

PREMIUM BROUGHT BY BRIDGE BONDS

Seven Bids for Entire Issue of $250,000, Bearing 5 Per Cent, Are All Above Par.

BOARD HIGHLY GRATIFIED

Award Made to Morris Bros., of Portland, Harris Trust & Savings Bank, of Chicago, for Aggregate Sum of $253,375.

Bids for Interstate Bridge bonds were so advantageous when opened by the bonding committee yesterday that the members expressed surprise. Of 18 bids submitted, seven were for the entire issue, all above par. The first block of bonds, amounting to $250,000, was awarded on a joint bid of $253,375 by Morris Bros. of Portland, and the Harris Trust & Savings Bank, of Chicago. This was the highest tender. The quotation is $101.35.

Much gratification was expressed by members of the committee because of the active bidding. Chairman Holman said the confidence shown in the securities evidently indicates that when the next block of bonds is offered in about six months, there will be no difficulty in disposing of them at a good rate.

Commissioner Lightner expressed the belief that the most important phase of the matter is that as the bonds are to be delivered within 30 days, the bridge construction can be commenced soon and the work prosecuted without any delay.

Order for Printing Expected. Proposals will be asked for printing the bonds today. A meeting of the committee probably will be held today to adopt a resolution formally authorizing the interest rate, which will be 5 per cent annually, and the form of printing.

A telegram was sent to Waddell & Harrington, Eastern engineers, who are experts in charge of the plans for the bridge, yesterday, asking that they supply data at once in their hands in regard to rights of way for the Oregon approach that must be procured before construction can be commenced.

Two meetings of the bonding committee were held yesterday. Bids were opened at the first meeting and at the second a resolution was adopted directing that the highest bid for the entire issue be accepted and that certified checks submitted by other bidders be returned. Present at both meetings were County Commissioners Holman, Lightner and Hart, District Attorney Evans and County Clerk Coffey.

Small investors, who, it was hoped, might take the first block of Interstate Bridge bonds, were represented in a minor way only in the bidding, and such offers as were made could not be accepted because the figures they quoted were not high enough.

List of Bids Given. The block disposed of yesterday represents 20 per cent of the total issue authorized for Oregon's share of the construction of the Interstate Bridge. Unsuccessful bidders for the bonds whose tenders were opened yesterday were:
