

KRAUSE SHUTS OUT SEALS; SCORE 5 TO 0

San Francisco Gives Fanning Indifferent Support in First Game.

RODGERS FALLS ASLEEP

Despite Fact That Captain Lets Ball "Trickle Through His Legs" Beavers Outclass and Outplay Seals at All Stages.

Pacific Coast League Standings. W. L. P. C. Portland, 111 50 522 Venice, 109 55 533

Yesterday's Results. At San Francisco—Portland 5, San Francisco 0.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—With Harry Krause pitching a four-hit game, the Seals were shut out victims today to the tune of 5 to 0, a state of affairs superinduced not alone by the hits piled up off Fanning, but by the indifferent support he was accorded on the field.

Against Southpaw Krause, the San Francisco players were hopelessly helpless. He scattered three hits in widely-divided innings and again there was a man on the cushions when Bill Rodgers fell sound asleep and Jerry Downs' grounder to trickle through his legs. It was little of a consolation, however, for the locals were outdistanced and outplayed at Recreation Park.

The Beavers put the crusher on the Seals' hopes in the third inning when four singles were collected along with three errors. Walter Downes, on a single to third, Bill Rodgers followed with a vicious swipe that Jones did well to stop. Where the third sacker fell down, however, was in attempting the throw to first. He had no chance to get ready for the heave and it was a mile wide, in consequence.

That miscue helped Doane to third and he scored as Fitzgerald fumbled in his recovery out in right. Kores double-shot the turn to third, a two-bagger to right and Rodgers tallied. On the return throw, O'Leary made a dive in the air but did nothing more than knock the ball down as Kores ambled home while Jones was unsuccessfully attempting a retrieve act. Heine Speas likewise singled to right but there was no further scoring. Davis laid down a sacrifice, Lober grounded to second and Fisher was out on a grounder to third.

After that the Oregonians bided their time until the seventh when once more they were in the running. Bancroft hit one at Jones, who booted again. He was scored as Doane tripled to center field. Rodgers fled to Coy and when Kores hit to O'Leary at short, Doane stole out at the plate. Then Kores stole second, reached third on a wild pitch by Fanning and cantered the rest of the way on Speas' triple to left center. Both Kores and Fanning were Speas dead at third. The score:

Portland..... H O A E..... San Francisco..... H O A E.....

San Francisco..... H O A E.....

Totals..... 36 10 27 9 1..... Totals..... 31 4 27 12 4

Los Angeles Defeats Venice

Angels Get No Nearer Top but Tighten Hold on Second Place.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—Los Angeles failed today to increase its mathematical chance of winning the Coast League pennant, but got a firmer hold on second place by defeating Venice 5 to 2. Bunched hits off Klepper in the fourth and seventh innings brought in the runs. Brockton pitched in the seventh scored Johnson ahead of him. The score:

Venice..... H O A E..... Los Angeles..... H O A E.....

Totals..... 35 7 24 11..... Totals..... 31 27 11 2

Oakland Defeats Mission

Teams Engage in Swatfest, 25 Hits for 32 Bases Being Made.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 20.—Oakland and Mission indulged in a swatfest of the first water here today. In all 25 hits were made for 32 bases. The Oaks were victorious, 9 to 5, owing to costly errors by Missions in the eighth inning. Score:

Oakland..... H O A E..... Missions..... H O A E.....

Totals..... 40 13 27 13..... Totals..... 39 12 27 16 5

Baseball Statistics

Beavers' Batting Averages.

Salverson..... Ab. H. A. Avg. Fisher..... 436 154 353 35.3

Where the Teams Play Today.

Portland at San Francisco, Venice at Los Angeles, Missions at Oakland.

How the Series Stand.

Portland 1 game, San Francisco no game, Los Angeles 3 games, Venice no game, Oakland 1 game, Missions no game.

PORTLAND ALMOST HAS PENNANT WON

Angels Still Hang On Tenaciously but Figures Show Their Chance Slight.

SEALS OUT OF RUNNING

Portland Must Win Only Two More If Angels Take All, but if Angels Lose Only One, Race Will Be Won by Beavers.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

It will take four carloads of turpentine, two bags of gun cotton, a German mine under every base and a flotilla of dreadnoughts to keep Portland from winning the 1914 Pacific Coast League pennant.

McCredie's victory over the Seals yesterday, with Harry Krause in the saddle, put San Francisco practically out of the second-place running, and while the Angels are still hanging tenaciously on, Dillon hasn't the ghost of a show for first money.

