

APPLE LIGHTHOUSE
TWIN FIRST PRIZE

Display of North Pacific Distributors Judged as Best Among Fruit Designs.

HOOD RIVER IS SECOND

Judges Likely to Complete Scrutiny of Manufacturers' and Land Products' Show Today—Day's Programme Is Varied.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME AT MANUFACTURERS' AND
LAND PRODUCTS
SHOW.

Afternoon.
2 o'clock—Motion-Picture Exhibitors' League. Special entertainment for managers of Portland motion-picture theaters and their families. Addresses on the motion-picture industry. Shaw's Royal Hawaiian Troubadours.
McElroy's concert band. Ellers eight octaves—eight girls at eight pianos.

The great bank of shining apples, flanked by a lighthouse built of apples, which was installed by the North Pacific Fruit Distributors under the authority of C. A. Mather at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show at the Armory, was awarded the grand prize yesterday. The prize consists of a gold medal banner and $100 in cash, set aside for the finest apple-advertising display in the competition. In judging novelty and beauty of design, excellent condition and appearance of the fruit and merits as a medium of advertising the apple were taken into consideration.

The exhibit is placarded with cards bearing opinions on the merits of the apple. At one side is a model of the globe surrounded by placards bearing on them the legend, "Buy them by the box," printed in 10 languages.

Hood River second.
Hood River's apple exhibit won second prize, a silver medal banner and $50. This display was a pyramid of beautiful boxes, each containing a miniature in a replica of Mount Hood, which was lighted with changing colored lights.

The Seattle-Dresser Company was awarded third prize. Its exhibit was simple, but striking. The booth was lined with dark wood and the enter-er stood a siege gun, built of red apples.

The judges began their work Monday afternoon and probably will have the major part of the judging finished by this evening, although the great variety of exhibits that must be considered will make the work rather slow today.

C. J. Sinsel, of Boise, Idaho, who serves at the Land Show two years ago, is here again as a judge. Working with Mr. Sinsel are E. D. Whitney and E. D. Parker.

The show was well crowded all yesterday afternoon in spite of the interest in the election that was expected to keep many from attending. In the evening programme was given under the auspices of the Builders' Exchange, the Oregon Industry League and the Federation of States Societies.

Vote Returns Finished.
Election returns were finished in the ballroom of the Armory and attracted a large crowd.

The concert by McElroy's band in the afternoon at the Armory, featuring the Hawaiian troubadours were a popular feature, with hourly programmes in the Land Products exhibit hall.

Arrangements have been made with Ellers Pianos House for a special feature which will begin this evening.
Lloyd W. McDowell, director of special events, completed the arrangements yesterday for a three-day engagement of the Octavos from the Ellers house, who will appear afternoons and evenings in the Land Products exhibit hall, giving concerts on eight pianos.
The principal features for this evening are the programme by students of the Gillespie School of Expression, and the programme of the Parent-Teachers' Association.

Programmes for these meetings are:

MARKET SHEDS ARE BEGUN

Awning on Yamhill Street Will Protect Buyers and Dealers.

Construction of the new umbrella sheds over the public market on Yam-is expected the work will be finished by December 1.

The sheds are to be of steel and corrugated iron, with canvas awnings extending over the sidewalk to protect the purchaser and the dealer.

are to be installed also.
