BRIDGE EMPLOYE BILL UP.—At the request of County Commissioners Holman and Lightner, Deputy District Attorney Pierce yesterday drew a bill to be submitted to the coming session of the Legislature providing for placing all employes of the county on the bridges and ferries under civil service rules. Foremen of the different structures visited Deputy Pierce's office with the Commissioners. The plan is not to apply the new rules to men now in the employ of the county who are entitled to consideration because of long service, but to have them affect bridge tenders and ferry operatives who shall hereafter be employed. It is thought the new plan will do away with appointment to these places for political reasons and tend to secure the employment of competent men.

LAND COMPANIES INCORPORATE.—Articles of incorporation were filed with County Clerk Coffey yesterday by the Portland, Eugene & Coos Bay Land Company, which proposes to engage in a general business of dealing in land and laying out townsites. Capitalization is $100,000 and incorporators are: W. G. Robertson, H. R. Fleming and J. J. Fleming. Articles also were filed by the Portnomah Land Company, which will carry on a land business in this state, intending to invest Holland capital in mortgages in Oregon. Capital stock is stated as $5000 and incorporators are Frank T. Collier, William T. Conlin and R. F. Beatty.

JUDGE LINDSEY BETTER.—E. C. Lindsey, judge in one of the Gresham precincts during the election last week, who was stricken with paralysis while counting votes on the night following and removed to his home, was reported improving yesterday. He is still confined to his home. His two daughters, Mrs. Grace Quick and Mrs. Pearl Erickson, had been with him since the attack, but Mrs. Erickson returned to her home at Warren when Mr. Lindsey's condition improved. The attack was sudden. His right side was affected and he was rendered helpless. Mr. Lindsey is 63 years of age.

REV. S. A. ELLIOT TO SPEAK.—Rev. Samuel A. Elliot, D. D., son of President Elliot, of Harvard, a United States Commissioner for Indians, and president of the American Unitarian Association, will be in Portland Tuesday, November 17, when he will be the honored guest at a supper to be given by the Unitarian Club in the chapel of the Church of Our Father, Broadway and Yamhill streets. Men and women will be numbered among the guests who will assemble to meet the distinguished visitor. Reservations are being made through Sidney G. Lathrop, secretary of the club.

ATTORNEY ASKS $1300.—Charging the Pacific Bridge Company with a debt of $1300 for professional services rendered, Attorney Ralph R. Duniway brought suit against that concern yesterday, asking judgment for that sum. It is stated the plaintiff entered into a contract with the company in April, 1909, whereby he was to act as attorney with an annual retainer of $600. The contract is said to have continued until March of this year, when it was broken by the plaintiff. The amount sued for is said to be the balance remaining due upon the contract.

EMPLOYMENT PLAN UP.—Plans for the employment of jobless men this Winter on a farm near Scappoose were submitted briefly to the County Commissioners yesterday by Mrs. Hattie B. Lawrence, who is connected with the Pisgah Mission Home, and assistance was asked from the county in esablishing buildings and equipment for the use of men cared for on the farm. It was stated that a tract of 640 acres has been secured and at least 100 men can be housed. The request was placed on file pending the receipt of further information on the subject.

STREET BOND SALE NEAR.—An issue of $92,984.92 in ten-year, 6 per cent municipal improvement bonds will be sold by the city November 17. Bids will be received up to noon on the date of the sale. The bonds have been issued to raise money to pay for street and sewer work completed during the past month. The bonds are issued on the strength of liens given by property owners on property assessed for the cost of the improvements.

BASE LINE EXTENSION ASKED.—A petition from property owners in Eastern Multnomah County for the extension of the Base Line road was received by the County Commissioners yesterday and placed on file. It is asked that the thoroughfare be extended to the Sandy River and thence southeasterly along the west bank of the river to connect with the Upper Sandy River bridge.

REED EXTENSION LECTURE TONIGHT.—The third lecture in Reed extension course No. 19, supreme achievements in European literature, entitled "The Origin of the Homeric Poems," will be given by Dr. Kelley Rees, tonight at 8 o'clock in the Central Library. The normal class in physical education will meet in the college gymnasium at 8 P. M.

MOTHER'S LECTURE TODAY.—Breast feeding and weaning will be the subject of the lecture by Dr. J. B. Bilderback this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room 570 of the county Courthouse, under the auspices of the parents' educational bureau of the Oregon Congress of Mothers.

RABBI WISE TO TALK.—"Signs and Portents" will be Rabbi Wise's topic at Beth Israel tonight at 8. "The Women of Genesis" will be the subject tomorrow at 10:30. All are welcome. The Bible Study Circle will meet at the Library Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

ART SCHOOL HAS NO CANVASSER.—The Portland Art Association has issued a notice that any canvasser representing the Museum of Art or the Art School is unauthorized to do so by the school.

FOR RENT.—West Side, fine six-room corner flat, fireplace, furnace with hot water coil and every convenience, 721 Kearney, corner 22d; rent reasonable Call East 4496, mornings and evening. —Adv.

LENTS BAZAAR HELD.—The bazaar given Wednesday by the Women's Aid Society of the Lents German Reform Church in the church basement realized $106. There was a large attendance.

REED DRAMA TOMORROW.—The Reed College Drama Club will present John Galesworthy's "Pigeon" at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in the Lincoln High School auditorium.

HAWTHORNE CLUB TO MEET.—A mass meeting under the auspices of the Hawthorne Parent-Teacher Association will be held tomorrow night in the East Side Library. The members of the East Side Business Men's Club, the Ladd Improvement Association and the patrons and taxpayers of the school district are invited to co-operate with the association in making the meeting a success. All East Side schools that are interested in the new Franklin High School are requested by the chairman, Mrs. G. L. Buland, to send representatives. All who are interested in the location of the Hawthorne school will be invited to take part in the discussion.

POWELL STREET WIDENING LIKELY.—The widening of Powell street between East Nineteenth and Milwaukie streets from 50 to 60 feet is considered practically assured. At least, no opposition to the present proceedings has been started. It is proposed to take five feet off each side of the street. Powell street has double tracks of the Brooklyn carline and carries a heavy traffic of all kinds. The car tracks are so close to the curbs that a team cannot travel between the tracks and the curb. Powell street is one of the main arteries of the South East Side.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR RALLY TONIGHT.—The Congregational Christian Endeavor members will meet tonight at the Highland Congregational Church, East Sixth street North and Prescott street, for their fourth annual rally. A banquet at 6:15, at which Rev. E. S. Bollinger will preside, will be followed by a meeting at 8 o'clock, with Clarence Sprague presiding. Many addresses and special music will be features. The speakers include, Elbert Charman, Rev. J. J. Staub, Miss Lola House, C. J. Walker, Carl Starker, L. R. Carrick, G. Everett Baker, Dr. George E. Paddock and W. H. Lewis.

DOCTOR AWARDED $250.—An action brought against the estate of the late Frank Griffith and Tom Richardson, administrator, by Dr. Roy McDaniel to secure the payment of a physician's fee of $300 resulted yesterday in a verdict for the plaintiff for $250 by Judge Cleeton in Probate Court. Dr. McDaniel attended Mr. Griffith in his last illness, he having died of rabies following the bite of a dog in 1913. Considering the violent nature of the illness and the treatment necessary, it was considered the sum allowed was a reasonable fee.

CHURCH MEN ENTERTAIN.—The men of the Mount Tabor Methodist Episcopal Church entertained the entire membership at the church Wednesday night. A brief programme was given consisting of reading and music, and a short address by T. S. McDaniel, which was full of good humor and encouragement, and the pastor, Rev. E. O. Eldridge spoke words of appreciation of the work of the men. Rev. Mr. Eldridge is the new pastor who came to Portland from Medford, Or., and formerly from Washington, D. C.

ROY HALL IS BURIED.—Funeral services of Roy Hall, who died Sunday at Astoria, where he had gone for medical treatment, were conducted yesterday from the United Evangelical Church, in St. Johns, Rev. J. A. Goode, officiating. The funeral was under the auspices of the Masonic and Artisan lodges of St. Johns, of which he had been a member. Interment was made in Rose City Cemetery. Mr. Hall is survived by his father, living in Astoria, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Marcy and Miss Hazel Hall, of St. Johns.

