Callentes were contained in official dispatches to the State Department tonight.

General Obregon and the committee which went to Mexico City to interview the first chief returned to the convention "highly optimistic," according to official reports. It is generally understood that Carranza informed the committee that he would not submit his resignation a second time, leaving it to the convention to reconsider. If it chose, the action taken at the recent Mexico City convention, the minutes of which were formally ratified by the assembly at Aguas Callentes.

With the arrival of the 28 delegates representing General Zapata, the convention was expected today formally to consider the question of a successor to Carranza. Much optimism prevails in convention circles, according to official reports, and a spirit of harmony is distinctly noticeable.

No report had been received late today of the result of today's deliberations when the all-important question of the Provisional Presidency was to be discussed.

Officials of the Washington Govern-

Officials of the Washington Government had no doubt that the two con-ditions which Carranza was reported to have stipulated as necessary before he would retire, namely, that the tenure of the provisional government be brief and that he be permitted to be a can-didate for the Presidency in the elec-tions to be ordered, would be safisfac-torily met by the convention.

MEXICAN 'HOLY WAR' RUMORED

Priests Reported to Have Led Fight Against Factions.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 26.—A "holy war" in Mexico as a counter revolution against the Carranza-Villa embroglio has been threatened, according to reports brought here today by Americans and Mexicans who arrived by various routes from Guadalajara. They told of uprisings against the constitutionalist authorities of Central Mexico, led by Mexican priests.

It was indicated by local activities that the "Clentifico," or ex-federal element, which flourished under the Diaz and Huerta regimes, would combine with the new movement in ousting the constitutionalists, who disagreed even before the triumph of their revolution. The new movement was started at before the triumph of their revolution.

The new movement was started at the town of Union de Tula, Jalisco State, when the constitutionalists from the roof of the cathedral waved at the populace a bishop's mitre, and afterward confiscated the church property. This act so enraged the people that, led by a priest and the town Mayor, they engaged the soldiers in a running fight. Soon the trouble spread to adjoining towns located around Guadalajara, second largest city in Mexico and industrial center of the West Coast country.

A carload of ammunition was confiscated today by American troops at Mimbres, west of Columbus, New Mexico, on the ground that it was not passed through a regular port of entry. These munitions, it was learned, were being sent to arm an expedition in Northwestern Chihuahua and Sonora which was to have been independent either of the Villa or Carranza factions.

A local Spanish paper publishes today an unconfirmed report that Parral had been recaptured by General Maclavie Herrera, a Carranza partisan, who had been recapted by General Mac-lavio Herrera, a Carranza partisan, who last Friday was routed by the Villa troops. It was also reported without confirmation that several Americans were killed in the fighting.

Cost Charge Opposed by Ore Companies as Evidence of Violation of Law.

ACTION THREE YEARS OLD

On Anniversary of Effort to Break Alleged Trust, Lawyers Close Argument-Carnegie Lauded and Denounced.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26 .- The third anniversary of the institution by the Federal Government of its sult to break up into independent units the United States Steel Corporation on the ground that it violates the Sherman anti-trust law was observed today by the contending lawyers continuing to fire their verbal batteries at each other. Henry E. Colton, special assistant to the Attorney-General, concluded his argument in support of the petition to dissolve the alleged trust and he was followed by David A. Reed, of Pittsburg, counsel for the steel corpor-ation, and a son of James H. Reed, a ation, and a son of James H. Reed, a director in the big concern.

A development of the cay was the Government's announcement that in view of the cancellation of the lease of the Great Northern Railway intersats' ore deposits in the Lake Superior district to the steel corporation, the Government's action against 18 land companies controlled by the Great Northern had narrowed down to a question of the costs in the present suit.

Monopoly Charged in Suit.,

Monopoly Charged in Suit.,

The Government originally wanted the lease cancelled on the ground that it gave the steel corporation monopolistic control of ore beds in the Lake Superior region. Since the suit was filed at Trenton on October 26, 1911, the lease has been superseded by an arrangement between the steel corporation and the Great Northern interests by which the corporation gets a comparatively small amount of ore from that territory.

Counsel for the ore interests, however, has announced that the Great Northern will oppose a decree assessing costs against the ore companies on the plea that it would brand these companies and officers connected with them as violators of the anti-trust law. Another important reason for opposition, counsel said, is that under the Clayton anti-trust act recently signed by President Wilson, a third person could use the decree and it would lay as prima facle evidence in any proceeding brought for triple damages under the Clayton anti-trust act for alleged injury to his business by reason of the illegal lease, if the court decrees it was unlawful. The present argument is probably the first court proceeding where the new Clayton law will come under discussion.

Control of Price Alleged.

Control of Price Alleged.

Control of Price Alleged.

Mr. Colton, in closing, presented figures to support the Government's contention that the steel corporation, along with independent manufacturers, kept the prices of iron and steel products uniformly high through most of the years since the organization of the concern. He gave alleged instances of where high prices were maintained, and said that the steel corporation sold products cheaper in foreign markets than it did at home, and added that this was an indication of the defendant's purpose to keep prices up, the steel corporation with a tribute to Andrew Carnegie, named as an individual defendant, for his philanthropic work. He said:

"Mr. Carnegie, in selling his interests to the steel corporation, did not have in miles."

"Mr. Carnegie, in selling his interests to the steel corporation, did not have in mind any monopolistic intent upon the part of the corporation and he disposed of his ownership in the Carnegie company to unburden himself of the heavy weight of buginess cares and to devote his time and fortune to heip his fellow men."

Mr. Reed resented the Government's characterization of Mr. Carnegie as a conspirator to monopolize the steel business and restrain trade. He presented figures to show that the steel sented figures to show that the stee corporation's business is not growing as rapidly as that of independents. He also combatted the Government's contention that the steel corporation had a monopolistic control of the ore reserves of the Lake Superior regions.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

Dr. E. C. Underwood says that there is no expression of neuralgia which is more distressing than that known as Sciatics. The cause of this condition is usually exposure to cold and dampness.
