

VETERANS OF WARS DRAW OUT CROWDS

Patriotic Programmes Bring Thousands to Theater at Land Products Show.

TURN VEREIN GIVES MUSIC

Newsboys Stage Bouts That Prove Exciting—Old Soldiers March in Long Parade Headed by Drum Corps—Concerts Feature.

PROGRAMME OF MANUFACTURERS' AND LAND PRODUCTS SHOW TODAY.

Afternoon—Portland public schools day. Exercises in afternoon. Grade school orchestra of 150 pieces in concert. Oregon Agricultural College day. Tillamook band in concert. Ellers' eight octaves. Recreation League of Portland. Address by Arthur Evans.

Evening—8:30 P. M.—Christian Brothers' Business College. 8:30 P. M.—Oregon Agricultural College. Ellers' eight octaves—eight girls at eight pianos. Tillamook booster band.

Spanish War Veterans, members of the Grand Army of the Republic, the Social Turnverein and the Newsboys' Association, all giving programmes at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show last night, kept the theater in the pavilion crowded throughout the evening.

The Grand Army of the Republic and Spanish War Veterans began the entertainment of the evening. Assembling at the Courthouse, they marched to the Armory. The drum corps of the sons of the Spanish War Veterans was a prominent feature in the parade and at the entertainment. Captain James P. Shaw was chairman.

Immediately after the patriotic programme of the veterans was completed the musical programme of the Turnverein was given, and the evening closed with the Newsboys' Association staging a series of exciting boxing bouts. Luellen E. Becker had direction of the Turnverein programme and the committee in charge of the newsboys' show was headed by Max Lewis, Julius Steinberg and J. Edward Tonkin.

All the demonstrators were surrounded by visitors and the entrance figures indicate an attendance of between 5000 and 6000. The Tillamook band, which began its engagement at the Land Products Show yesterday, assisted at the programme of the Grand Army of the Republic and gave a concert later in the main exhibit hall in the Armory.

LAND SHOW "SING" IS SUNDAY

Monday Musical Club and Grade Teachers' Chorus to Have Charge.

Sunday at the Land Show will be given over to a great "Community Sing" under the auspices of the Musical Club and the Grade Teachers' Chorus, with Mrs. Lou Gray as conductor. The programme will begin at 2:30 P. M.

C. H. McGirr, designer of the battleship Oregon booth, which has attracted so much attention during the show, is having a fine American flag made and raised especially on this occasion. The flag will be hoisted to the mast of the battleship at the beginning of the "sing."

A chorus of 25 voices will lead the singing and more than 1000 copies of the words of the songs to be offered have been provided for distribution in the audience. Members of the committee on arrangements are: Mrs. C. J. Frankel, Mrs. Gertrude Appender, Mrs. Russell R. Dorr and Mrs. Lou Gray.

Following is the programme: 1.—Tillamook County band. 2.—American band and audience. Mrs. Lou Gray, conductor. 3.—"The Flag That Has Never Known Defeat" (John Hyatt Brewer), grade teachers' chorus. 4.—"Old Folks at Home." 5.—"Silver Threads Among the Gold." 6.—"Juvenile" Grade teachers' chorus and audience. 7.—"Rock of Ages." 8.—"Lead Kindly Light" chorus and audience. 9.—"Glad to Be a Soldier" (Lyness), grade teachers' chorus. 10.—"Battle Hymn of the Republic." 11.—"Star Spangled Banner" solo, chorus. 12.—"America, America." Selection. Tillamook County band.

"BOOSTER BAND" SERENADES

Tillamook Party Here With Big Programme for Land Show.

The Tillamook "Booster Band" of 52 pieces announced its arrival in Portland yesterday morning with a serenade in the streets before The Oregonian building and other important business houses in the city, and paraded the business section of the city before going to the Armory, where it was to open its engagement at the Manufacturers' and Land Products Show.

The first programme was given in the afternoon at the Land Show, and for three days the band will be a feature of the big exposition. The band, when full, carries 65 pieces and represents 10 cities in Tillamook County.

W. C. Trombley began the organization about six months ago at the instance of the Tillamook commercial clubs with a view to providing a special feature from the county for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Rollie Watson, secretary of the Tillamook party, already has made arrangements for the band to take the trip down next summer, and to play in the Oregon building at the exposition in San Francisco.

