Women's Mass Meeting Today.—Mrs.
Josephine Sharp, president of the Woman's Political Science Club and the Alberta Woman's Improvement Club, has called a mass meeting of the women of the city for this afternoon at the Library to protest against the action of Judge McGinn in excluding action of Judge McGinn in excluding women from his courtroom during the trials of baseball players and others on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. It is alleged that it is brutal for a girl to be taken alone into a courtroom of men and made to tell her story without the moral support of a woman.

Lestified to the fatal attraction ballplayers have for young girls. The story of Lober was that these husky professional athletes are always in danger from feminine wiles. In the case now on trial he said the young girls who have appeared as witnesses followed the players to their hotel and invaded their rooms without invitation and could not be induced to leave for hours.

Jurors Question Defendant.

Deputy Collier on cross-examination gave Lober some uncomfortable minutes in quizzing him in regard to this statement of the perils of a baseball player's life in a great city. Davis, on the stand in his own behalf, was questioned by members of the jury after attorneys had completed their examination. Arguments will be made this morning and the case will be given to the jury today.

Frank Arellanes was pronounced not guilty by the jury that heard his case returning a verdict yesterday morning. The recommendation was made, however, that he be censured severely by Jurors Question Defendant.

Mayor Albee Declares That Infractions of Liquor Law in Future Will Mean Loss of License.

Whether or not an increase in tax-ation in Portland during 1915 will be necessary on account of the adoption of the prohibition amendment in Ore-gon, will be decided by the City Com-mission today. It is probable that an attempt will be made to cut the budget of proposed expenditures for 1915 to such an extent that it will be possible for the Commission to carry out its Standing of the proposed 1915 expenditures with the decrease of the saloon license revenue a levy of about 7.6 mills would be necessary.

For years the city has counted upon the saloon license revenue to carry the city over from January 1 to the time when the first of the tax money is due. Licenses for the first half of the succeeding year are payable before January 1 and amount to about $170,000, which has financed the city between January 1 and tax-paying time.

In addition to the loss of the revenue in this way it is estimated by License Collector Hutchinson that 20 known mineral wealth to the value of $248, 200,000.
