Liquor Men Say They Have Majority in Legislature and Referendum Would Entail Another Vote at Next Election.

ALE OF ALCOHOLIC LIQUORS NOW PROHIBITED IN 14 STATES.

Fourteen states now have laws prohibiting the sale of alcoholic beverages as the result of Tues-day's election, on the face of the late returns, which show that prohibition was adopted in Ari-zona, Washington, Oregon and Colorado. The states which pro-hibit the sale of liquor are:

- 1-Arizona. 2-Oklahoma.
- -Georgia.
- 5-Kansas. 8-North Carolina.
- 11-Washington
- 12-West Virginia, 13-North Dakota, 14-Virginia.

Alabama once adopted prohibi-tion amendment, but later re-scinded it. South Carolina is largely so under various acts. A score of states have local option here about four years.

A short time ago Mrs. Hurlburt filed suit for divorce. When the Republicans repudiated him and indorsed Roscoe P. Hurst, the Democratic candidate, it was believed Hurst's election was election, there was a question whether ection, there was a question whether the prohibition amendment added to the constitution was self-operative, or whether it would require an emergency act by the Legislature before becoming effective January 1. Purdy Bullard, the retiring Attorney-General, put the question up to his suc-cessor, Wiley Jones. Mr. Jones said he would not express an opinion until he had actually assumed office.

If an emergency act is necessary to ake prohibition effective throughout the state, another fight on the liquor issue will be precipitated in the Legislature where the liquor men believe it will be confronted by a hostile majority. In that event a referendum would be certain, with the question again on the ballot at the next general election.

DENVER, Nov. 5.—Belated neturns oday swelled the majority in favor of the prohibition amendment, and with Colorado definitely placed in the dry column of the states, the anti-saloon forces are turning attention to legislative matters in an effort to make the new clause effective. Latest figures for prohibition are 196,688 for and 99,182 against. In Denver the wets polled a majority of 9452. This lead was wiped

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.-Not only did the voters of California-man and did the voters of California—man and woman—swamp state-wide prohibition on Tuesday by a majority that will reach 150,800, but they also approved a measure designed to prevent a recrudescence of the prohibition movement within a period of eight years.

Amendment No. 47, which provides that there shall not be another vote on the question in that time, has been adopted, but by a much smaller majority. Scattered returns brought in jority. Scattered returns brought in from all parts of the state today, while meager, because the count had not progressed through the amendments in many precincts, showed No. 47 to have a commanding lead, which full returns are not likely to upset.