SALEM TO ACT ON CHARTER

Proposal Will Be Passed Upon at December Election.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The City Council tonight decided to submit to the people at the city election in December a draft of a charter recently prepared by a committee of citizens providing a commission form of government. The charter provides for seven commissioners, one for each ward, the one receiving the highest vote to be mayor. A city manager, chief of police and fire chief would be appointed, while the City Recorder would remain an elective office.

If the charter is approved it will become operative January 1, 1915, the city officers elected last Monday to serve until that time.

UNITED CHURCH IS PLEA

Dr. H. C. Herring Says Congregationalists Must Arouse Themselves.

Comparing the churches of Europe with Congregationalism in this country, to the great disadvantage of the European institutions. Dr. Hubert C. Herring, secretary of the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States, last night urged the need of a stronger centralization upon his hearers at the First Congregational Church.

"Is Congregationalism possessed of the things needed by this age?" he asked. "What, indeed, is the need of this time? Look at the countries across the water trying to destroy one another."

"A negative answer to this question is that the churches of Europe cannot control human passion. The day of ritualism and ceremonialism is done. They are bankrupt. They cannot supply the needs of the age."

"The democracy and scientific spirit now abroad demand a religion that is ethical, rational and at the same time spiritual."

"Congregationalism is all these things. To make them operative, however, we must face the world with the conviction that we are called upon to mould these times."

"If we are to imprint ourselves upon the age, we must gather under the leadership of our National council. The past of our church has been dotted with aggressive achievements, but our church has not been an aggressive organization. It was a new impulse of aggressiveness that led to the organization of the conference.

Dr. Luther K. Dyott introduced the speaker.

Chief feature of the school programme will be a concert by the grade school orchestra, under direction of Professor Chapman, head of the musical instruction in the schools. The orchestra is composed of 150 pieces.

The programme includes the following selections: "Beutoro March," "Grand March," "Silver Star Overture," "Romanza," "Ursula Gavotte," "Capitol Polka," "A Marie a Minute Galop" (descriptive).

The Agricultural College will hold its programme both in the afternoon and at night. Dr. Hector Macpherson will be the principal speaker in the afternoon. He was a member of the rural credits commission which recently toured Europe to study plans on rural credit systems.

Dr. Macpherson will lecture on "Methods of Agricultural Production and Rural Life Conditions in Various European Countries." By means of a series of lantern slides he will illustrate the progress which has been made in the agriculture of various European countries previous to the outbreak of the present war.

The agricultural labor situation, farm homes, marketing conditions for agricultural products, systems of farm rural credits and farm insurance will be touched on for those countries which have taken the lead in these departments of agricultural activity.

An examination will be made of such American agricultural conditions as could bear profit by the example of the European farmers in their various business organizations.

Following is the programme announced for tonight by the Agricultural College: Piano solo, Miss Blount; selections, quartet; Scotch monologue, Russell; duet, Green and Johnson; violin solo, Mr. Collins; selections, quartet.

The Recreation League of Portland also will hold a meeting in the little hall of this afternoon, which Professor A. E. Wood will lecture on "Boys' Camps."

Christian Brothers College announces the following programme, to be given tonight under its auspices, the musical numbers to be furnished by the pupils of the piano and voice teacher of the college, Mrs. Minnie Thompson Carter:

On parole from the Oregon Penitentiary, where he was sent from Ashland for forgery, A. J. Townsend, alias C. A. Townsend, was arrested in Portland last night by Detectives Swenne and Moloney on information that he was trying to defraud a local furniture company with a scheme to build a sanitarium in Salem. He is held on vagrancy charge until the State Parole Board can be notified.

It is alleged that Townsend had approached a well-known Salem woman whose name is withheld by the police, and tried to interest her in his scheme to start a sanitarium. He is said to have told her that he had $600 and wanted her to buy $110 worth of stock in the sanitarium. She called the police.

CAPTAIN TO EXPLAIN TALE

Report of Bootlegging Hotly Denied by La Center Skipper.

Peter I. Moe, master of the steamer La Center, will appear before the customs officials in Portland this morning to explain a report from Ridgefield, Wash., that bootlegging traffic was in progress at La Center. The report did not mention any names, but said evidence had been collected from a building on the waterfront. Mr. Moe said many persons believed the report was directed at him, and made an emphatic denial that bootlegging traffic was being conducted in or on any of his properties.

