R. P. Bonham Says Electors' Duties in Oregon Are Too Serious to Be Trifled With.

NONE BARRED BY DEFECTS

Exception Taken to Permitting Immigrants, Unfit for Citizenship, to Exercise Full Right of Suffrage With No Bar.

BY RAPHAEL P. BONHAM.

The initiative and referendum and direct primary, in some form or other, seem established as permanent parts of our system of government.

If the Oregon system is to be successful, with the multiplied responsibilities imposed upon her voters, it is of utmost importance upon whom these sacred rights and duties are conferred.

Aliens Allowed to Vote.

Oregon, with her voter having powers and responsibilities enjoyed by citizens of few other states, by a strange anomaly looks less than nearly all other states into his qualifications.

That the average alien cannot within much less than five years comprehend or grasp our system of government is not, controverted.

Condition is Anomalous.

The most incongruous feature is that men now vote in Oregon who are not, and who because of their proved unfitness and undesirability cannot become citizens.

Under the existing laws, regardless of his unfitness for naturalization, in spite of the fact that he may be sincere in his declaration of intention to become a citizen, in defiance of the fact that he may be a moral derelict and criminal, and though he may be subject to a declaration of intention to become a citizen, an alien may secure a declaration of intention without hindrance, and with that document in his possession may vote in Oregon unchallenged.

Many incompetent and immoral, unlawful and undesirable aliens, who have no legal or just right to become citizens, and who, when they finally apply for naturalization, if they ever do, will be refused citizenship, but who, having made their declaration of intention, flippantly, and often with improper motives, exercise the grave and responsible functions of citizenship in Oregon.

Citizenship Message Shows.

Illiterate aliens not infrequently congregate together in certain localities, and unable to read or write our language, and oftentimes not even their own, are induced by designing men, sometimes of their own nationality, to take out their first papers, and then, absolutely without information as to the merits of the measures, and with no independence, are voted by and at the direction of the boss, manipulator, or petty tyrant.

An alien's character and reputation and intelligence, insofar as they bear on his qualifications for citizenship and suffrage, are not investigated by the Government and passed upon by a court until he makes his final application for naturalization, which, as already stated, is not until he has had at least five years' continuous residence in this country.

Safeguard is Urged.

Such is virtually the law in 40 of our states—in all save Oregon, Nebraska, Texas, Kansas, South Dakota, Indiana, Arkansas, and to a limited degree in Missouri—and it is incumbent upon the people of Oregon to safeguard more zealously their rights in this matter.

This is much more imperative now than in the past, not only because of the new duties of the Oregon voter, but also because the number of illiterate aliens among us is constantly increasing. Of recent years the immigration to the United States has fallen off from the countries whose people first settled this continent, and who, because of their environments, because of their sympathy for and appreciation and understanding of our ideals and laws, speedily become good citizens in their place are coming in vast numbers other races from Asia

'Pape's Diapiesin' Ends All Stomach Distress in Five Minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just eat has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember, the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin, which costs only fifty cents for large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

Wait Not Deemed Hardship.

To invite all good and intelligent men who live among us to become familiar with our ideas of government, to become citizens, and then to help conduct our affairs, seems fitting and proper, but an alien who does not think enough of our citizenship and suffrage to wait five years to attain it is likely not sufficiently appreciative of the high privilege to make a patriotic citizen or voter.

Those of foreign birth cannot charge us with lack of fairness to them if this be made the law (as it already is in nearly every state) when our native-born sons and daughters must wait until 21 years of age before exercising the right to vote in the elections of their own country.

ELKS TO HAVE JUBILEE

PORTLAND LODGE TO CELEBRATE TWENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

Informal Programme Will Be Given.

Returns From Election Received and Visitors Entertained Tuesday.

Portland Lodge of Elks will hold a "stag" party next Tuesday evening to celebrate its silver jubilee. A few young men founded the Portland lodge in November, 1889. It has grown to be the richest in the entire order and has attained a membership of 1400. Its hospitality has set a standard for the lodges of the world, since the 48th annual reunion held in this city in 1911.

