

REPUBLICANS GET 1913 LEGISLATURE

Next Senate in Washington Will Consist of 28 of Old Party, 8 Democrats.

DEATH CAUSES VACANCY

Republicans May Gain Another Yet in Former Republican District, With House Members Close to 75 When Returns Arrive.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The Republican will have two-thirds majorities in both houses of the 1915 Washington Legislature.

At the 1913 session of the Legislature the Senate consisted of 25 Republicans, 10 Democrats, six Progressives and one Socialist, who originally was elected as a Democrat, but later changed his party lines.

fall of the fortress. During this period both the German and Japanese warships and aeroplanes engaged in the bombardment of each other's positions.

On one of the most severe of these engagements on October 1, it was announced that the Japanese loss was 170 killed and 300 wounded. It was then reported that the Japanese would await the arrival of siege guns before continuing operations.

Japanese Cruiser Blown Up. On the night of October 17 occurred the most serious of the Japanese naval losses, when the cruiser Takachiho was blown up by the German torpedo-boat S-90.

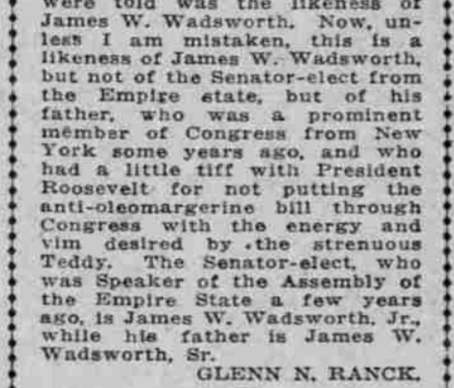

was reported on October 23 that the Japanese had finally installed their siege guns under cover of Prince Henry Mountain and other hills near the town.

The German fortresses included three

NEW YORK SENATOR-ELECT IS YOUNG MAN.

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—(To the Editor.)—On page 2 among photographs of new Senators-elect in the Oregonian of November 6 appeared a photo which we were told was the likeness of James W. Wadsworth. Now, unless I am mistaken, this is a likeness of James W. Wadsworth, but not of the Senator-elect from the Empire state, but of his father, who was a prominent member of Congress from New York some years ago, and who had a little tiff with President Roosevelt for not putting the anti-clemensine bill through Congress with the energy and vim desired by the strenuous lines of defense. The first of these, on the outskirts, appears to have been abandoned during the last 12 years or so, and the German lines concentrated in Forts Moltke and Bismarck and Hils, which occupy commanding positions on the range of precipitous hills that circle the harbor.

The heights back of the city are penetrated only by the railway line, and it is probably through this path that the allies proceeded into Tsing-Tau, once the defending fortresses had been silenced.

An interesting document in connection with the fall of Tsing-Tau is the proclamation which the German Governor posted on August 22. In this he said:

I have seen you surrender the smallest bit of ground over which the German flag is flying. From this place, where we, with love and success, have endeavored during the last 12 years to shape a little Germany across the seas, we shall not retreat. If the enemy wants Tsing-Tau he must come and take it!

In taking it the Japanese have again had revenge for certain phases of their war with China 25 years ago. It is curious, also, to find the proclamation of Germany, to give up Port Arthur—her main fruit of victory—while she was fighting for it.

Ten years later—in 1904-05—Japan fought Russia and again took Port Arthur. Now, after an interval of 10 years, she has seized the German possession of Kiau-Chau and wiped out a score which had been a thorn in its side for two decades.

DRYS CARRY FRANKLIN COUNTY

Democrats and Republicans Break Even and One Progressive Wins.

PASCO, Wash., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The following officers were elected for Franklin County: State Representative, Logan; Editor, Robinson; Sheriff, Edward Onstott; Republican Clerk, Mrs. C. C. Robinson; Democrat Auditor, L. L. Johnson; Treasurer, Edward Sheffield; Democrat Prosecuting Attorney, A. J. Elrod; Democrat Assessor, Fred McCotter; Republican County School Director, George W. Zent; Progressive Engineer, J. W. Hamilton; Democrat Commissioners, James C. Stinson, First District, and F. O. Young, Second District.

The county returned a majority for the "dry" and most of the other initiative measure, except the teachers' retirement fund and the eight-hour law.

TSING-TAU SURRENDERS

The strength of the attacking force, as compared with the little garrison of some 7000 men and the few German vessels at Kiau-Chau, was so disproportionate that at the beginning of the campaign it was taken for granted that the German possession soon would fall.

The surprise was that so small a force was able to take and hold the place, and inflict a considerable loss, both to the land and naval forces of the allies.

Allies' Loss in Heavy. Reports from various sources pieced together indicated that the allies' loss around Kiau-Chau has been upwards of 2000 men and several second-rate warships.

