Return Match With Aberdeen Moose

Is to Be Played.

Multnomah Club's football team will play a return game at Aberdeen will the Aberdeen Moose probably on No-vember 21. This was decided yester-day by Manager Pratt, and as a result Captain Convill has sent out a call for a special practice Thursday night at 8 o'clock, when the ghost ball will be brought forth again. Multnomah defeated Aberdeen, 15-3. Multnomah defeated Aberdeen, 15-3, last Saturday. "We must have another practice game or we will get a beautiful lacing

y Gregon on Thanksgiving day," ex-lained Captain Convill last night. "I have been rather puzzled about the lineup and have practically decided to ake an extraordinary switch. "Clyde Rupert likely will be called upon to act as quarterback against Oregon because of his great experi-ence running the Winged M team. Rupert is not as fast as Rodes, but he showed in the Idaho game last Fall that for a 200-pounder he can get over the ground yet. Rupert runs the team as fast as any of the college quarter-make the prohibition amendment effec-

"The people showed by their votes last Tuesday," he continued, "that they approve of our present system of gov-ernment, when they failed to pass the initiative measures providing for abolition of the Senate. "It now remains for the Senate to justify the confidence that the people have displayed in that hody by pass-ing nothing but same, sensible laws and keeping the expenditures to a minimum. Nearly all members of the Senate whom I have seen since the election agree with me on that point." An insistent demand has grown up all over the state, he says, for tax reforms.
