A SMART affair of the week was the elaborate reception for Mrs. Hans Hirschberg which was held yesterday. About 100 handsomely gowned women called during the hours of 3 to 5 o'clock. The rooms were decorated artistically, quantities of chrysanthemums, autumnal foliage in brilliant tints, and ferns being arranged in the drawing room. A charming effect was obtained by the use of pink carnations and ferns in the dining-room. The attractive tea table was presided over by Mrs. R. Wilson, E. Stephens and Mrs. John Ker. The hostess was assisted about the rooms by Mrs. W. B. Gilbert, Mrs. J. C. Stuart, Mrs. D. W. Rose and Mrs. H. A. Furtz. The following were about the rooms: Miss Isabella Macleay, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs and Miss Gladys Ross.

Clan Macleay Order of Scottish Clans will give a Halloween concert and dance tonight at the Knights of Pythias Hall, Tenth and Alder streets, in aid of Red Cross funds. An excellent programme has been prepared as follows: Songs by Miss Christine Denholm, Miss Dagmar Kelly, Hartridge Whipp, Charles Thompson, Mr. Hoese and Mr. Belding; children's exercises by class of Mrs. Grace Wilson Petersen; Highland fling, Miss Tricie Williamson; bagpipe selections, Pina-Major McDonald; Mrs. Leonora Fisher Whipp, accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Shaw and small son, of Berkeley, Cal., are house guests of Mrs. Shaw's mother, Mrs. H. J. Mansfield, 761 Lovejoy street.

Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed has taken apartments at the Hawthorne for the next two months, during which time her residence, 620 Main street, will be remodeled.

A smart affair of this afternoon will be the reception for which Mrs. Charles T. Whitney has issued invitations. It will be a large affair, and will be given at Alexandra Court. The hostess will be assisted by many prominent matrons and maids.

Mrs. Nathan Harris has returned from her summer home in Ocean Park, where she has been sojourning for a few months, and is passing a few days in town at her residence.

The dinner dances at Hotel Multnomah have proved so popular on Saturday evening that the management has decided to open the banquet room in addition to the ballroom. The younger married set, as well as the young bachelors and bachelorettes, are flocking to these affairs and rapidly are becoming artists in the new dances. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carville are exponents of the most up-to-date and give exhibitions on Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Many hosts are planning to entertain at these dinner-dances throughout the winter season, and are becoming the only diversion that the young people appreciate.

Instead of being daily occurrences, the dances are given only on Wednesday and Saturday evenings for the rest of the season.

Among the Lincoln High School girls will attend the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house of the University of Oregon for the Halloween dance. The dances to be given are: Pauline Jackson, Nina Imhause and Lucille Dudley. Many other popular girls of the younger set are expected at the different sorority houses during the week end.

Irvington Club will be the scene of the second party of the Holy Rosary society, on November 1st. The coming event promises to be as delightful an affair as the initial one. Those who are invited include Misses M. Sullivan, M. Donnerberg, and I. Wilson and Messers, M. Melchior, L. Lavagette and J. Clancy.

The Irvington Club will be the scene of a jolly children's Halloween party this evening. Special decorations suggestive of the season will be used about the rooms, and the children will wear masks and costumes will add to the festivity. The party will be chaperoned by Mrs. A. H. Cousins, Mrs. Maryon Versteeg, Mrs. J. E. Meyer, Mrs. T. J. Seuffert, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. E. L. Pettis and Mrs. J. R. Burke.

Members of the Swastika Club were entertained pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stair, 790 Williams avenue, Saturday evening. Progressive "500" was the game of the evening. Prize winners being Ross McIntyre, Mrs. R. W. Robnett, Mrs. Pollock and Mrs. Sutherland. Refreshments were served and the home was prettily decorated in Halloween effect.

The Albions have issued invitations for a dancing party to be given in the new Hibernian Hall, 340 Russell street, between Rodney and Union avenue, this evening. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. J. E. Meyer, Bruce Baird, John Brady, George O'Shea, Dorris Hungeat, Miss Eva Jeannot, Miss Martha Jaekel and Miss Margaret O'Shea.

The patronesses are: Mrs. Ida Campbell, Mrs. H. F. Jeannot, Mrs. Thomas Brady, Mrs. H. Jaekel.

Members of the Portland Golf Club will be entertained next Saturday evening with a dance in the clubhouse at the links near Garden Home. Arrangements are being made to hold a dance later in the season in town under the auspices of the club in order to swell the treasury fund. The club is spending a large sum in laying out new courses and the members are making a special effort to swell the membership list of the club.

An enjoyable Halloween party was given in Cottillon Hall Wednesday night by the members of the Colorado Society. Halloween games were the programme of the evening. The following were hostesses: Mrs. C. Haynes, Mrs. W. J. Breckel, Miss Hazel Ramsey, Mrs. M. E. Sturdevant, Mrs. Mark Woodruff, Mrs. Arthur Hansen, Miss Jean Studevant, Mrs. George Moncrieff, Mrs. Alva Johnson and Mrs. Marmaduke Wyville.

Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club will give its first formal dance this evening in the club gymnasium at 8:30 o'clock. Special Halloween decorations and innovations will be introduced.

PROMINENT MATRON WHO PRESIDES AT CONGRESS OF MOTHERS' LUNCHEON TODAY AT HOTEL BENSON.

MRS. MARTIN WAGNER.

The proposed building has been suggested. Mrs. Alice Welster, president of the club, suggested that the committee consider the Covert residence and the leading women interested made a tour of inspection, admiring the various apartments of the beautiful home.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Covert, Mrs. Welster, Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mrs. Charles E. Steele, Mrs. L. G. McHenry, Mrs. J. H. McKenna, Mrs. G. K. Zewers, Mrs. Mildred Kyle, Mrs. Florence Crawford, Mrs. Frank C. Kelsey, Mrs. T. T. Geer, Mrs. W. H. Hannon, Mrs. Thomas Greene and Mrs. J. A. Jackson. Receiving at the door were Mrs. R. E. Watkins, the social chairman of the club, assisted by Mrs. Robert Berger and Mrs. W. T. Wade.

In the dining-room were stationed several prominent members of the club. Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare and Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke poured tea. They were assisted by Mrs. A. B. Davis, Mrs. Samuel Norton, Mrs. S. A. Herring and Mrs. F. W. Parie. Others assisting about the rooms were Mrs. C. A. Johns, Mrs. E. D. Whitney, Mrs. Herbert Foster and Mrs. A. G. Hushon. Dorothy Logan, Frances Allen and Lillias Marshall attended in the reception hall.

Mrs. Welster was gowned in white satin with tunic of dull green silk and trimming of black lace. Mrs. J. C. Hare wore brocaded chiffon in tones of terra cotta with bodice of lace.

Mrs. Burke was gowned in tango velvet combined with rich shades of brown and made with bodice of chiffon and lace.

Mrs. Robert Berger's costume was of yellow taffeta with chiffon of a like shade and trimming of lace and fur.

Mrs. Watkins were a charming model of taupe velvet with bertha of brocaded chiffon and lace.

Mrs. W. T. Wade was pretty in pale blue crepe de chine with lace tunic and bodice drape.

The musical programme included brilliant numbers by Miss Ruth Johns, Mrs. Julia Melens Swenson, Charles Swenson and Miss Carmel Sullivan. Miss Anne Shannon Monroe gave a short talk on "The Psychology of Character as Found in the Lives of Great Men."

The Women's Liberal League of Oregon, which is opposed to state-wide prohibition, will hold their last meeting "before the general election" to-night at 8 o'clock, in the Swiss Hall, Third and Jefferson streets. Good speakers will address the meeting.

The Oregon Alumnae Association will meet on November 7 in room 201 of the Central Library. Dr. Ogburn, of Reed College, will speak on "Political Insight." The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Veina Adair Sigler, 21; Miss Cora Wald, '05, and Mrs. Essie Seachrist Kitchings, '05.

The Central W. C. T. U. held their last regular weekly meeting before the election in their rooms in the Dekum building on Wednesday afternoon. This was the most interesting and best-attended meeting of the season, 50 members being present. Mrs. Hattie Wilson presided. Mrs. Mary Mallett and Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden spoke on the amendments to be voted on at the coming election.

A day of prayer will be observed by the Central W. C. T. U. on November 2 in the headquarters, 417 Dekum building, about 11 o'clock. Mrs. C. Northrup will have charge of the session.

The regular monthly P. E. O. luncheon will be held today in Olds, Wortz & King's tearoom at 12:30 o'clock. All visiting P. E. O. sisters will be welcome.

The Council of Jewish Women will meet on Wednesday afternoon in B'nai B'rith building at 2 o'clock. Mrs. A. L. Hexter will be chairman.

Mount Tabor Parent-Teacher Circle will hold a Halloween social tonight in the schoolhouse. Games and a programme appropriate to the occasion will be features. Residents of the district are invited.

Miss Marie Bollinger and Miss Olinsted of Salem; Miss Vera Ferrell, of Kennewick, Wash., and Mrs. Foster, of Astoria, the four festival queens who will visit the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show, are registered at the Multnomah.

Will It Cause Gossip?

"Dear Miss Blake: I am an unmarried man of 45 and have no steady. I am in the habit of standing talking on the street of our town to a certain married woman. Our conversation lasts from 15 minutes to half an hour, and this happens on an average of once or twice a week. Is this action on my part deserving of criticism, and should it cause gossip? "HENRIE."

You should not stand and talk on the street with any woman. If you have anything to say to a woman you should call upon her at her own home. If you know the woman's husband, why don't you call upon them at their home? Your frequent meetings and long talks with the woman don't strike me as a foreboding of anything but mischief. I think you had better discontinue them out of fairness to the husband of the woman.

What Initials?

"Dear Miss Blake: I am interested in knowing the correct way of working a lunch set. Shall I use my maiden name initials or my marriage name?"