The programme for Tuesday night is composed of charters, members' reports, and are active in the work. Those on the committee are Henry D. Griffin, chairman; D. Solis Cohen, Dr. Charles W. Corneilus, E. McDowell, Tom E. Dowling, John E. Kelly, Elmer W. Quimby, James Burger and Dr. E. A. Marshall.

The programme will be informal, one principally of good fellowship. Several interesting numbers will be furnished by local playhouses. And the Elks' band of 42 pieces will play. D. Solis Cohen will deliver the address. Arrangements have been made to receive full election returns. Refreshments will be served.

LAGGARD CHURCH DECRIED

Sunnyside Pastor Contends Dullness Kills Religious Spirit.

"Dullness and stupidity have no place in the church. When the church becomes dull and stupid it has no true religious spirit. It is simply a respectable corpse and if it is decently buried the community will not suffer much loss."

The assertions were made yesterday morning in the Sunnyside Methodist Church by the pastor, Rev. R. Elmer Smith, in his sermon on "A Glorious Church."

"The true modern church will not have a single aim, but several," said Dr. Smith. "It will not simply pray to the Almighty to destroy the saloon, the social evil and the other sins which create society, but it will deliberately and heroically seize a big club in the shape of the ballot and better laws and thus kill these monsters of iniquity."

Woodburn Store Is Robbed.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 1.—(Special).—Beck's general merchandise store at Woodburn was robbed of clothing valued at $30 last night. The thieves entered by forcing a window. Sheriff Beach was notified of the robbery and has a clue to the identity of the thieves.

Voters of Oregon Don't Be Fooled by the Journal

The so-called "Water Front" measures, 328 and 330, which the Journal is trying to deceive the people into voting for, will absolutely strangle the industrial and commercial progress of this state. The Journal says that these bills will not prevent the further use of the waterfront of this and other cities of the state for manufacturing sites. That statement is not true. The measures definitely limit the class of future waterfront improvements to docks and structures of a like kind.

Here is the exact wording of the bill: Section 2—"That the coporate authorities of a city or town lying upon any navigable stream or other like water, may, with the acquiescence of the State Land Board of the State of Oregon or its legal successor in office, lease, for the purpose of constructing private owned wharves, docks, piers, basins, slips, water terminals or other structures of like kind."

Do you see any provision in that section whereby a fisherman may erect a cannery on the waterfront, a logger erect a boom to hold his logs, a lumberman erect a sawmill, a shipbuilder erect a ship-building plant, or any manufacturer build a plant requiring access to water. These measures, if passed, will absolutely paralyze the industrial development of Oregon, the Journal to the contrary notwithstanding.

Think for a moment what it means to prevent by law the lining of our great rivers and bays with labor-producing industries. Think what it means to hamper by law the development and use of the great timber and fishing resources of Oregon. Think what it means to the people of Oregon to pass a law that will reduce the already meager payrolls of this state.

The army of the unemployed in Oregon is too large now; why increase it by passing laws that will strangle the industrial development of the state? Oregon is the richest state in the Union in undeveloped resources. The people can only become prosperous as these resources are developed by the building and operation of great manufacturing enterprises.

We Cannot All Make a Living Working on Docks

What would Portland do with 45 miles of docks on its waterfront and no manufacturing plants to supply the freight to be handled over these docks?

The proponents of these waterfront measures made a terrible blunder when they placed them on the ballot. They should be honest enough to admit to the people that they blundered, and not go on with a blind, dogged determination to win, no matter what the cost to the people.

Every man or woman in Oregon who works for a living is vitally interested in the defeat of these measures. Oregon's greatest need is outside capital to develop its resources, but if we advertise to the world that we hamper industry by law, Oregon will be the last state that capital seeking investment will come to.

