LAME DUCK BRIGADE TO BE PROVIDED FOR

President Expected to Reward Faithful Democrats Who Failed of Election.

PALMER FIRST IN LINE

Penrose's Late Opponent in Pennsylvania May Have $10,000 Job, and Others Potentially Useful Will Be Remembered.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 8 .- As the smoke of the recent political battle rises and vanishes in the atmosphere, large numbers of "dead ones" are seen prostrate on the field of conflict. Some of these will soon be forgotten; others will come to life and join the famous "lame duck" brigade that will march on the Whits House and demand some sort of recognition from the President.

nition from the President.

Fortunately for the President there are now at his disposal numbers of good fat offices, most of them created at the last session of Congress, which can be bestowed upon such of the de-feated candidates as appeal to his fancy. The new Federal Trade Commission is yet to be appointed and it was announced some weeks ago that this commission would not be named until after the election. The delay was ordered that the President might if so disposed, place on this commis-sion Democrats who failed to win reelection at the polls this Fall. Place Waits for Palmer.

Straightway the President is expected to confer one of these commissionerships upon his favorite Congressional pet A. Mitchell Palmer, of Pennsylvania, the man who undertook to defeat Senator Penrose. There are five commissioners provided for by Congress, at salaries of $10,000 a year each, and Mr. Palmer, as a reward for his efforts in the Pennsylvania Senatorial campaign, probably will receive a job that pays $2500 a year more than he would have received had he won the Senatorship.

Who the other four trade commis-

Who the other four trade commis sioners will be the President has not disclosed, but it is generally assumed that Palmer will be one of the lucky live. As these are the fattest jobs at the disposal of the President, they will be the most sought after and it is not at all unlikely that the President will confer some of these places upon other unsuccessful candidates who met defeat

Future Service Also in Mind.

This much may be assumed, however; seltcting men for the Federal Trade ommission President Wilson will make his selections not alone because of past their party, but with a view to what their party, but with a view to what they likely can do two years hence in the way of controlling the politics of their respective states. The President, in some ways is exceedingly calculating and he will not appoint on the trade commission any Democrat whose ways commission any Democrat whose use-fulness and whose effectiveness within the party ended with his defeat at the recent election.

The President, as has been well established, intends to be a candidate for renomination in 1916, and having that purpose in mind, he is not likely to name any dead ones to this commission, unless he thinks they will come back strong during the next two years.

FIRE ENDANGERS COUPLE

Is Work of Firebug.

Awakened by the crackling of an incendiary fire in the basement of their home Sunday morning, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Conley, of 1176 Clinton street, summoned the fire department just in time to save their dwelling, Mrs. Conley reported yesterday. The house, Mrs. Conley said, is one of three owned by F. B. Crosswhite, of Mist, Or. She says this is the sec-ond attempt to burn the buildings in