If the Angels win the next six games and Portland wins only one game, the final October 25 will be: Los Angeles, .569; Portland, .568. But, if Portland is successful in winning one twenty game of the six and the Angels lose one of their six, good night.

If Portland wins one and loses five with the Seals Portland's percentage at the close will be: Portland, .512 wins, 85 losses, percentage .568.

If Los Angeles wins five and loses one with Venice the Angels' final will be: Los Angeles, .518 wins, 91 losses, percentage .564.

On the other hand, if Portland wins two games with the Seals and loses four, the Angels cannot possibly win, even by taking six straight.

So, you witnesses who bet that Portland wouldn't repeat its 1913 pennant-grabbing stunt, prepare to step up to the counter and pay.

The advance of the Angels into the first division and the corresponding decline of the Sacramento club furnish the only marked changes in the race from one year ago. Oakland has stuck in the cellar consistently, with San Francisco and Venice moaning about in the middle section.

The defection of Lord Kenworthy to the Federals probably hurt the Sacramento worse than any one other thing you can point your finger to. Wolverton was shy of cleanup swatsmiths all season and Kenworthy would just about have filled the bill, for he landed well among the leaders in the Federal League.

For the Angels Kid Ehmke was a lifesaver, and Hughes did better than most of us were willing to concede at the start. Those eight straight of the unknown quantity Ehmke really shoved the Angels into the second hole.

A quiet back over the past two seasons reveals that the Oaks have again proved pennant stepping-stones for the Beavers.

Last year Portland won its year's series with every team except the Angels. This year the Mackmen lead the Angels, but San Francisco has a slight edge.

We append the statistics on the interclub series for the past two years to date:

1913. Portland 22 games, Sacramento 17 games. Portland 20 games, Venice 19 games.

1914. Portland 21 games, Los Angeles 18 games. Portland 14 games, San Francisco 19 games.

Portland 21 games, Venice 19 games. Portland 25 games, Sacramento 15 games.

Portland 30 games, Oakland 9 games. Total wins, 111 games; losses, 80 games.

Portland's percentage today is .581, which puts us ahead of last year's pennant percentage of .55.

As an indication that the race has been run Selmar Brengren, Portland regular catcher, left last night for his home at Galesville, Wis. for the Winter. Brengren was left behind subject to what the Beavers went south two weeks ago. He owns a motion picture house in his home hallicy.

Although Fielder Jones has been given credit for recommending Art Kores to the New York Giants, it was not Jones but Scout "Sinister Dick" Kincaid.

According to Damon Runyon, a New York writer, Kincaid was out here for several weeks telegraphing and microscoping the Portland club.

Runyon intimates that Portland was using Kores in a utility role so as to cover him up from the scouts. Which is wrong. McCredie's shunted Kores around because he had to have someone to fill the gaps in his infield and outfield, and Kores could do the work.

Harry Heilmann, ex-Portland boy who is with Detroit, was badly injured at St. Louis recently, and will bear the marks for the rest of his life. Heilmann was hit on the nose by a thrown ball while holding down first base, the bone shattered and his entire face suffered disfigurement.

Harry was a good-looking boy, and it will be tough on him if his injuries prove permanent.

Phillips Name P. J. Moran Manager.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Oct. 20.—Patrick J. Moran, who has been acting as coach for the Philadelphia National League baseball team, today was elected manager of the club to succeed Charles S. Dooin, according to a telegram from Moran received by President William S. Baker, of the Philadelphia Club, tonight.

Football Results.

At Milwaukee — Beloit, 13; Marquette, 0.

Baseball Statistics

Gridiron Gossip

W. S. LANGFORD, the veteran Eastern football referee, announced his retirement last Fall, but has been persuaded to return to the arena again. Langford resigned because of stinging criticisms against his work in some of the big games last Fall. He will referee the Harvard-Michigan, the Harvard-Brown, the Army-Navy and the Penn-Cornell games.

When coaches, fans and players cease to criticize referees Swedenborg's heaven will be perched on every man's doorstep. It's human nature to

PORTLAND ALMOST HAS PENNANT WON

Angels Still Hang On Tenaciously but Figures Show Their Chance Slight.

SEALS OUT OF RUNNING

Portland Must Win Only Two More If Angels Take All, but if Angels Lose Only One, Race Will Be Won by Beavers.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

It will take four carloads of turpentine, two bags of gun cotton, a German mine under every base and a flotilla of dreadnoughts to keep Portland from winning the 1914 Pacific Coast League pennant.

McCredie's victory over the Seals yesterday, with Harry Krause in the saddle, put San Francisco practically out of the second-place running, and while the Angels are still hanging tenaciously on, Dillon hasn't the ghost of a show for first money.

