

SURE VICTORY SEEN BY ALL IN RACE

Candidates Are Certain of Success and Estimate Plurality at Count.

BOOTH CAMP IS JUBILANT

C. B. Moores Denies Claims of Foes and Says They Are Absent in Places Where Money Is to Be Found on Outcome.

On the eve of the election campaign managers, state and county chairmen and the candidates alike were confident of success.

Booth Assured of Election.

C. B. Moores, Republican state chairman—The "estimates" emanating from the Hanley and Chamberlain headquarters are so manifestly absurd as to throw discredit, in a way, on all estimates from whatever source they come.

Chamberlain Sees Success.

Bert E. Hanley, Democratic state chairman—Chamberlain will carry Multnomah, Baker, Union, Umatilla, Harney, Malheur, Wasco, Crook, Curry, Josephine, Lincoln, Benton, Grant, Lake, Klamath, Jackson, Wheeler, Linn, Clatsop, Yamhill, Polk, Tillamook and Clackamas counties.

C. N. McArthur, Republican candidate for Congress in Third District—I expect to win by approximately 10,000 votes over Mr. Fiegl.

A. F. Fiegl, Democratic candidate for Congress—My canvass shows that I will win by from 5000 to 10,000 votes.

A. W. Lafferty, Independent candidate for Congress—Pre-election statements usually are so exaggerated that they have no real value.

Drys See Victory.

Victory for the drys of from 10,000 to 15,000 majority was prophesied last night by J. E. Wheeler, chairman of the Committee of One Hundred.

Women Vote Expected.

If the women of Oregon vote as they say they will then it is impossible to say how large our majority will be, but I am confident it will not be under 15,000.

Labor leaders and the Oregon State Grange have come out dry as never before.

Virginia going dry a month ago by 35,000, and of West Virginia by 92,000 a year ago.

Any business which has arrayed against it the cause of labor, the railroads, big business corporations and institutions, the proven results of laboratory tests and medical research, the actual tables of the insurance companies, the moral conscience of the churches, philanthropic institutions, hospitals, penal institutions, social service workers, the keen politicians and the progressive magazines, periodicals and reviews must go down; and this is the condition of the liquor traffic in 1914.

A. M. Eppstein, manager of the Oregon Brewers' Association, was jubilant yesterday over the outlook for an overwhelming "wet" vote in Oregon.

"We will retain the local option and home rule laws of the state and defeat statewide prohibition by 30,000 majority or more," declared Mr. Eppstein.

"We will come up to Multnomah County with a good round majority and will carry this county by 20,000 or better. The big surprise, according to our estimates, will be in the outside counties, where the 'drys' look for their greatest strength.

Lead in State Reported.

Rev. Huber C. Herring, D. D. The Congregationalists of Portland and vicinity will have the opportunity of hearing their National leader, the Rev. Huber C. Herring, D. D., on Friday evening, November 6, at the First Congregational Church, Park and Madison streets.

"I wish to compliment all forces fighting against the prohibition amendment on the clean campaign that has been made.

PLAYGROUND IS OPPOSED

Mr. Bigelow, However, May Argue for Use by Ladd School Tomorrow.

Whether or not the children of Ladd school will be permitted to use part of the plaza blocks as playgrounds will be determined by the City Commission at its regular meeting tomorrow.

Commissioner Brewster says the park blocks are for the use of the general public and should not be fenced off by school playgrounds.

BURGLARS ROB DRUG STORE

Stipe-Foster Company Loses Cash and Goods to Thieves.

Burglars at an early hour Saturday sawed through a padlock on the door of the Stipe-Foster Drug Company, 233 Morrison street, stole $25 in cash and about $250 worth of fountain pens and razors and overlooked a large amount of cash within easy reach of the school playground problem confronting the Ladd school.

A showcase had been badly broken and fountain pens were strewn about the floor when the store was opened early yesterday.

Why Oregon Is Suffering Financially!