Oregon needs the "rest cure." The time has come to call a halt on passing laws that cripple industry and frighten capital.

Vote 329 X No and 331 X No

'THE SPOILERS' IS BACK

REX BEACH'S MARVELOUS FILM OF ALASKA AT BEHOLD.

Story of Gold Fields, With Delightful Plot of Intrigue, Is Gripping, and Photography Is Marvellous.

Rex Beach's great romance of the Alaskan gold fields, "The Spoilers," has come again to the Hellig Theater for a week's run in motion picture form. This presentation by the Selig Polyscope Company was most enthusiastically received on its opening last night by a gathering of loyal movie fans, who appreciate the highest attainment in picture-making, which this film truly represents.

The pictures are vividly telling and the story takes on greater value than ever could be gathered from its mere reading in book form or from a stage depiction. In writing this vivid expose of the greed, cruelties and glaring illegalities so bound up in the early history of Alaskan mining days Rex Beach is given the credit for "starting something."

The picture is strong in sentiment, heated by those strong primitive passions sure to be aroused in the criminal elements of a wild, lawless country when chance to despoil helpless toilers is presented.

LYRIC TANGLE AMUSING

'MY WIFE'S HUSBAND' IS COMICAL STAGE-LIFE STORY.

Chorus Girls Are Shown Realistically Waiting for Cues As Invading Tailor Arrives—Piece Among Best.

The story of the country boy attacking the villain in a "blood and thunder" drama is overshadowed by a similar story told in words and action at the Lyric Theater this week.

"My Wife's Husband," a one-act comedy of Claud Kelly's production, opened yesterday at the Lyric. It depicts behind-the-stage life in realistic form. The curtain rises on a rehearsal scene, showing the chorus girls "loafing around" chattering, until summoned for their numbers.

Levi Cohen, who owns a tailor shop, accidentally arrives behind the footlights while the rehearsal is going on. His wife is seen in costume and the plot, as it unravels, indicates that she is acting without her husband's knowledge.

Farmers Shipping Oats. BUENA VISTA, Or., Nov. 1.—(Special).—Large quantities of vetch and oats have been shipped from various parts of the county within the past few weeks. Growers were inclined to hold at the first of the season. Some who contracted early received a lower price than was obtained by growers holding their crops. The vetch crop was lighter than last year. Oats, too, were less in yield. Warehouses have disposed of large amount of seed.

VOTING TAKES 15 MINUTES

Test Election Shows That 12 Votes Can Be Counted Each Hour.

It takes the average woman 15 minutes to vote the ballot to be used at the election tomorrow. A board of women election officials can count that ballot in five minutes.

These estimates are the result of the mock election and vote counting contest held Saturday in the Sealing building by women who will serve on the election boards tomorrow.

Alice R. Nugent presided at the contest.

PROHIBITION TALK IS SET

Edward Adams Cantrell Will Speak at Turn Halle Tonight.

Edward Adams Cantrell, well-known as a Chautauqua lecturer and former pupil orator in Chicago, Cincinnati and other Eastern cities, will speak tonight at the old Turn Halle, Fourth and Yamhill streets, discussing the proposed prohibition amendment which is to be voted on at tomorrow's election. Mr. Cantrell has just closed a tour of the principal Oregon cities. There will be no admission charge tonight, and every woman in the audience will be presented with a book by Mr. Cantrell at the close of the lecture.

Motorvehicle Receipts Increase. SALEM, Or., Nov. 1.—(Special).—Motorvehicle dealers' and chauffeurs' fees to November 1 totaled $77,258, in comparison with $56,873, the total of last year, according to a statement issued by Secretary of State Olcott today. The total for 1912 was $42,984, and for 1911, $27,216. Fees collected in October this year aggregated $298.80, and in October last year $865.

BEER IS NOT ALCOHOL Beer is the combined extract of malt and hops—Malt builds up tissue—Hops is an invigorating tonic. Beer contains natural carbonic acid gas, which gives it sparkling effervescence.