"I have been told by the City Attorney and Marshal that they know nothing about any confiscation or collection of evidence. I want to state the report is false. There has not been any liquor

Good Things in Markets

GRAPEs are making their last brave stand for the season. Tokays, most in evidence, can still be had for 25 cents a basket. Cornichons and Malaga are getting scarce and range from 30 to 40 cents a basket. The last variety from California for this year is the Steinhauser, a grape of great attractive flavor, which retails at 15 cents a pound.

Apples continue—and will for some time to come—to fill the public eye. The fact that the European war has curtailed the market area has thrown the very choicest of the crop open to local buyers, including the retail trade. As prices have been very greatly reduced in former years, the sale is enormous. The fruit is simply being absorbed.

Robust, useful Baldwins can be had from 25 cents to 1.25 a box, and select Orleas from $1.50. Spitzbergen are from $1 to $2 and Black Arkansas, Newtown Pippins and even Hood River Delicious are being retailed at $2 a box. The most of these varieties can be had at 15 cents a dozen.

Pears are also well to the front. Attractive Fall Butters are 35 cents a dozen and Russets and Winter Nellis—very presentable stocks—can be had for 5 cents a pound. The last pear for the season to be offered is the Wakefield, from Hood River—a long, green pear, of distinctly keeping quality, offered at 25 cents a dozen. Prickly Bright, ripe strawberries are still in market at 20 cents a box. Cranberries are 15 cents a quart and huckleberries two pounds for a quart.

Pineapples, 10 cents a pound (generally from 2 1/2 to 3 pounds in a single crown); pomegranates, 5 cents, and black walnuts at 15 cents each; casabas, 15 and 20 cents.

No better herald of the approach of winter than the stores of nuts. The list in market now includes Eastern chestnuts and pine nuts at 35 cents a pound; almonds at 30; local soft-shell walnuts, filberts (or hazelnuts) and pecans, at 25; Brazil nuts and chestnuts at 20; imported walnuts, hickory nuts (including the shell-bark variety) and black walnuts at 15 cents a pound.

The vegetables even gather an air of autumn. The squashes—Hubbard, at 4 cents a pound; Summer, at 5, and cream squash at two cents a pound; celeris, pumpkin, at 2 cents a pound; celery, 5 and 10 cents a bunch, and celery heads, 5, 10 and two for 15 cents. California green peas, Lima beans and Brussels sprouts are each 15 cents a pound; artichokes, three for 25 cents; egg plant, 10 cents each; red and green pepper, 5 cents a pound; English hot-house cucumbers, 10 cents each; okra, 25 cents a pound.

Hothouse tomatoes are two pounds for a quarter; from the open field, two pounds, 15 cents, but very good stock can be had for 40 cents a box. Spinach, two pounds for a quarter; mustard greens, 5 cents a bunch.

Irish potatoes average $1.50 for a sack of a hundred pounds; sweet, 4 and 5 cents a pound; cauliflower, 5 and 10 cents each; mushrooms, 75 cents, and ground cherries, 15 cents a pound.

In the fish market: Sturgeon is quoted from 15 to 20 cents a pound; chinook salmon, 10 to 12 1/2, silver-side, 10 cents; black cod, halibut cheeks, perch and sand-dabs, 12 1/2, cents a pound. Halibut, flounders, silver smelt and salmon roe, 10 cents a pound. Crabs, 15 and 20 cents each; shrimps, 15 cents a pound.

The poultry market offers hens, from 18 to 20 cents a pound; Spring chickens, 20; ducks, 20; geese, 18; turkeys, 27 1/2 to 30 cents a pound, and squabs, 50 cents each.

Butter, 65, 75 and 80 cents a roll. Eggs, 50 cents a dozen; 2 dozen, 95 cents; Kansas eggs, 35 cents (about which no complaints are offered).

Some specially good cheese is being "made in Oregon" this season. Tillamook is sending out some of extra high but mild quality, which retails at 20 cents a pound, while the eastern part of the state offers an article with considerably more "bite" in its composition, and a cream cheese, both of which are offered at 25 cents a pound.
