COURT DELAYS PENALTY

MAX ALBERT'S SENTENCE AWAITED. END OF OTHER ARSON CASES.

Judge McGinn Will Not Let Davis Free if His Partner is to Pay for Setting Fires.

Sentence to be passed upon Max Albert was deferred yesterday by Judge McGinn, in whose court he was convicted recently of having set a fire to defraud insurance companies, when the time fixed for imposing the penalty arrived.

"I will not sentence Albert yet," said Judge McGinn in discussing the matter, "but will await the outcome of the other cases of this series yet to be tried. Then I can deal with them all together."

This may prove an annoyance to the District Attorney's office, for, if the expected immunity for Davis is not forthcoming, he may not be willing to testify at the arson trials yet remaining to be heard. But this is not my affair, I had nothing to do with the understanding and am not a party to it. "I am inclined to give Albert and Davis equal sentences, for I regard them as equally guilty. If the Governor sees fit to pardon Davis that is a matter that is up to him. He would find complete justification for it, for the Supreme Court of the United States has made clearly defined decisions that testimony given by an informer may properly be rewarded with executive clemency. The Governor would have a plain right to pardon him. "I regard these prosecutions on arson charges as remarkably useful and know of no prosecutions that are of more value. The information given to the public in these cases will prevent

MANY AMERICANS WEAK

Most Applicants for Enlistment Imperfect in Physique.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The majority of American boys and men are muscularly weak from the waist line up, the legs equally showing up well as regards strength," says Surgeon J. A. Murphy, in a report to the Navy Department on the physique of the average applicant for enlistment. Discussing the physical attributes of the thousands of men and boys who apply for enlistment in the Army, Navy and marine corps, he says that many are strong, but through excess of weight (fat usually) prove relatively weak. Many of the strong also are awkward, unresponsive, ponderous and through stiffening of joints and contractures of muscles, lack speed and agility. All those types, with few exceptions, have rounded backs, protruding abdomens, drooping heads and flat chests.

Roanoke Loses in Court. H. D. Hamilton, who sued the Northern Pacific Steamship Company for $2950 damages because of injuries said to have been received on board the steamer Roanoke in 1912, was given a verdict for $950 yesterday before Judge Harris in department No. 2 of Circuit Court. It was alleged that the steamer was in an unseaworthy condition and that as assistant engineer, he was directed to open a faulty valve in the

BOTH ROUTS REBEL FORCE

Pursuit of General Beyers' Commando Continues, London Hears. LONDON, Oct. 28, 8:35 P. M.—The following statement was issued tonight regarding the rebellion in the union of south Africa: "General Botha reports that he left Johannesburg, a district in the west part of the Transvaal colony, on Tuesday and proceeded in the direction in which General Christian Beyers, with his command was supposed to be. He came in touch with General Beyers' men in the forenoon and drove them in headlong rout the whole of the day and captured 80 of them, fully armed. "In the fighting, which took place toward the end of the pursuit, one of General Botha's men and several of Beyers' commando were wounded. "When the report was made the pursuit was still in progress." The United States has 246,573 miles of railway.
