

FRANCHISE IS NOT TO GO TO SEATTLE

Judge McCredie Says Sacramento, San Diego or Salt Lake Will Get Club.

BEAVER CHANGES LIKELY

Brenegan to Be Sold, West May Be Disposed Of and Bancroft May Go to Majors With Others, Manager Believes.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Seattle is not wanted by the Pacific Coast League for next year, so declared W. W. McCredie yesterday on his return from the annual session of the Pacific Coast circuit at San Francisco, thus putting the kibosh on newspaper dispatches from the south.

"We recognize that Seattle belongs to the Northwest League," said the Portland owner. "A committee has the question concerning the sixth city in hand and we will decide at another meeting February 17. It will be Sacramento or San Diego, or perhaps Salt Lake."

Judge McCredie remarked that Wolverton and Jacobs had lost $40,000 on the Sacramento team. This includes the red ink on the ledger and the purchase price paid to Jack Atkin for the franchise, which was forfeited to the league.

Beaver Changes Hinted At. Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland league champs, also returned with his uncle, and in reply to queries as to the market for several changes would be made in the ranks of his Beavers next year.

"I expect to carry only two catchers, and Dan Murray will be Gus Fisher's assistant. Brenegan will be sold when I attend the minor leagues' meeting at Omaha next month," said McCredie.

"One of my present outfield quartet, at least, will be disposed of elsewhere, and I am in the market for a new horticulturist. I tried to get Middleton from the Oaks, but Christian wanted to trade only his 'stuf'."

One New Pitcher Wanted. "My pitching staff looks fairly good, but I intend to bolster it with at least one new man. West likely will be sold. Martinoni, Evans, Rieger, Higginbotham, Eastley, Lush, Leonard, Callahan and Salveson will be taken to Spring training camp."

"Salveson shows great improvement this Fall over what he was when I sent him to the Colts. As for U. S. Smith, whom I got in trade for Yantis from Venetia, I think Smith has the making of a star."

Manager Mack was asked about his infield plans.

"Well, I lose Kores to New York and Rodgers to Cleveland," rhapsodized the big pennant-copper. "Also I guess I will have to sell Dave Bancroft to some big league club, for he wants to go up and will jump to the Feds if I don't."

DAVIS TO BE ANCHORED ON THIRD

"However, my plan is to anchor Bobby Davis permanently on third base, and I think he will be fully as strong as Art Kores. He is a brainier player, and will not hit as hard, but he will make up in fielding, base running and quick thinking."

"Derrick will be at first, so I will have two vacancies to worry about this winter. It is possible that I may spend several weeks in California, and if so, I may pick up a couple of promising youngsters to try out with the veterans for infield jobs."

The single umpire system, according to Mack, will be used in the minor leagues, and then the double harness will be used again.

Manager McCredie had his choice of picking three good arbiters from the present set; his corps would consist of Ed Finney, Bill Phyle and Bull Guthrie.

JOHNSON GOING TO MINOR MEET

Move Under Way to Admit Federals

Into Organized Ball.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the American League of Baseball Clubs, yesterday returned from an outing in Wisconsin and said that the National Association would be represented probably by himself at the meeting in Omaha on November 11-12 of the Association of Minor Leagues. It is reported that several momentous questions will come up for discussion at that meeting because of the activity last season of the Federal League.

Owing to the question of drafting players of promise and farming those not actively employed, two minor leagues already have indicated that they will favor the taking into organized baseball of the Federals. President M. E. Justice of the Central Association is the leader in this movement and he has the backing of the Northern League, of which John Burmeister is chief.

President Johnson, who is an officer of the National Board of Arbitration, asserted today that minor leagues had suffered heavy losses last season because of the falling off of drafts by larger leagues. He attributed this slump to fear on the part of the National and American Leagues that any finds pointed out by drafts would be snapped up by the Federals.

JAMES BEATEN AT SEATTLE

Bill's Support Poor in Home Town and National Leaguers Lose.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 29.—Bill James, of the Boston Nationals, who was the mainstay of the Seattle Northwestern League team two years ago, appeared on a Seattle diamond again today, pitching for the National all-stars against James, of the St. Louis Americans. The Nationals played a weak game in the field and the American all-stars won easily 4 to 1. Bush pitched the last inning for the Americans. The score: R. H. E. N. A. B. H. E. Batters—James and Killifer; James, Bush and Henry.

WAR HITS FIGHT PROMOTER

Federal Revenue Collector Holds Boxing Taxable as Amusement.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Promoters of prizefights will have to pay the Federal Government fees under the war tax bill, according to officials of the Internal Revenue bureau for this district. Prizefights or boxing contests are amusements, according to John P. Carter, collector of internal revenue, and as such are to be taxed under that section of the war revenue law which provides for the collection of fees ranging between $25 and $100 from owners or lessees of buildings in which such performances take place.

BIG TEAMS GET READY

HARVARD AND MICHIGAN SQUADS PRACTICE CLOSE TOGETHER.