The details of the movements have been secret, but the first general operation undertaken by the Japanese was the sweeping of the waters around Kiau-Chau for mines, which the Germans had laid. In this connection a hundred Japanese women shell divers offered their services, thinking that, unseen by the enemy, could dive and release the mines. But the offer was declined, since the Japanese law prohibited the employment of women in warlike operations. During the mine-sweeping campaign it is believed that Japanese mine-dragging boats was blown up.

Chinese Protest Ignored. The next general move on the part of the Japanese was to bring the German-owned railway running west from Tsing-Tau into the province of Shantung.

This was done under violent protest from the Chinese government, which held that it was a violation of the integrity of the Chinese republic, but the Japanese went ahead with their operations.

The number of the expeditionary force has never been officially divulged, but it has been reported to consist of some 800 South Waterforders and Indian soldiers under command of Brigadier-General Nathaniel W. Bernardston, commander of the North China forces, was at their head, and is said to have formed a part of the center of the Japanese line in the investment of Tsing-Tau.

CATTLE EPIDEMIC EXTENSIVE IN MISSISSIPPI

Federal Quarantine Now Ordered Against Massachusetts and Iowa.

OWNER CONTRACTS PLAGUE

Suspected Case Reported in Mississippi—Cost of Suppression May Reach $2,000,000, as in Case of Germany Years Ago.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Further spread of the livestock foot-and-mouth disease has caused the extension of the Federal quarantine to two more states, Massachusetts and Iowa. Reports to the Department of Agriculture announced the discovery of the epidemic at South Attlebury, Bristol County, Massachusetts, and at Farnell, Iowa, the first case west of the Mississippi.

Cattle, sheep and hogs cannot now be moved out of Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, New York, Massachusetts or Iowa. In addition to the states already quarantined, a suspected case exists at Como, Miss., where it is reported a herd owner himself has contracted the disease.

Children May Be Kept Home. The Federal authorities are advising state officials to impose strenuous quarantining against infected sections and to prevent children from leaving farms to attend school.

Hope was expressed today, on receipt of reports from the states of Indiana and Michigan, that the epidemic there had been placed under control. On the other hand, new cases were found in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, and in three more counties in Illinois.

The spread of the disease makes certain an increased cost of putting down the epidemic. It would not surprise officials if the cost will be nearer the $2,000,000 expended by a German government to eradicate the disease from among its cattle a few years ago, than the $300,000 spent by the American Government in fighting the 1908 outbreak of the disease.

Expense of Tracing Heavy. The expense of having inspectors trace the various sections of infected counties will be large. Ten new inspectors were rushed today to Wisconsin and Massachusetts, each for duty in the respective states. Department officials have suggested to the promoters of the Royal Cattle Show to be held in Kansas City, that the event should be postponed.

CHICAGO STOCKYARDS CLOSED. To January Legislature Is Left Action That Will Fix Penalty for Violation of Prohibition Enactment Just Passed by People.

Cattlemen Co-operate With Government and Are Optimistic.

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A large part of the cattle receiving and meat-packing industry of the country, here and in Chicago, tonight temporarily was shifted to Kansas City, Omaha, St. Joseph, Mo., and other Western cities, as a result of the outbreak of the foot and mouth disease among the cattle. The quarantine against the stockyards and all other cattle pens within the state went into effect at midnight. The state's action supplements the Federal quarantine against Illinois.

No more cattle, sheep or hogs are to be received in Chicago until November 16, when business is to be resumed after the yards have been thoroughly disinfected and pronounced free from the disease.

DR. WITHERCOMBE FEED

AFTER CORVALLIS BANQUET OVAATION GIVEN GOVERNOR-ELECT.

Tallyho Drawn by Students Brings Guest to Point Where Great Gathering Gives Greeting.

CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Corvallis turned out en masse tonight and in an outdoor demonstration on the streets tendered their respects to Dr. James Withercombe, Governor-elect of Oregon.

Practically the entire student body of the Agricultural College, headed by the cadet band, student body of the Corvallis High School, headed by its school band, and a large delegation of townspeople, headed by the Corvallis Fire Department Drum Corps, formed in procession at the entrance to the college campus, marched to the First Methodist Church, where Dr. Withercombe was a guest at a banquet given by the Methodist Brotherhood of this city, later the Governor-elect in a decorated tallyho and conveyed him to the corner of Second and Madison streets, where the demonstration was held.

In the tallyho drawn by prominent citizens and students were Mayor Taylor and a committee consisting of N. E. Moore, representing the Republican party; B. G. Leedy, representing the Prohibition party; County Judge Macdonald, representing the Democrats; and Mrs. B. W. Johnson, representing the women voters.

