PUBLICITY PLAN OUTLINED

Mr. Calef Names Campaign Issues to East Side Business Men.
Thirty-eight business men and representatives of East Side business concerns heard an explanation of the publicity campaign of the East Side Business Men's Club Monday night at the clubroom, 153 Grand avenue, by H. A. Calef, chairman of the committee.
"We recommend the use of a trade-mark design on all stationery and all advertising of East Side merchants, professional and business men," said Mr. Calef in his explanation of the plan. "Use these trade-marks and help build up the neighborhood in which you live and transact business."
Mr. Calef stated that it was planned to have the trade-mark printed in

RAIL ARBITRATION CALLS

D. W. Campbell, of Southern Pacific, Off to Attend Conference.
D. W. Campbell, assistant general manager of the Southern Pacific, left last night for San Francisco and will proceed from that point via Reno and Ogden to Chicago to attend a conference of operating representatives of the roads west of Chicago and a committee of engineers, representing the employees, with an arbitration board recently appointed under provisions of the Newlands act.
This conference proposes to settle the question of wages and working conditions for the engineers and firemen on all railroads west of Chicago. The question was the subject of continued discussions between the operating officials and the men direct, but

Kalama Store Is Robbed.

KALAMA, Wash., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Creveling's confectionery was robbed Sunday night, most of the loot being tobacco and canned goods. The thieves entered by breaking the front windows. This is the fourth of a series of burglaries here during the past few weeks.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends who were so kind to us during the illness and death of our husband and father, Patrick Hayes, and also for the beautiful floral tributes.

G. H. PERRY TO GIVE TALK

Ad Club Will Hear Panama-Pacific Advertising Agent Today.
George Hough Perry, one of the leading department store advertising celebrities of the United States, will address the Portland Ad Club today at noon at the Portland Hotel on the Panama-Pacific Exposition, of which he is the advertising director.
Mr. Perry has had a National reputation as an expert advertising man for over 20 years. He was John Wanamaker's first advertising manager when he opened up his New York City store and originated what is known as the "Wanamaker style of advertising." Two years ago he was chosen from among all the advertising men of the United States to take charge of ad-

IMPROVEMENT BODY MEETS

Portland Heights Club Selects Its Nominating Committee.
The Portland Heights Improvement Club held its regular monthly meeting at the Portland Heights clubhouse Monday night. Rev. H. D. Chambers presided. A committee, consisting of Rev. Mr. Chambers and A. E. Lincoln, secretary, was appointed to nominate officers for the ensuing year.
Mr. Lincoln read a letter from Frank J. Miller, a member of the State Railroad Commission, of Salem, who said that the reply of the streetcar company to the club saying that the Railroad Commission would not take up the matter of better streetcar service if only 20 persons or less were left standing in a car was erroneous.

Court Cuts Down Land Valuation.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The trial of the case of John Waterhouse against Clatsop County was completed before Judge Campbell of the Circuit Court today and the court awarded the plaintiff $662.50. The action was in the nature of an appeal from the decision of the County Court in allowing the plaintiff only $1 damages for right-of-way through his ranch near Knappa and the Columbia Highway. A total of 4.82 acres of land were taken and the plaintiff's original claim was $1225.