Coach Yost Says That Notwithstanding Mishaps His Eleven Will Be Prepared to Put Up "Real Game."

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Oct. 29.—The football teams of Harvard and Michigan practiced only a few miles apart today for Saturday's big intercollegiate contest in the stadium. From both camps came encouraging reports tonight.

The Michigan players arrived shortly after noon and went at once to their quarters at Auburndale. Later they accepted the offer of the use of the Waltham High School grounds and there Hughtill, hailed as one of the leading quarterbacks in the country, drove the eleven up and down the field in fast signal practice. His injured elbow still is stiff and it is considered likely that he will confine most of his activities Saturday to directing the team.

Splawn, the powerful fullback, who has been called the "Western Brickley" on account of his drop-kicking ability, entered into the afternoon's workout with vim, notwithstanding that his injured leg still was somewhat tender. Coach Yost said that the team, after its long series of mishaps, was coming along well, and that the contest would be a real game.

Michigan's line-up, as announced tonight, will be Benton and Staatz at the ends; Rieman and Cochran at tackles; Watson and McAlale at guards; Captain Rayneford at center; Hughtill, quarterback; Maulbetsch, left halfback; Lyons, right halfback; Splawn, fullback.

Harvard's practice consisted of some long dummy scrimmage work between the varsity and the second team, and then between the varsity and the substitutes, ending with a brief period of real football. Captain Brickley, bundled in an overcoat, watched his team work on the field since his operation for appendicitis.

What the Stork Says

(Charley Deal, the "Sub" Who Made Good, is 23 Today.)

It may be, as Ingalls says, that opportunity knocks but once at each man's door, and then, again, she may be more liberal with her visits. However, this opportunity plink recently beat a tattoo at the portal of the domicile of a young fellow who answers to the name of Charles Deal, and found him waiting with a large-sized club. Wherefore, the said Deal will celebrate his 23d birthday today as a regular hero, which means that he is a member of the Boston Braves, in good and regular standing.

Deal was born on October 30, 1891, in Wilkesburg, Pa. While still in the short-pants era he began his career as a ball player, and in the course of time he found himself drawing a salary and wearing a uniform in the Tri-State League. Later he was called to Boston and, spending most of his time on the bench, he watched the amazing antics of his teammates in their great stunt of climbing from the cellar to the haploze of the National League structure. And he says to himself, "Seize it, if ever I get a chance—"

And he did.

On the eve of the world's series J. Carville, alias "Red" Smith, from Atlanta, suffered a grievous injury. The disability of the regular third sacker caused much wailing in Boston. "Alas, we are undone," shrieked the fans of St. Botolph's Town. "But not so," asserted the Miracle Man. "I will give you a new deal." Whereupon Charley was pushed into the limelight and also the full glare of publicity.

In the first contest the youthful "sub" did not shine as a waiter, though he covered third with the eclat of a veter-

DOBIE YET HOPES; CHANCES NARROW

Washington Coach, However, Says Team, Though Crippled, Is No Quitter.

PRACTICE IS MOST SECRET

Seattle Varsity Team Leaves North for Albany—Injured List Increases With Ex-Captain Anderson Victim of Bruise.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Wash., Oct. 29.—Washington has had its last practice on the home grounds and 22 men departed for Albany tonight.

Judging from the monologue which was heard from the Denny field fence last night the coach drove his men to the highest degree to get them into the best of condition.

Last night the Washington coach fired even the newspapers in the field and permitted no one within hearing distance of the sacred confines of the scrimmage line.

Injured List Grows. The injured list was increased when ex-Captain Anderson left the field with a bruised knee. Two years ago Anderson suffered a similar injury, and it is feared that this injury may now prove more serious.

George Varnell, of Spokane, will be referee of Saturday's game, with Plowden Stott, of Portland, umpire, and John H. Jones, of Spokane, head linesman.

"I am not predicting a sure defeat," said Dobie today. "I think that our chances of winning are narrower than they have ever been before, and every body must realize that my team isn't up to the standard of past Washington eleven. You might say that we aren't quitting, and that we are going into Saturday's game with a spirit that will carry us a long way."

Hardest Game Is Due.

"I believe that we are due for the hardest game we have experienced in many years," counseled Dobie. "The team is in good condition and I believe that there is far more fight in the men than there was a year ago. The Whitman game. The ends seem to be surer on open field work. I must say, however, like the rest of the gang, I believe that we will have a harder game than did the University of Oregon last year at Portland."

On Saturday morning at 5:30 o'clock the University of Washington rosters' special, bearing 300 noise-makers, will depart from Seattle with the famous Washington team to support the team.

Dobie probably will hold one workout in Albany before Saturday's game.

ANOTHER AGGIE STAR IS OUT

Billie King's Shoulder Cracked Leaving Team Without Right End.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—At best it will be a disorganized and unpolished aggregation that Coach Stewart will lead against the University of Washington eleven Saturday at Albany. Injuries have made chaos out of the original Aggie team, and the chances for a victory over the agricultural college are very slim.

