Three Offers for Franchise Made, However.

OPTION RUMOR IS DENIED

Pugilistic Promoters Among Those Said to Have Placed Their Minds on Securing Baseball Hold on San Francisco Team.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—J. Cal Ewing and Frank Ish, owners of the franchise of the San Francisco base-ball team, received three offers today for their plant. These offers were ten-tative in nature and are believed to have emanated from W. G. Anderson, moving-picture magnate, and Thomas O'Day, manager of a San Francisco theater; Thomas Stephens, stockholder n the Los Angeles baseball club, and n the Los Angeles baselsail clos.

Late today it was rumored that Berger and Coffroth had secured a 30-day option on the franchise. This was denied tonight by J. Cal Ewing, who said:
"We have not given an option to anyone as yet. Mesars. Berger and Coffroth have offered $5000 for such an option. Negritations still are going." Negotiations still are going on and it may be that we shall accept their affer tomorrow. I am not at liberty to disclose the sums offered for No collection, no charge. Established 1900.

Should an option be given, the deal would have to be ratified by the directors of the Pacific Coast League before the sale would be accomplished. It is thought $250,000 was the Berger-Coffroth bid.

GRUMAN'S SHOWING DEFENDED

Slow Affair With Fitzsimmons Laid by Trainer to Long Route.

Stanley McDonald, the veteran trainer of the Mohawk Club, who taught Ralph Gruman the boxing game, in speaking of Ralph's showing against Willie Pitzsimmons at Oakland Tuesday night, says he thinks the Portland lightweight held himself back and was afraid of the long distance. Ralph has atrooped to the long distance. Ralph has automobile supplies.

afraid of the long distance. Ralph has been fighting four and six-round bouts and stepping out of this distance into the longer route frightened him.

According to the report of the fight it was a slow affair and neither of the boys extended themselves. It is likely, however, that Harry Foley, Gruman's manager, told Ralph to make the full route, so he could tell what his boy will do in the future.