If the Angels win the next six games and Portland wins only one game, the final October 25 will be: Los Angeles, .569; Portland, .568. But, if Portland is successful in winning one twenty game of the six and the Angels lose one of their six, good night.

If Portland wins one and loses five with the Seals Portland's percentage at the close will be: Portland, .512 wins, 85 losses, percentage .568.

If Los Angeles wins five and loses one with Venice the Angels' final will be: Los Angeles, .518 wins, 91 losses, percentage .564.

On the other hand, if Portland wins two games with the Seals and loses four, the Angels cannot possibly win, even by taking six straight.

So, you witnesses who bet that Portland wouldn't repeat its 1913 pennant-grabbing stunt, prepare to step up to the counter and pay.

The advance of the Angels into the first division and the corresponding decline of the Sacramento club furnish the only marked changes in the race from one year ago. Oakland has stuck in the cellar consistently, with San Francisco and Venice moaning about in the middle section.

The defection of Lord Kenworthy to the Federals probably hurt the Sacramento worse than any one other thing you can point your finger to. Wolverton was shy of cleanup swatsmiths all season and Kenworthy would just about have filled the bill, for he landed well among the leaders in the Federal League.

For the Angels Kid Ehmke was a lifesaver, and Hughes did better than most of us were willing to concede at the start. Those eight straight of the unknown quantity Ehmke really shoved the Angels into the second hole.

A quiet back over the past two seasons reveals that the Oaks have again proved pennant stepping-stones for the Beavers.

Last year Portland won its year's series with every team except the Angels. This year the Mackmen lead the Angels, but San Francisco has a slight edge.

We append the statistics on the interclub series for the past two years to date:

1913. Portland 22 games, Sacramento 17 games. Portland 20 games, Venice 19 games.

1914. Portland 21 games, Los Angeles 18 games. Portland 14 games, San Francisco 19 games.

Portland 21 games, Venice 19 games. Portland 25 games, Sacramento 15 games.

Portland 30 games, Oakland 9 games. Total wins, 111 games; losses, 80 games.

Portland's percentage today is .581, which puts us ahead of last year's pennant percentage of .55.

As an indication that the race has been run Selmar Brengren, Portland regular catcher, left last night for his home at Galesville, Wis. for the Winter. Brengren was left behind subject to what the Beavers went south two weeks ago. He owns a motion picture house in his home hallicy.

Although Fielder Jones has been given credit for recommending Art Kores to the New York Giants, it was not Jones but Scout "Sinister Dick" Kincaid.

According to Damon Runyon, a New York writer, Kincaid was out here for several weeks telegraphing and microscoping the Portland club.

Runyon intimates that Portland was using Kores in a utility role so as to cover him up from the scouts. Which is wrong. McCredie's shunted Kores around because he had to have someone to fill the gaps in his infield and outfield, and Kores could do the work.

Harry Heilmann, ex-Portland boy who is with Detroit, was badly injured at St. Louis recently, and will bear the marks for the rest of his life. Heilmann was hit on the nose by a thrown ball while holding down first base, the bone shattered and his entire face suffered disfigurement.

Harry was a good-looking boy, and it will be tough on him if his injuries prove permanent.

Phillips Name P. J. Moran Manager.

FITCHBURG, Mass., Oct. 20.—Patrick J. Moran, who has been acting as coach for the Philadelphia National League baseball team, today was elected manager of the club to succeed Charles S. Dooin, according to a telegram from Moran received by President William S. Baker, of the Philadelphia Club, tonight.

Football Results.

At Milwaukee — Beloit, 13; Marquette, 0.

Baseball Statistics

Gridiron Gossip

W. S. LANGFORD, the veteran Eastern football referee, announced his retirement last Fall, but has been persuaded to return to the arena again. Langford resigned because of stinging criticisms against his work in some of the big games last Fall. He will referee the Harvard-Michigan, the Harvard-Brown, the Army-Navy and the Penn-Cornell games.

When coaches, fans and players cease to criticize referees Swedenborg's heaven will be perched on every man's doorstep. It's human nature to

BEZDEK SHIFTS MEN

Garrett and Malarkey First Regulars to Be Removed.

WEIGHT ADDED BY MOVE

Lyle Bigbee and Cornwall Supplant Two at End and Halfback, and Opinion is Team Will Be Strengthened by Change.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—True to predictions, Coach Bezdek has commenced the shakeup in the Oregon varsity, and the first regulars to fall by the wayside, casting their lots with the "scrubs," are Garrett and Malarkey.

