

LETTER'S FIGURES AMUSE REPUBLICAN

State Chairman Pokes Fun at Hanley Manager for "Moderation" of Estimates.

CONCESSION CAUSES MIRTH

Mr. Moores Declares Tariff Important Issue and Is Confident That Party Advocating Constructive Legislation Will Win.

Clarke Letter's estimates of the senatorial situation, in which William Hanley Progressive candidate, for whom Mr. Letter is the campaign manager, is shown with a vote of 89,738 to 76,990 for Chamberlain and 73,875 for Booth, are mercilessly ridiculed in the final analysis of the Chief of the Republican state chairman, who predicts Booth's election and leaves Hanley a poor third.

"Mr. Letter's latest is the gem of the series," said Mr. Moores yesterday. "He presents a table of estimates that is absolutely unique. It gives a condensed handbook of political information. We also learn from Mr. Letter that it is generally conceded that Mr. Booth cannot carry his party strength."

"The story goes that this concession was decided upon at the Hanley headquarters in the Hotel this week. Mr. Letter, Dr. Coe, Tom Neuhäuser and Bill Hanley himself are all quoted as having voted upon the motion to generally concede most of Mr. Booth's votes to the opposition, although it is understood Dr. Coe preferred a resolution to the effect that it was 'universally' conceded that Booth would not get any votes."

"Revised" Figures Given. "Tom Neuhäuser thought this was putting it too strong. The table of estimates was taken up seriously. The manager here reported that Hanley was to have 90,000 votes, Chamberlain 75,000 and Booth 65,000, but in view of the report that the poolrooms were $30,000 to bet on Booth, it was decided, after carefully checking up all poll, to cut 262 votes off the Hanley estimate, and make it just 89,738, an error having been discovered in the returns from Punksdorf station."

"It was decided also to add 1800 to Chamberlain, and give him 76,500. There was also added $875 to the Booth estimate, thus giving him 73,875. This estimate was so manifestly conservative that Hanley wanted to start his campaign for Washington, but was persuaded to remain over until Wednesday, as the party needed his vote."

"His idea was that he could go back there this fall and blot out a few trusts, make Idaho and Arizona give back that $3,000,000 of reclamation money that they embezzled one day while Chamberlain was asleep at the switch, settle every burning question that is now agitating the country, end the European war and get back to the big 'P' ranch in time to help the boys brand all the new calves."

"Other matters were discussed. There were surmises as to the present whereabouts of the Journal's celebrated 'pink elephant,' a discussion of the wonderful rush through the states of the Journal's powerful editorial on the item veto, and the dastardly plot, recently discovered, of the 'machine' and a bunch of standpatters to destroy the direct primary."

"They are seeing all sorts of things these days at the Hanley headquarters. They will see many things that will give over. The vigorous campaign made by the Republicans, with the tariff as the all-important issue, has led Hanley, who voted for Wilson and whom Tom Lawton has assured us is a devoted champion of his policies, to come out for a 'moderate' tariff, while Chamberlain and Fliegel, in their recent advertisements, display Wilson pictures with their own, but make not one solitary reference to the Underwood tariff law. They dodge it absolutely."

"Shoo-ty" is the only response we can get to any suggestion that they explain how they expect to bid up any Oregon industry by forcing Oregon producers down to the starvation limit through foreign importations."

P. S. G. MACKENZIE DIES

Brother of Dr. Mackenzie Passes Suddenly at Richmond.

The Hon. Peter S. G. Mackenzie, K. C. of Richmond, and a native of Quebec, brother of Dr. K. A. J. Mackenzie and Mrs. R. Lea Barnes, of Portland, died Saturday at Richmond.

Mr. Mackenzie was 61 years old and the son of Rodrick and Jane Mackenzie, of Melbourne, Quebec, formerly chief factor of the Hudson Bay Company. He was a member of the provincial cabinet and Minister of the Treasury of the Province of Quebec, and in 1896 to a seat on the bench.

Mr. Mackenzie made a trip around the world six years ago and visited Dr. Mackenzie and Mrs. Barnes in Portland while en route, remaining here some time and making many friends. His death came as a shock to his Portland relatives, who did not know that he was ill. His widow, formerly Miss Penfold, of Quebec, survives.

QUARTERLY LICENSE ORDER

Payment by Vancouver Company Ordered in Verdict.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 2.—(Special.)—A verdict was returned by a jury in the Superior Court today to compel the Pioneer Autotruck & Merchants' Delivery Company to pay a quarterly license of $5 on each of its eight merchant delivery wagons.

The company operates an express or delivery business between Portland and Vancouver, pays for the wagons which deliver goods in the city; but it also delivers for nearly all of the merchants in the city, using eight wagons. Several months ago the company was arrested and fined in the Police Court. The case was appealed.

WOMEN OPPOSE FLEGL

Candidate's Anti-Suffragist Stand Arouses Challenge Committee.

"The older suffragists know that A. F. Flegel, Democratic Congressional candidate, was a strong anti-suffragist before equal suffrage was established in Oregon," said Mrs. L. W. Therkelson, of the challenge committee of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, yesterday.

"We look with apprehension on the stability of his conversion when he will not even reply to an honest request to enter a debate before election. Mrs. Therkelson said Mr. Flegel was formally asked, October 8, to debate in regard to the Democratic attitude on the proposed Federal amendment for woman suffrage.

"Mr. Flegel did not even give the committee that asked him to debate the courtesy of a reply," said Mrs. Therkelson, "and we must conclude that his suffrage sentiment is only skin-deep. We do not believe that he can be depended on to take the right side of this great question should he be elected and we earnestly hope he will not be elected."

Other members of the committee that presented the challenge to Mr. Flegel were Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, Mrs. Emma

BOURNE WINS BIG SUIT

DECISION IN ONTARIO-STEWART MINING CASE SUSTAINED.

