HOTEL COFFEE DRINKERS CORNELIUS The House of Welcome

Familiar Table Beverage Unmasked and Its Evil Effect on the Human Body Shown

An astonishing list of ills due to coffee-drinking is pointed out by Dr. Otto Juettner, of the Cincinnati Polyclinic, in a communication to the New York Medical Times. "The symptoms produced by excessive indulgence in coffee can be observed in the arrested physical and mental development of children, their pallor, emaciation and and many other vexing questions will be involved. Felons sent to the penitentiary from Judge Cleeton's court must, it appears, be freed if his court was without au-thority. Decisions in suits of equity will, of course, be questioned and there will be no end to the confusion caused.

Hart Opposes Holman. One aspect of the recent Cleeton de-tision was that County Commissioner

Walter's Filling Stations

Mr. Lightner and Mr. Holman to carry on the county business and Mr. Holman already has been advised by District Attorney Evans not to cast a deciding vote lest his acts be called into ques-tion. County busines will not be car-ried on to any extent by the Board until a final decision is reached in the pres-ent troubled County Commissioner situ-ation.

NOTE.—It is interesting to observe that as medical science more and more reveals the harmfulness of coffee to the health of both young and old there follows a tremenduous increase in the use of the pure food beverage, POSTUM.-Occupants of Auto Seek $40,618.31

TAYLOR-STREET THIRD AND TAYLOR STREETS. A Short Religious Service Will Be Held Gutside the Locked and Bolted Doors of This Old Church on Sunday Next at 10:30 A. M. Earnest Prayers Will Be Offered by Sad Hearts for its Early Re-opening.

A CREED AND ITS INTERPRETATION ON SUNDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 4th, DURING SUNDAY NIGHT, OCTOBER 4th, ·

the pastor and officials of this church issued their weekly bul-ietin, which contained the fol-lowing:

the pastor and their weekly bul-letin, which contained the fol-lowing: "We bid you welcome to this temple of our common Father. Here the stranger will find a home: the poor, a friend: the rich, a Saviour; sorrow will en-ter these doors and be comfort-ed. The tried and tempted souls of men and women will here find hope and strength for the battle of life.

OCTOBER 4th, . the same pastor and officials flustrated their conception of this creed by ruthlessly strip-ping this temple of its furnish-mgs and equipment under the cover of darkness, and proceeded to holt, bar and padlock the doors of Portland's on ly down-town church against the stran-ger, the poor, the rich, the tried, and the tempted, notwithstand-ing the earnest entreaties of nearly four hundred of its ear-neat, devoted members.