Lyle Bigbee and Cornwall supplanted the two men at end and halfback, and the campus opinion is that the team as a whole will benefit by the change, as more weight will be added by the recruits.

Bigbee at end should prove a terror at tackling, covering kicks and receiving forward passes, while Cornwall, on the second team, has proven himself to be clever with the ball and a powerful man on the defense.

Only two more days remain to practice at home before starting on the trip into Idaho. Most of the time will be devoted to hard scrimmage work, and this afternoon witnessed the first sham battle of the week. Of the regulars, Captain Parsons and Cornell were confined to the sidelines. Parsons' old wounds, Monteth and Huntington substituted for him.

In the line, from center to the wings, small chance for a change is left. Cook and Snyder, at guards; Philbin and Beckett, playing tackles, and Hisey, at center, have demonstrated their worth in the offense, as well as in the defense. In fact, as the season grows older, this heavy quartet becomes more proficient.

The removal of Philbin from the Purdue battle and the inability of his substitutes to stop the off-tackle smashes of the Bender backfield was responsible in a large measure for the gains in yardage through the lemon-yellow line. This point of attack was the only weak spot which Bernard found better than his own breaks through the broken field after Beckett punted. Once this weakness is overcome, the Oregon team will show more class.

When dragging the river near Elk Rock, Monday night, for nets which were being used illegally, Deputy State Game Warden Frank Ervin and E. H. Clarke and Special Deputy Leo H. Truesdell came upon a net line near Milwaukee at the foot of Elk Rock Bluff. The deputies, during the night, remained near the net until the violator appeared.

He was seized by Special Deputy

No Loose Wrappers

You don't have to "lick" an El Dallo before you can smoke it. You don't have to throw it away because it's unsmokable. Every

EL DALLO Cigar

You'll see at a glance the tailored finish of

Richmond UNION SUITS

There's lasting service and solid comfort in every garment. Big value for little money.

At your dealer's—or write us for Style Book

LEVI STRAUSS & CO., Distributors

Dept. A 32, San Francisco, Cal.

Mighty like drawing aces to jam a jimmy pipe brimful or roll up a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert, then make fire with a match!

Such smokings! Yes, sir, the kind you can draw to all day and all night and have a lot of fun all the time!

Prince Albert came into the game five years ago a little stranger in a big land, but it was cut for a square deal, and today it is the one best bet of men everywhere who play fair with their tongues and want fair play—with all the cards on the mahogany! Catch the thought?

PRINCE ALBERT the national joy smoke is built like a thoroughbred. It won't kick, it won't bite, it won't parch! That's because it is made by the now world-famous patented process that cuts out the kick and the bite and the parch! No other tobacco ever was or can be today anywhere near like Prince Albert!

You can raise right here—and clean the table—that Prince Albert will win with you because it's true blue, any way you play it! Costs a dime to sit in and find out first-hand that all we claim for Prince Albert is case cards—signed, sealed, delivered—with the reputation of this great business right behind every grain of tobacco! Does that listen?

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO. Winston-Salem, N. C.

Boxer Would Take Off as Much as Possible for Dundee Bout.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—(Special.)—That he will weigh between 137 and 138 pounds for his four-round match next Friday night against Johnny Dundee was the announcement made today by Willie Ritchie.

The contest is at catchweights, but Ritchie says that he will be as light as possible, considering the short time in which he has had to train, chiefly since low weight will be conducive of speed. Dundee is a heavy featherweight, so there will likely be a matter of seven or eight pounds difference between the pair. Jim Griffin in his act as the referee for the match will give a decision at the end of the contest.

Ray Bronson, manager of Milburn Saylor, said today he had received an offer from Tom Andrews for Saylor to meet the winner of the White-Welsh match, and they will shortly leave for the East. While Bronson was disappointed that Saylor did not make a better showing against Moy, he is not discouraged.

With practically no tools, a man in the Bridgewater (Mass.) state farm has made a perfect toilet out of a coal.

Distinctively individual

FATIMA THE TURKISH BLEND CIGARETTES

Of distinctive Individuality

20 for 15¢

Give 'em the Once Over

No Loose Wrappers

You don't have to "lick" an El Dallo before you can smoke it. You don't have to throw it away because it's unsmokable. Every

EL DALLO Cigar

You'll see at a glance the tailored finish of

Richmond UNION SUITS

There's lasting service and solid comfort in every garment. Big value for little money.

At your dealer's—or write us for Style Book

LEVI STRAUSS & CO., Distributors

Dept. A 32, San Francisco, Cal.