville engage-

Kenworthy, the former Coast Leaguer, batted .316 for the Kansas City Federals, according to the official averages issued recently.

Artie Krueger's name was not "among those present" in the .300 class.

Deeds of the famous must be always faunted in our face. A Seattle scribe is telling how Bill James, the Boston twirler, stayed up half the night before pitching the second game of the world's series, to secure tickets for a man from Seattle whom he did not know.

Bezdek Makes Team Work to Strengthen Weak Point.

Portland Game Great Lesson, Show ing Defects as Well as Advantages in Training-Change in Line Now Is Likely.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Or., Oct. 19 .- (Special.) -- Coach Bezdek and his squad waged through mud and and his squad waged through mud and water this afternoon in an effort to get rid of the kinks which resulted from the hard fight with Pullman in Portland last Saturday. With the exception of Cawley's severely bruised shoulder all of the men are in fair condition, and no doubt will be sent into a stiff scrimmage tomorrow.

mage tomorrow.

Pullman threw a scare into Oregon's Pullman threw a scare into Oregon's championship visions which long will be remembered, and the one great lesson taught the lemon-yellow contingent, at nearly the high cost of defeat, was that tackling is one of the prime factors of modern football.

While Pullman and O. A. C. scrap in Pullman Saturday, Oregon will take on Idaho in Moscow, just a few miles distant. The game with Idaho is even more feared than was the one that the Washington Aggles doled out.

Couch Strikes at Defect. It is this defeat in the Oregon ma-chine which the coaches are attempting to remedy, and each afternoon of the time spent at home will be devoted to some extent in "tackling the dummy." This, it is hoped, will better the too-evident flaw.

That the Oregon team has at last "got the old fight," which ever since Bezdek's return to the State University he has been trying to instill into the spirit of his players, was amply illustrated in the battle with Bender's applrants Saturday. Every man wear-ing an Oregon uniform fought to the last ditch and as a result a victory was

IN ONE of the first soccer games in the Portland Grammar School League TROY, N. Y., Oct. 19.—Troy gave for the 1914 season, the Failing 11 de-Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston feated the Davis school 4 to 1. The Braves, a rousing reception tonight playing of Nathan Lippman, of the upon his return to his home in this Falling team, was the big feature of Falling team, was the big feature of the game while his teammates, A. T. Weinstein and Collins, played weil. The Davis school had only two veteran players. This state of affairs was a big handicap to the North Portland school. Leonard Greer was the Davis school champion, scoring the only goal made by his team.

It was with little difficulty that the Kerns grammar, school soccer team Kerns grammar, school soccer team Fords—Edwards (captain), B. Doogle City school squad

After the parade there was a banquet at the state armory, at which about 500 guests were present.

Sounding the Sport Reveille

Responding the Responding the Responding the Sport Reveille

The back of Reese Bates, one of the regulars of the Jefferson High football team, was severely wrenched in the game against Astoria High last

One of the leading motion-picture louses of the city is showing the cenes of the various Portland interscholastic league football teams in action. The Washington High, Port-land Academy, Hill Military Academy and Lincoln High aggregations are filmed now and the Jefferson High and Columbia University will be taken and shown later. . . .

Tom Mitchell the Hill Military Academy lineman, who was thought to be seriously injured when he was taken out of the game against Washington High, is able to be around, but he will not be out in a football suit until next week.

John Casey, Washington stellar center, in whose forehead four stellar center, in whose forehead four stitches were taken as a result of coming in contact with his teammate. Stanley Anderson, in the Columbia game, was out in a suit on the side lines during the Washington-Hill game last Friday. Coach Earl is trying to have his injured player in the best possible condition for the Lincoln game, slated for two weeks from to-morrow.

Out of the four football matches played in the beal league this year, only one resulted in a shut-out, while last season the first five games found the winners winning without letting their opponents score. Only two games out of the 15 found both teams making points in one affair.

ALL-STAR GAME CALLED OFF

Maroons and Randalls Despair of Contest This Season.

No more attempts will be made to stage the game between the Randall All-Stars and the Pledmont Maroons, according to Business Manager W. W. Metrger, of the Portland baseball club. The game was scheduled originally for Sunday, October 11, but was postponed until last Sunday on account of rain. The inclement weather again called a halt jast Sunday and the game has been called off for good.

Carl Mays, the former Colt, was slated to twirl for the Maroops. No more attempts will be made to Johnny Lush on Way Home.

Johnny Lush, one of the mainstays of the Beaver pitching staff, left the team the other day and is on his way to his home in New York, Lush's father-in-law is seriously ill and Johnny was called to his bedside, Johnny will report to the Beavers again in the Spring.