CARPENTER CASE CONTINUED.—Habeas corpus proceedings brought yesterday before Judge Kavanaugh to secure the release of E. H. Carpenter, held in the County Jail on a warrant issued in San Francisco charging forgery, were continued until today, when arguments will be heard at noon. A motion was entered by Deputy District Attorney Murphy yesterday asking that the writ of habeas corpus be dismissed. Attorneys for Carpenter asked for time before arguing the motion and the request was granted.

JUNIOR UNION TO BE FORMED.—At a conference of the superintendents and leaders of the Junior Christian Endeavor Societies of Portland Tuesday night, it was decided to form a Junior Christian Endeavor Union in the city. A committee was appointed, which will meet Monday night to form plans for this union. Miss Jean Wolverton, recently elected city junior superintendent, and G. Evert Baker, president of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union, were present.

FUNERAL OF WILLIAM LEWIS HELD.—Funeral services of William Lewis, who died November 10 at the family residence, 205 Morris street, were held yesterday afternoon. The interment was made in Lone Fir Cemetery. Mr. Lewis was 61 years of age. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Lewis, and father of Mrs. Amanda Beharrell, George and Harry Lewis. He was a member of Rose City Camp, No. 191, Woodmen of the World.

SUICIDE ATTEMPT FOILED.—Suspicions aroused by the downcast appearance of Peter Olson, a transient roomer in the Bennett Hotel, caused the landlady of the hotel to investigate, with the result that she rescued Olson from probable death by suicide at 3 A. M. yesterday. Olson is manager of the Cumberland Apartments and had plugged the keyhole and turned on the gas. He was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

E. C. CARSON IS SOUGHT.—Mrs. E. O. McCreight, of Lenox, Iowa, has written the Portland Commercial Club asking information of her uncle, Ebineezer C. Carson, who was formerly a resident of this city. She says Carson is about 50 years old, and was formerly a cook on an Alaska boat. He was a member of the United Presbyterian Church. Mrs. McCreight says that Carson's sister is sick, and she wishes to inform him of the fact.

ESTACADA MAY AID CANNERY.—H. E. Lewis, president of the Gresham Fruitgrowers' Association, visited Estacada the first of the week and held a conference with business men and farmers over the matter of supplying fruit and vegetables to the co-operative cannery in Gresham next year. Mr. Lewis thinks the cannery will receive assistance of the growers at Estacada in the way of fruits and vegetables.

GRESHAM CLUB ELECTS.—The Gresham Industrial Girls' Club elected Wednesday at a meeting in the Gresham Library: President, Miss Mabel Metzger; vice-president, Miss Ocle Hafferty; secretary, Miss Gladys Wright; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Schwedler. Miss Clarisse Haile, librarian, is the adviser of the club. The history of the "Pilgrims of Massachusetts" will be studied Saturday.

CIRCLE TO HONOR "COMRADE."—The Peter A. Porter Circle, No. 25, Women of the Grand Army of the Republic, has drawn up a set of resolutions to memorize the death of their former member, Phillip Ream, Company C, Eleventh Ohio Infantry, Grand Army of the Republic. The funeral committee is composed of Ida Gunsolus, Alice C. Bosevell and Ruby M. Brown.

HUNTER MAY LOSE EYE.—While hunting in the hills west of Portland Heights late yesterday, Robert McCulloch, 19 years old, living at 257 Ford street, received a charge of cartridge shot in the eye when the magazine of his gun exploded. He probably will lose the optic. The Ambulance Service Company removed him to Good Samaritan Hospital.

FUNERAL CIVIL WAR VETERAN HELD.—Funeral services of Fuller Dill, veteran of the Civil War, who died at Roseburg November 9, were held yesterday at Holman's chapel, and the interment was made in Rose City Park Cemetery. Mr. Dill was 69 years of age and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary C. Dill.

AHAVAI SHOLOM SERVICES TONIGHT.—Services will be held at the Congregation Ahavai Sholom, corner Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. Rev. R. Abrahamson will officiate.

MAZAMAS TO TAKE TRIP.—For their Sunday trip, the Mazamas will gather at Twenty-third and Washington streets at 1:30 P. M. and take the Kings Heights car for Mount Calvary Cemetery. From there they will tramp south to Sylvan, thence by the Skyline boulevard to Mount Zion, and over the Patton road to South Broadway and Grant streets.