Use the initial of your married name. The initial of the bride's maiden name is used only on those articles which are embroidered before her marriage.

Woman Answers Chamberlain's Appeal With Sarcasm.

Mrs. Eva C. Ellsworth Tells Why Senator Will Not Get Her Support and Why R. A. Booth Will Get It.

A WOMAN'S logic and sarcasm has been directed against the re-election to the United States Senate of George E. Chamberlain by Mrs. Eva C. Ellsworth, of Dallas, Or., in the terse and pointed manner that is peculiar to woman once she sets her mind to digest a subject.

Having known Mr. Booth personally for 15 years and the circumstances surrounding his persecution, your first three reasons carry no weight; and as for the action you credit to him with reference to a car shortage bill, I observe that such a bill was passed, but we had our regular annual car shortage up to the time the Underwood tariff bill that Mr. Chamberlain supported, went into effect. Since then cars are plentiful and I am informed there is nothing to warrant any unbusinessness on the part of shippers in the near future.

With reference to the direct primary and Statement No. 1, I will say that other than politicians, in all parties, there is no apprehension as to the safety of the "Oregon System," and voters are frank to complain of your ignorance of the real issues in this campaign.

In regard to Mr. Booth's alleged action on a bit to tax timber: If you remains a difficult problem to determine just what method to use and not compel small owners to sacrifice to escape the burden of others or slaughter the remaining forests to stop loss; and since ill-advised legislation affecting one of our chief resources would be far-reaching in its results, and in view of the uniformly adverse legisla-

Position to give any encouragement that the present Administration will lend its support in having the franchise extended to women of other states, which you will admit is of vast importance to the cause.

As to his achievement in abolishing child labor in Oregon, I must confess that I view a rigid enforcement of this law during the remainder of Democratic rule in this country, with mixed feelings, for while I abhor the thought of children being compelled to contribute to the support of a family, yet it appears the lesser of two evils, if wage reductions are to continue at intervals of three or four months and working time reduced until it is utterly impossible for one pair of hands to support a family.

No, I am not in favor of supporting the President any further. He has had two Democratic Senators from Oregon, all that any state could give him, and they appear as nothing in his presence when seeking to prevent the repeal of legislation that you all confess was of vital importance to Oregon in particular and the Nation as a whole, notwithstanding his action involved the violation of a platform pledge. I refer to the "consentive exemption" clause of the Panama Canal bill, and I firmly believe that Mr. Wilson could never have been elected had the Democratic platform contained a pledge to repeal this clause. Any such pledge would not only have united the Republican party, but would have lost to him 99 per cent of the Democratic vote in every state outside the "solid South," and some of that.

I acknowledge your enclosures, "Reasons Why I Should Not Vote for Booth." Your first three reasons carry no weight; and as for the action you credit to him with reference to a car shortage bill, I observe that such a bill was passed, but we had our regular annual car shortage up to the time the Underwood tariff bill that Mr. Chamberlain supported, went into effect. Since then cars are plentiful and I am informed there is nothing to warrant any unbusinessness on the part of shippers in the near future.

tion surrounding the lumber industry in Oregon, it reveals a certain lack of statesmanship on the part of Chamberlain during the last eight years that he does not recognize this awful distress resulting to labor and undertake to shape legislation for relief.

Your last reason: That he wants to put a stop to President Wilson's influence in Congress, is sufficient reason for any Oregonian to support Chamberlain. MRS. EVA C. ELLSWORTH.

JESSIE TELLS THE REASON SHE BOUGHT HER FALL SUIT YESTERDAY

INSTEAD OF WAITING TILL SHE'D SAVED MONEY ENOUGH TO PAY FOR IT.

"Every day I'm bumping shoulders with hundreds of other women. Some of them are dressed so stylishly that it's a pleasure to look at them—others look 'dowdy,' as if they don't know what it is to be smartly attired. I want to belong to the first class, of course."

"That's why I bought my new suit yesterday. I NEEDED TO USE MY CREDIT TO KEEP MY SELLS RESPECT. Why, just a tiny sum will buy a lovely suit at CHERRY'S! The rest of the price, which is sure to be reasonable, may be paid by the week or month."

"I love to talk about CHERRY'S NEW FALL SUITS, but it's needless when it's so easy to see them. The prettiest shades in broadcloth, serge, gabardine and poplin are there."

"Oh, yes; their store is at 329-331 Washington street, Pittock block."—Adv.

A Single Application Will Banish Objectionable Hairs

Aids to Beauty.

Here is a home treatment for removing hairs that is quick, painless and inexpensive: With some powdered delatone and water make enough paste to thickly cover the objectionable hairs, apply and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be left soft, clear and hairless. This treatment will not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be careful to get real delatone.—Adv.

WITH an elaborate reception given yesterday for all the clubwomen of the city, the members of the Psychology Club entertained more than 400 guests yesterday in the home of Mrs. E. E. Covert. A feature of the afternoon was an address by Mrs. G. J. Frankel, who spoke on "Plans for a Woman's Building." The raising of funds for such a project probably will be taken up at once.