Washougal Wins From Estacada. WASHOUGAL, Wash, Oct. 12.—(Spe-dal.)—The Washougal High Schoo ootball team went to Estacada Satur day and defeated the high school of that city by a score of 7 to 6. Estacada was superior in forward passes and Washougal in end runs and line work. Washougal scored in the second quarter by a touchdown and goal, Estacada by two drop kicks in first and third quarters. The Washougal team will play Stevenson High School here next Saturday.

5 ARMY-NAVY GAMES ASSURED

Agreement Calls for Each Side Alternately to Name Site.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The annual Army and Navy football games are assured for the next five years, it was announced here tonight. The game this year will be played in Philadelphia November 28.

Under the agreement, West Point and Annapolis will alternately select the site for the game. The choice this year went to the Navy. Joseph Lillard Elected to Handle

Columbia's Star Tackle Away

Willis O'Brien, Columbia University's star tackie, left for his home in Vancouver, B. C., last week because of the illness of his father. Word was received in Portland yesterday that his father died Sunday. Willis O'Brien probably will have to remain in British Columbia for several weeks before returning to his studies at the university, and the loss, of him at tackie will be felt severely by Coach Callicrate to the Brooklyn Feds last June, is back in town.

HOUCK LAUDS FEDERALS

LEAGUE IS HERE TO STAY, SAYS PORTLAND BROOKFED.

Byron Houck, the Portland baurdled from Connie Mack's Athleto.

The young pitches is all praise for the new league. He says that it is bere to stay and will give the majors a run for their money next season.

"The Federal League was new last season, and as a consequence things naturally did not run as smooth as they did in the older and settled major leagues," said Houck yesterday to the "The Federals, however, treat their players better than do the other two big leagues."

Houck jumped to the Brooklyn team the Athletics when Connie Mack in the Athletics, as tennis was insugurated in the Schools in the Schools in the Schools in the Schools in the Athletes, as tennis was insugurated in the Schools in the Schools in the Athletes, as tennis was insugurated in the S Idaho Feared by Bezdek.

Bezdek now has the fighting men, and when their tackling gets to such a degree that a quarterback will be unable to return kicks for 20 and 30-yard gains more satisfactory results will be obtained.

Idaho is reputed better than a year ago, and if the Bezdek craft sails successfully through the storm, a rest of three weeks, with the exception of the Willametts contest, will be enjoyed before invading Seattle to give battle to the "Dobie champs" November 14.

Changes in the present varsity are inevitable. Lyle Bigbee and Cornwell are men who deserve selection. Maiarkey and Garrett, in this case, will retire from active service. Huntington, Monteith and "Skeet" Bigbee are giving veterans a classy go for honors, and before the close of this season may be heard from.

Amateur Athletics

players better than do the other two big leagues."

Houck jumped to the Brooklyn team from the Athletics when Connie Mack wanted to farm him out to the Balti-markey and to farm him out to the Balti-markey and service when exists and the more club of the International League. "It's pretty hard to do a 'come back' Swhen the Federals offered me more money and Connie insisted oh sending not have a very good year with Brook-lyn, however, as my shoulder bothered in the minors," said Byron, "so when the Federals offered me more money and Connie insisted oh sending not have a very good year with Brook-lyn, however, as my shoulder bothered to and will be in good trim when I report to the Brook-leagues."

When asked how former Portland and Coast Leaguers were making it in the new league Houck replied, "The Portland boys were going fine. Chadbourne and Berry were two of the louck started his diamond career while a student at the Washington light was a started to the University of Oregon team also before going into organized baseball.

for the University of Oregon team also before going into organized baseball.

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE MADE Christian Brothers' College Starts

Loeffelman.
Thors - Walby (captain), Decker,
Stanich, Ryan, Dooher and Walsh.
Two games have been played already. The Fatimas have defeated the Thors by the score of 17 to 3 and the Ruf Neks have been downed by the Fords

Great enthusiasm is shown among the alumni and the students of the col-

Plans Changed Again and Greens to Be in Original Location.

Work of making the first nine holes at the Portland Golf Club permanent was started yesterday. Another switch was made in the plans and the greens will be located as was originally planned before the last set of plans was drawn. The first green will result the clubhouse.

Will take the matter up as a body and begin a city-wide campaign for its passage.

The resolution for the amendment comes up for final passage at the Council meeting Wednesday night and provides that the city may issue $250,000 and the starting place will be at the clubhouse.

A temporary green is being installed near the first hole in order that work of making the first green permanent be not molested.

The measure also provides for an annual budget. A limit of 5 milles for making the first green permanent be not molested. new greens will all be 75 feet in diameter

SLOUGHS TO BE PATROLED 60-Acre Yield Near Washougal

Deputy District Game Warden Ervin Takes Up Matter of Getting Boat.