F. A. Heinze's Company Restrained From Following Ore Beyond Their Lines on Extra-Lateral Rights.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—(Special.)—A mining controversy involving millions of dollars was settled today, when the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, in session in this city, affirmed the decision of the District Court of Idaho, in the suits of ex-United States Senator Jonathan Bourne, Jr., of Oregon, and of the Bunker Hill & Sullivan Mining & Concentrating Company against the Stewart Mining Company. The Stewart concern lost in the lower court and appealed. The decision is in line with others in regard to alleged apexes.

Senator Bourne is the owner of a patented mining claim called Ontario, in Shoshone County, Idaho, which has been worked for some years by the Bunker Hill Company. The Stewart Company owns the "Senator Stewart" fraction, a mining claim which adjoins the Ontario.

Suits were first brought in the state courts by the Bourne company to prevent the Stewart people from working underneath the Bourne claim. The Stewart Mining Company, controlled by F. A. Heinze, set up the plea that its status of ore extended underneath the Bourne claim and claimed ownership of the theory of extra-lateral rights. The state courts decided in favor of Bourne.

In the opinion of the Circuit Judges the apex alleged by the appellant does not exist.

FAMILIES ARE IN WANT

Women to Give Card Party to Aid Destitute and Helpless.

A destitute family consisting of a father and mother, four children and five grandchildren, stranded in Portland without money or food was discovered yesterday by Secretary Manning, of the Associated Charities. These persons are existing in the streets with packing boxes and a stove as furniture.

A second case that came before the association was that of a mother and two small children, all in need of shoes and clothing. The children cannot go to school because they are barefoot and ragged.

In a third family the father was injured recently in an accident. There is no income and the children are in want.

It is to start a shoe fund for just such cases as these that Mrs. R. H. Bondurant, a prominent social worker, has planned a large bridge and 500 party to be given in the Hotel Ben-

POULTRY RATE PROTESTED

Eggs and Butter Also Included in Complaint From Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 2.—An application for a suspension of the new interstate rates on poultry, eggs and butter to Arizona, California, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah, Washington and Oregon was filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission today by the Kansas Public Utilities Commission.

The new tariff is to become effective November 16, and provides for the suspension of all concentration and storage in transit privileges.

Mrs. Margaret J. Blair Deplores Table Conduct.

CHILD TRAINING IS URGED

Speaker Says Smile Should Be Taken to Meal and Grouches Should Be Left at Office—Ignorance of Manners Is Regretted.

Domestic science teachers, students and housewives composed the audience that gathered yesterday afternoon in the assembly hall of the Lincoln High School to hear Mrs. Margaret J. Blair's lecture on "Household Art."

The serving of a dinner was demonstrated by the speaker, who is one of the most prominent teachers of domestic science and domestic art. After a short talk on woods and dining-room furnishing, Mrs. Blair spoke of the table linen.

She said, "I don't believe in women spending too much time embroidering when they have such a wonderful lot of doors to enjoy and while there are so many helpful things they can do. Why ruin our eyes making elaborate things when the simpler ones are so much more lovely. Simplicity in everything is much more charming than elaborate decoration."

"When I see people's table manners I know immediately what kind of homes they come from," said Mrs. Blair. "Mothers should be careful to teach their children the right way to use their knives, forks and spoons. Boys should be taught how to behave at tables. The English mothers are particular about these things."

"The reason we have so many dyspeptics is because people take their stomachs with them to the table. We should be happy while we are eating. Some of them actually put their elbows on the table."

"I have seen women with their fingers loaded with diamonds and they didn't know how to behave, how to eat soup, or cut up their meat."

Mrs. Blair told of visiting the fields of flax in Belgium and the factories in Belfast, Austria and other places.

"Where I saw the flax bleaching, now there are battlefields," she said. "We will have to use our mercerized cotton, or find a substitute for the imported linens."

Mrs. Blair will speak today in the same auditorium on health, beauty, how to dress, how to make the best of one's looks and how not to be "too fat." Tomorrow another lecture will be given at 8:30 o'clock and on Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, Mrs. Blair will speak before the girls of the Trade School at Lowmide and Morrison streets. The lectures in the high school are under the auspices of the Meier & Frank Company.

JUDGE DELAYS SENTENCE

Roy McInnis, Convicted of Non-Support, Gets Grilling.

Brought before Judge McGinn yesterday for sentence, having been guilty of non-support by a jury last week, Roy McInnis was grilled by the court and the passing of sentence was postponed for a few days to allow time for the prisoner to try to effect a reconciliation with his wife.

"Your treatment of that woman during the trial was brutal," declared Judge McGinn. "Any man who has a spark of chivalry in him would not have acted as you did. You've got to square yourself with that woman before I will do anything for you. You had better make your peace with her. If you two can't live together in harmony, you should not do so. But you should do something to support her."

"If I sentence you now, it would be impossible for me to parole you later, even if I were inclined to do so and in that case clemency would be left to the Governor alone. You had better make up with that wife of yours. I will continue sentence for a few days longer."

BALLOT STICKERS BARRED

Action of Candidate for County Judge Not Allowed in Decision.

To prevent a threatened violation of the election laws, District Attorney Evans rendered a hurried opinion yesterday that will prevent Louis C. Garrietas from attaching stickers to the official ballot bearing his name as a candidate for County Judge.

The reply stated that the use of such a sticker is in violation of the law. A space is left on the ballot, it was stated, where the names of candidates other than those nominated may be written in by the voter who desires to do so, but stickers are not allowed. It was advised by Mr. Evans that there is no vacancy in the office of County Judge of this county and, therefore, no candidate to be elected.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache Is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.