RATIONALISTS TO HEAR TALK.—"The Sanity of Jesus" will be the subject of a lecture by H. C. Uthoff before the Portland Rationalist Society Sunday night, in room A, Central Library, at 8 o'clock. E. A. Cantrell, who began a course of lectures last Sunday, will resume the series after his return from Canada, where he has gone on account of the serious illness of his mother.

SUSPECT IS FREED.—Alex Wuellenmeier, held in the County Jail for some weeks on a larceny charge, was allowed to go on his own recognizance yesterday by Judge McGinn. The man is a Swiss watchmaker and grave doubts exist as to his having done any wrong. It was stated the property he was accused of having stolen was his own.

H. C. ALLEN FOUND NOT GUILTY.—H. C. Allen, on trial in Judge McGinn's court on a charge of larceny, was found not guilty yesterday by the jury. The case was appealed from the Municipal Court, where Allen was sentenced to serve 100 days for the alleged theft of a bicycle.

LITERARY CLASS TO MEET.—The University of Oregon extension class in literary appreciation will meet with Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons in room B, Central Library, at 7:45 o'clock tonight.

STUDENTS TO MEET.—The Students' Association of the Pacific Chiropractic College will hold its regular meeting tonight in the Commonwealth building. Dr. S. F. Grover will make an address.

CLUBS TO HOLD DANCES.—The California and Nebraska state societies will hold a card party and dance at the Multnomah Hotel Wednesday night, November 18. All former residents of either of the states are invited.

HUMMEL CORSET PARLORS will be closed indefinitely January 1. Telephone appointments early, Marshall 406 and A 4159.—Adv.

PASTOR TO BE ADMAN

REV. S. R. HAWKINS SAYS SMALL PAY CAUSED RESIGNATION.

Minister Quits Central Christian Church to Publish Business Directory. Existence of Turmoil Denied.

Rev. Samuel R. Hawkins, whose resignation as pastor of the Central Christian Church will be presented formally to his congregation next Sunday, in speaking yesterday of the reasons for his retirement from the ministry said: "It is purely and simply a matter of business. There is no inharmony in the church now. The members are fine, good people, but I cannot support my family on what I have been receiving lately.

"With the beginning of the year I shall begin some advertising work that I have been planning for over a year. I am arranging to get out a business directory and have consulted some of the leading merchants and advertising men, who indorse my plan and give me the gretest encouragement.

"I came from Texas two years ago, thinking I was coming to a fine church, but I found it swamped with a heavy debt.

"I was called here for a salary of $2600 a year and have only received $1200. I don't want to hurt the church, but must admit that even that sum has been slow in coming. I must provide twenty-four meals for every day of the year. I must buy shoes and clothing, and must educate my children. Can I do it on such an income, and that uncertain?"

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins have six children.

The resolutions adopted by the board this week when the resignation was accepted say that Dr. Hawkins has unselfishly striven to build up the church, that the spiritual condition of the church is good, that harmony prevails and that it is with deep regret that the resignation is accepted. Dr. Hawkins tendered his resignation to the board several weeks ago and it was accepted only when the board found the pastor could not be persuaded to remain.

CHINESE SENT TO JAIL

Continuous Offender Sentenced for Having Contraband Opium.

Lee Sing, an aged Chinese who has a store at 85½ North Fourth street, was sentenced yesterday to 30 days in jail by Judge Bean, of the United States District Court. The charge, to which a plea of guilty was entered, was of having had contraband opium in his possession. It was Lee Sing's first appearance in Federal Court, although he had been in police court often on charges of frequenting and running an opium "joint" and conducting a gambling game.

Assistant United States District Attorney Johnson recommended that Lee Sing be sentenced to a jail term as he considered that the payment of a fine for the offense would be looked upon merely as the payment of a license and not as a punishment.

BEER IS NOT ALCOHOL

Beer is the combined extract of malt and hops—Malt builds up tissue—Hops is an invigorating tonic.

Beer contains natural carbonic acid gas, which gives it sparkling effervescence.

Beer contains 3½ to 4 per cent of alcohol developed by natural fermentation, just enough to preserve it.