As a means of patroling the lower river and sloughs, Deputy District Game Warden Frank Ervin has taken up with C. H. Evans the matter of obtaining a boat for that purpose. At first it was thought advisable to buy one, but after more deliberation it was thought better to rent a launch thought better to rent a launch. A different boat will be procured each time, according to District Deputy Ervin, and in this way the hunter who is violating the game law will not know when he is liable to be arrested.

The first patrol of the sloughs was made last Sunday and a regular beat will be maintained throughout the open Brennan Outboxes Al McCoy.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 19 .- Willie (Knockout) Brennan out-boxed Al Mc-Coy, claimant of the middleweight championahlp, in a fast 19-round bout here today. Neither boxer scored a knockdown, but Brennan outpointed his opponent at all stages. McCoy weighed 158 and Brennan 157.

John Kling Loses at Billiards.

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—In the opening game of the interstate three-cushion billiard league here tonight, Charles McCourt, of Pittsburg, defeated John Kling, of Kansas City, 50 to 31 in 80 innings. Each had a high run of four. The game was very close for the first 40 innings.

It is stated that no city in the world produces newspapers in such a variety of languages 22 New York.

Part of the physical work of the Y. M. C. A was at a standstill yeaterday will eak that made its appearance above the swimming pool. The shower and steam rooms are undergoing a thorough overhauling, while the men had to tear through the concrete floor of the building to reach the leaking pipes. The break in the pipe tied up several features of the associational work, both in the boys' department and in the business men's club.

Lincoln High Athletic Association Holds Election.

FIVE DIRECTORS CHOSEN

Business End of Football Eleven to Succeed Earl R. Goodwin, '13, Who Resigned.

The annual Fall election of the Lin-coln High School Athletic Association was held in the school auditorium yes-terday afternoon. Five directors, seven managers and a yell leader, for the 1914 football games, were elected,

Although the football manager gen-erally is elected at the Spring meeting Earl R. Goodwin, '12, who was chosen to handle the business end of the 1914 eleven, resigned and Joseph Lillard was elected to fill the vacated position. Lillard is one of the most popular students in the West Side high and he has been manager of three other athletic teams, as well as appearing on the athletic board on three occasions. He was elected to the board again yesterday.

Players Better Treated Than by Other Majors, Avers Pitcher Who Jumped Prom Connie Mack's Team.

Byron Houck, the Portland boy, who hurdled from Connie Mack's Athletics to the Brooklyn Feds last June, is back in town.

The young pitches is all praise for the new league. He says that it is here to stay and will give the majors a run for their money next season.

The Federal League was new last season, and as a consequence things naturally did not run as smooth as they did in the older and settled mathlete. Will manage the 1913 baseball team, of the Lincoln High, and Leighton Steele will watch over the finances of the baskethall team. For societ manager Preston Holt received the largest number of votes and Wallace McTarnahan was chosen manager of the wrestling team.

The honor of receiving their offices by unanimous choice went to Jack Bates, as track manager, and Lowell Paget, as tennis manager. Wrestling was inaugurated in the local interscholastic league last year, and although tennis has been in the schools for the past two seasons, this is the first time the high schools have made it a recognized.

Columbia University will send its football team against Coach "Spec" Hurburt's Portland Academy representatives on Multnomah field tomorrow afternoon. The academy is tied with Washington High for first honors in the league, while the only start made by Coach Callicrate's varsity resulted in a 7-to-7 score.

Both aggregations are for the open in either lineup.

The squads will go out for a light work-out this afternoon, with signal practice for the most part Columbia University defeated Pacific College, of Newberg, 13 to 7, on the campus list Pre-Season Series of Games.

A pre-season basketball league has it been formed among the students of the Christian Brothers' Business College. There are four teams, each being permitted to carry six players. The game side to carry six players. The game side to control this control that the control of the

CLUB MAY BACK BONDS Live Wires Asked to Study Measure

to Clear Oregon City Debt. OREGON CITY, Oct. 19 .- (Special.)-At the regular meeting of the Oregon City Live Wires, Tuesday night in the Commercial Club parlors, that body will the alumni and the students of the college in the coming card party and social next Friday night. The proceeds will go to the athletic association.