Dobie has vied with each accident. Last night in practice the shoulder of the Aggie star who won his letter for the first time in the Washington State College game last Saturday, was cracked. King's was the fourth foul-up to be broken this season. Today's injury resulting from this week's scrimmage was the breaking of "Dad" King's nose.

The Aggie team is without a right end. Bissett and King, who have been alternating at that berth, are both out with broken shoulders. Last night Dr. Stewart assembled all the second stringers and rooks who ever played at end in their careers, and selected the most promising from their ranks. Today's assembly of all the second stringers and rooks who ever played at end in their careers, and selected the most promising from their ranks. Today's assembly of all the second stringers and rooks who ever played at end in their careers, and selected the most promising from their ranks.

Those who are receiving this attention are Ed Schuster, Groves, Astor, and Heine Loof.

JONES AND JOHNSON CONFER

Salary of $20,000 Set as Limit of Negotiations for Pitcher.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—Fielder Jones, manager of the St. Louis Federals and Phil Ball, one of the owners of the club, are in Tulsa, Okla., today for a conference with Walter Johnson, star pitcher of the Washington Americans, and it is reported that they will discuss the possibility of signing him to a Federal contract to play with St. Louis.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Talking over the long-distance telephone from Fort Smith, Ark., Walter Johnson, star pitcher of the Washington Americans, said today he had not signed a Federal contract to play with St. Louis.

EUGENE FANS ENGAGE SPECIAL

Many Want to See Washington and Aggie Game Tomorrow.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—A special train will leave Eugene this morning carrying football fans to Albany for the Oregon Agricultural College-University of Washington game. About 120 students have signed up for the trip and a one-way fare has been granted. A section of the grandstand will be reserved for the excursionists.

noon. McEntee and Clifford, along with Danaher, a dark horse, starred for the Ruf Neks, while Duffy and Skahn played a steady game for the losers. The Ruf Neks now are second in the standings of the league, with the Fatimas third.

The annual June-February class football game of the Lincoln High School will not be played until after the Washington High-Lincoln High affair, next Wednesday. Coach Berkeley made this announcement yesterday, when it was learned that several of his regulars are afflicted with the flu and he does not want to take any chances of losing the big game by having cripples start the match.

Carl "Midget" Cummins, Lincoln High's sensational shortstop, has taken up football and he may be put in the game against Washington High next Wednesday. Cummins is punting for an average of 45 yards, and because a punter is sadly lacking on the Ball-splitters, Cummins may receive his start sooner than expected.

Portsmouth triumphed over Woodlawn yesterday in the Grammar School Soccer League, 1 to 0. The game was of a sensational order.

The Buckman Grammar School defeated the Rose City Park School yesterday in a fast game of soccer, 1-0.

Vancouver to Meet Oregon City. VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Vancouver High and Oregon City High will play a return game here Saturday at 2:30 P. M. The first game, two weeks ago, resulted in a tie score of 13. The freshmen team of the high school will play Ladd Grammar School, of Portland, on the local field at 10:30 A. M. Saturday.

FINAL PRACTISE HELD

BEZDEK BELIEVES TEAM FACES HARD BATTLE TODAY.

Oregon Coach Says Men Are Too "Cocky" and Avers Willamette Is Stronger Than Last Year.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Coach Bezdek's team completed its preparations for the game tomorrow with Willamette with light signal practice today.

"Our team is too cocky," said the coach. "The men think that because they will be a walk-away. We are going to have to work hard to win. Willamette will be in better shape than last year, when we were licked, 6 to 0. The field is dry and fast and victory for Oregon will depend on the ability of the substitutes to make up for the loss of the open style of play. In practice Lyle Bigbee, who stars the game at left half, has been outstaring the squad in the art of receiving forward passes. If he can come through under fire, Oregon should pull off some lengthy gains by the aerial route.

All the backfield players, with the exception of Sharp, have had some experience this year in conference ball. It is the line that Oregon is likely to miss her regulars. While most of the men who will start the first lineup tomorrow got in the last few minutes of the Whitman contest, none can be classed as old men at the game.

Cossman, at center, is a 205-pound youngster from Creswell. So far this season he has been substituting at guard and tackle, and tomorrow will see him for the first time in the middle of the line.

George Varnell, of Spokane, will referee. A preliminary game between the freshmen and sophomore classes will be played.

SCRUBS BEAT YALE, 18 TO 0.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 29.—The Yale scrubs defeated the varsity eleven, 18 to 0, today, in the hardest scrimmage of the year. Coach Hinkey made a number of radical changes, which apparently prestage a general shakeup of the team. Captain Talbot was in the field on crutches, and it is certain he will not play against Colgate on Saturday.

NOTED RACCHORSE DIES.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 29.—King Wood, once celebrated trotter champion of the New York speedway, died here today at the age of 28. He had a record of 2:17 3/4, made at Philadelphia, but he had frequently surpassed that mark in match races.