Each of the party representatives made brief remarks complimenting the Governor-elect and congratulating him on his success. Dr. Withercombe thanked the citizens of Corvallis for their loyal support given him at the polls, and especially his home precinct, which gave him almost a five to one vote over his nearest competitor.

RATE HEARING IS DENIED

Independent Company in Corvallis Must Ask New Rate.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The State Railroad Commission today announced that it would not hear the application of the Corvallis Independent Telephone Company for permission to increase its rates and also for permission for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company to increase its rates in Corvallis.

The companies formerly engaged in a rate-cutting contest, and now the independent company alleges rates are too low. In making the decision the Commission said it would be impossible for it to determine the proper rates of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company under the application, and that besides it was making a general investigation of the business of that company. The independent company was informed the Commission would hear an independent application for permission to increase its rates and was given 15 days in which to make it.

house also have been replaced by Republicans, but the Democrats have scored a unique triumph by electing a woman in place of a Republican. She is Miss Marian Towne, of Talent, and with F. D. Wagner, of Ashland, will represent Jackson County in the lower House.

Miss Towne is the first woman to be elected to the Legislature in Oregon and will have the distinction at the coming session of being the only woman member of either house.

In the Ninth District, embracing Douglas and Jackson Counties, Clarence L. Reames, a Democrat, will be succeeded by William I. Vawter, a Republican. Mr. Reames now is United States District Attorney in Portland.

In the Eleventh or Polk County district, Verd Hill, a Democrat, will be succeeded by M. T. Grier, a Republican.

Davey Defeats Democrat. Frank Davey, a Republican, succeeds W. F. Homan, a Democrat, in the Twenty-seventh Representative District, composed of Harney and Malheur Counties.

Of the 60 members in the lower house, 14 have been re-elected. They are: George W. Weeks, of Marion; Charles Childs, of Linn; Allen H. Eaton, of Lane; S. P. Pierce, of Coos and Curry; E. E. Blanchard, of Josephine; T. B. Hinkle, of Umatilla, and J. E. Anderson, of Hood River and Wasco. Anderson was in Portland yesterday. He received the highest vote on the legislative ticket in the district.

Mr. Eaton, of Eugene, although a young man in years will be the Senate member from the train to the legislature. That distinction formerly was held by Milton A. Miller. Allen is entering upon his fifth consecutive term.

Hurburt Case Puzzles. Complications may arise over the election of C. M. Hurburt as Representative in the Multnomah-Clackamas counties, inasmuch as he was disqualified for the office. Republicans in both counties openly supported Roscoe P. Hurst, his Democratic opponent, but Hurburt was elected. It is certain that Hurburt's seat will be contested if he presumes to take it. He is absent from the state and may not return.

Hurst insists that if Hurburt's seat is declared vacant he will demand the seat, but whether he can secure it probably will be determined by the Legislature itself.

Following are the newly-elected members of the State Senate by districts: First, Marion—C. P. Bishop, A. M. La Follette. Second, Linn—S. M. Garland (Dem.). Third, Lincoln—George M. McBride. Fourth, Lane and Linn—E. D. Cusick. Sixth, Jackson—H. Von der Hellen. Ninth, Benton and Polk—C. L. Hawley. Tenth, Yamhill—W. T. Vinton. Twelfth, Clackamas—Walter A. Dimick. Thirteenth, Multnomah—Arthur Langguth. Fourteenth, Clackamas, Columbia and Multnomah—George M. McBride. Fifteenth, Clatsop—C. A. Leinenweber. Nineteenth, Morrow, Umatilla and Union—A. Barrett. Twentieth, Umatilla—J. N. Burgess.

HOLLAND BRIDE IS SOUGHT

Albany Man Returns to Native Land, Willing to Fight.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Braving all the dangers of transportation incident to war and facing the possibility of having to fight for his native land, Abe Van Wass, of Albany, is going back to Holland to get married. He left here this morning for San Francisco, where he expects to embark for Holland to claim the girl who has been waiting for him ever since he has been in the United States.

Mr. Van Wass, whose home is on a farm about seven miles north of this city, is the only man who has returned for Holland on some vessel from Portland or Seattle, but has failed. He expects to succeed at San Francisco, however.

Mr. Van Wass said when leaving that if Holland should become involved in the war before he arrives there he would be willing to stay and fight.

Willis Vidito Dies From Blow on Head as He Fell From Train.

CORVALLIS, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Willis Vidito, of this city, died today from injuries received Saturday, when his skull was fractured as he fell from a moving train. He never regained consciousness.

Returning from Albany last Saturday on a special train that brought home the rooters from the Oregon Agricultural College—Washington football game, he fell from the train to the pavement. He was a man of about 70 years of age. It is believed that he attempted to get