Commercial Club parlors, that body will be asked by municipal authorities to appoint a committee to investigate thoroughly the city tax amendment to be voted on at a special election No-

If the request is granted and the committee reports favorably on the proposed amendment the Live Wires will take the matter up as a body and begin a city-wide campaign for its pas-

PRUNE CROP NETS $24,765

Brings Record Price

VANCOUVER, Wash, Oct. 19.-(Spe cial.) - Frank L Russell today receive a check for $24,765.70 for his 1914 prun a check for $24,765.70 for his 1914 prune crop from the J. K. Armsby Packing Company of this city. This is said to be the largest sum ever received in the State of Washington by one man for a prune crop in a year when scores of crops were failures. Mr. Russell received 6% cents a pound for his fruit. Mr. Russell's orchard near Washougat comprises about 60 acres. He cultivates it thoroughly and has the soil in the orchard mealy. He had carloads of fertilizer worked into the ground and this, in oxidizing caused enough neat to protect the crop from nough neat to protect the crop from

Y. M. C. A. WORK DELAYED Physical Department Idle When them.

Rooms Are Flooded.

AGGIES VOTE TODAY OR TOMOR-ROW ON ORREGON CONTEST.

Efforts Being Made to Take Out Weak Spots Shown in Last Event Before Meeting Bender's Men.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COL The question of where the state championship football game will be played will be decided at a meeting of the student body to be held tomorrow or Wednesday. The decision will rest with the students.

Meanwhile Again elevator will be completed in every detail in the course of the next two weeks, and at that time all will be ready to turn the water into the big structure, which is of the bright all type. A crew of men began the preliminary work on the building of the bridge this morning.

Wednesday. The decision will rest with the students.

Meanwhile Aggie followers of the gridiron game are contenting themselves with reminiscences of the way Willamette was trounced last Saturday and prognostications regarding the outcome of the initial conference game, to be played with Bender's Washington State huskies next Saturday. Willamette was a disappointment to local lamette was a disappointment to local rooters, and the big score hing up by the Aggies was taken not as a sure sign of strength on their part, but as sign of strength on the bridge this morning.

As to the water supply to be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch will arise, as the water commissioners are determined that the city water shall not be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch water supply to be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch water supply to be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch water supply to be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probability that a serious hitch water supply to be used in operating the elevator, there is strong probabilit row afternoon. The academy is tied with Washington High for first honors in the league, while the only start made by Coach Callicrate's varsity resulted in a 7-to-7 score.

Both aggregations are for the open and new-style play, rather than the heavy footballing. The teams will average around 155 pounds to the man. Hugh McKenna, Columbia's 112-pound quarterback, will be the lightest man in either lineup.

be worked out this week as far as possible. In the forward pass game the locals were unable to make a showing of any class. The fact that the ball was slippery is of course an extenuating circumstance.

The Aggle team will leave for the north Thursday noon and the student

WALLA WALLA, Wash, Oct. 19.—
(Special.) — The three youths who sawed out of the juvenile ward at the County Jail Saturday night left a wide trail behind them, but only one has been caught. The last boy to leave, who experienced difficulty getting through the small opening, sprained his hip by a 15-foot drop to liberty, and was half an hour behind the others. He was caught at Athena. The other two are said to have stolen a horse and buggy here and robbed two stores at Milton and two at Weston. The horse and buggy and some of the loot were found at Pendieton today.

Henry Meyers, alias Peter Wiland, 15, was caught. John McFall, alias Max Hoglen, 16, and Martin McCarthy, alias Harry Kelly, are the others. All are from Portland. Meyers says McCarthy is the son of a police sergeant in Portland. Hoglen lives on Williams avenue, and Meyers lives at 690 Minnesota avenue. Meyers says all three escaped from the Salem, Or., reformatory recently, and all have been in trouble before. The boy caught declares they planned to steal bicycles

You Will Stand Improving

The most beautiful woman in the world does not disdain to powder her nose-and surely no man is so close to perfection that he can dispense with suggestions for his improvement.

Wear Politz Clothes

not because they are as good as other clothes, but because they are infinitely superior, de-The Washington State College will investigate Mr. Russell's orchard and his method of cultivating and caring for his prune trees. they are infinitely superior, delated to enhance the appearance of the man who wears and ride to Pendleton. Then the plan was to steal motorcycles, go to Hood River, where they were to rob a store, proceed to The Dalles, and thence to San Francisco.

285 Morrison Between Fourth and Fifth.

CITY ELEVATOR NEARS TOP

Workmen Start Bridge to Bluff From Oregon City Tower. OREGON CITY, Oct. 19 .- (Special.) -It is expected that the long cherished municipal elevator will be completed

ORGY CAUSES EXPULSION Three Washington University Boys

Dropped After House Party. SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 19 .- The ex-University of Washington, members of the freshman and sophomore class for participating in an alleged imme BELCOURT Right to a dot. A very clever white polka dot madras collar which proclaims at a glance its superlative smartness. The leading men's wear stores have Ide Silver Collars or can get them for you —but if you have the slightest bother, write us for a list of our dealers near-

GEO. P. IDE & CO., MAKERS, TROY, N. Y.

