

DR. C. J. SMITH GETS SPEEDY RESPONSE

Campaign Letter Sent U'Ren by Opponent Answered Fully and Freely as Requested.

DELAY IS ONLY COMPLAINT

Independent Candidate Advises Democratic Aspirant to Express Decided Opinion on Some of Issues Before Voters.

As a result of utter impartiality in his distribution of a million campaign letters, Candidate C. J. Smith has at last forwarded a communication to Candidate W. S. U'Ren.

October 27, 1914.—Mr. W. S. U'Ren, Oregon City, Or.—Dear Sir and Friend: Knowing the deep interest you hold in all public matters, I write you concerning my candidacy for Governor.

But it was something far more intimate in tone. This was it: October 27, 1914.—Mr. W. S. U'Ren, Oregon City, Or.—Dear Sir and Friend: Knowing the deep interest you hold in all public matters, I write you concerning my candidacy for Governor.

Answer Made Promptly. Gratified beyond measure for the opportunity offered Candidate U'Ren to advise Candidate Smith how best to beat him and the other gubernatorial aspirants, Candidate U'Ren penned the following reply:

Oregon City, Or., Oct. 28, 1914.—C. J. Smith, M. D., Democratic Candidate for Governor, Broadway Building, Portland, Or.—My Dear Friend: Your letter of last Tuesday gives me much joy, and especially the part where you say "I should like to consult with you as to what I might do to improve my candidacy in your locality."

"Pointers" Are Given. Are you in favor of adopting No. 325, the $1500 home tax exemption amendment? You can gain very much from the little home makers by talking for this amendment.

U'Ren Is Jokester. Candidate U'Ren doesn't take his candidacy as a joke, but during his address he cracked many a joke.

Mr. Gill, the Progressive candidate, didn't take all the 15 minutes allowed to him, but in the 10 he did use he pointed out, first and foremost, that he was for prohibition.

City Commissioner Bigelow acted as chairman of the day.