The Possibility of Single Tax Being Enacted Makes Me Regret That I Ever Invested a Dollar in Oregon

Here's His Letter Verbatim.

Every Word Is Full of Frightful Meaning to Every Voter.

Here's Your Chance to Do Your Part in Bringing Back Prosperity. Vote 327 "NO" and 337 "NO" and KILL SINGLE TAX!

Eastern financial centers are watching Oregon today. If single tax wins

All Future Investments Will Be Withheld From Oregon and What Money Is Already Here Will Be Withdrawn!

This is no time for experiments. Don't take chances on having all our building and other enterprises stopped—enterprises on which the state's prosperity depends. Do your duty to yourself, your family and your community—vote against and get your friends to VOTE AGAINST SINGLE TAX.

NOTE—You will find it on the ballot cleverly disguised as a $1500 exemption. Bear in mind that there is no exemption whatever on lots or land, but, on the contrary, the taxes will be increased 40 per cent.

The Portland Realty Board most earnestly asks your complete co-operation to defeat this most unjust increase in taxes.

EMPRESS HAS FINE BILL

"MAG HAGERTY'S FATHER" KEEPS AUDIENCE CONVULSED.

Harry Thomson's Act, Rich in Irish Brogue, Furnishes 15 Minutes of Amusement—Other Acts Win.

Two fine numbers make up the biggest part of a good bill at the Empress Theater on the week's turn of the programme. Both are humorous.

The first is "Mag Hagerty's Father," which is a realistic depiction on the order of the comic series by McManus, and the other is the favorite of many a show in Portland, Harry Thomson, the "Mayor of the Bowery."

Hagerty is the father of the daughter of the same name. Daughter marries rather comfortably and takes father on a trip after his retirement as a hoddie.

But father can't get accustomed to riches and metropolitan bellhops, and therein lies the opportunity for comedy.

Thomas J. Ryan as father is one long laugh. He is capably assisted by Edna Roland.

Harry Thomson's act cannot be described without a press that will print an Irish brogue and half a dozen other dialects, all of which he brings in during the 15 minutes which he spends in a New York night court, presided over by a genial judge whose failing is his inability to sentence even the guilty.

Something different in ventriloquism is offered by De Winters, a feminine manipulator of the voice who has a long list of clever imitations.

Her act was one of those which went well on the bill of yesterday.

The cycling McNutts say that their act is the "Pinnacle of Picturesque Pedlary." Well and good. Their act is one of bicycling which offers enough new turns to get several rounds of applause.

The youngest cyclist on the stage appears with the troupe.

Leighton and Robinson have a black-face act which brings out a lot of applause. The bill is opened by Lucy and Ethel Baker, a couple of comely girls with some good steps.

The musical of the Empress is better than the usual, and four filmed short stories break up the order of the acts.

St. Johns Has Money on Hand.

ST. JOHNS, Or., Nov. 2.—(Special)—City Recorder A. E. Danmore's report for the quarter, July 1 to October 1, shows cash on hand to be $357,29.

The total receipts were $73,851.52. The principal item was the street fund, for which the receipts and disbursements were $36,228.46, besides $945.53 for the sinking street fund and $3776.31 in the street interest fund.

The city property inventory showed a value of $126,627.24; bonded indebtedness, $76,000; improvement street bonds, $290,683. The bonds are for the city docks.

MRS. THOMSON TELLS WOMEN

How She Was Helped During Change of Life by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I am just 52 years of age and during Change of Life I suffered for six years terribly. I tried several doctors but none seemed to give me any relief.

Every month the pains were intense in both sides, and made me so weak that I had to go to bed. At last a friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and I tried it at once and found much relief.

After that I had no pains at all and could do my housework and shopping the same as always. For years I have praised Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for what it has done for me, and shall always recommend it as a woman's friend.

You are at liberty to use my letter in any way."—Mrs. THOMSON, 549 W. Russell St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to carry women so successfully through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
