

WOODMEN HAVE GAY NIGHT AT ARMORY

Hood River Sends Delegation of 200 to Take Part in Order's Celebration.

CHINESE PARADE TODAY

Muts in Charge of Orientals' Baby Show—40, Including Two Pairs of Twins, Enter Contest. Today Exhibitors' Day.

TODAY'S PROGRAMME AT THE LAND PRODUCTS SHOW

Afternoon—Sweepstakes old-fashioned baby show; lecture on "Dry-Farming in Oregon," by D. M. Lowe; woolgrowers at 3 o'clock.

Evening—8 P. M., Chinese baby show; Ancient Order of Muts and Chinese of Portland parade; Y. M. C. A. programme in free theater.

After parading from the Woodmen's Temple to the Armory, the Woodmen of the World last night concluded their march through the aisles of the Exposition building and gave an exhibition of fancy drills. Hood River was represented by a delegation 200 strong. The programme was presented in the Armory Theater, the Progressive Business Men's Club sharing the honors of the evening, a big delegation from that club attending, although it had no separate programme.

The Hood River delegation began its celebration with a dinner late yesterday at the Portland Hotel. Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Louis W. Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dunne, A. F. Batscham and Miss Batscham and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kingsley.

This afternoon a committee from the Women of Woodcraft, with Mrs. Catherine Sittes as chairman, will meet at the Armory to award the grand sweepstakes prize to the prettiest boy and girl babies who won prizes in the recent contest. The baby contestants are: Margaret, daughter of Mrs. Victor Earl Cordella, daughter of Mrs. W. B. D. Lodson; Charlotte, daughter of Mrs. W. R. Frichard; Floyd, son of Mrs. J. R. White; Rubi, son of Mrs. G. H. Morgan; and Bob, son of Mrs. H. A. Adams. The contest will begin at 2 o'clock P. M.

Prizes Awarded Today.

Today also is Exhibitors' day. More than 200 prizes will be awarded. Officials of the show say that the distribution of premiums has been one of the favorite attractions to the general public.

"The prizes have all been of real value," said T. F. Pierce, chairman of the committee on exhibits. "The distribution of gifts has been one of the features of the show, the exhibitors co-operating with us. The numbers on the booths prompt all the ticket holders to look for the prizes. This has enabled every exhibitor to get in personal touch with the visitors."

Chief among the attractions for tonight is the Chinese baby show. The little Celestials are expected to be in force. The Chinese and Muts, led by a Chinese band, will parade through the streets of the show. The children and mothers and the tiny contestants will occupy automobiles.

Babies After Four Prizes.

Four prizes will be awarded, one for the prettiest Chinese baby, one for the fattest, one for the best Chinese costume and one to the youngest contestant.

The Muts, who are in charge of this part of the programme, announce that so far they have enrolled 40 contestants. A partial list of the babies follows: Three children of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Yuet, two children of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hoy and two children of Mr. and Mrs. Wong Cheuk Mun, all from 71 North Fourth street; two children of Mr. and Mrs. Young Chong, 256 1/2 Flanders street; two children of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bott, 71 North Fourth street; the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Yu Chong, 246 Pine street; four children of Mr. and Mrs. Young Chong, 307 Jefferson street; two children of Mr. and Mrs. Soo Fat, 427 second street; two children of Mrs. Charlie Lock, 208 Taylor street, and two children of Mr. and Mrs. Wong On, 93 1/2 North Fourth street.

The children entered by Mr. and Mrs. Mo On, of 462 Marguerite avenue, are two pairs of twins.

CONCORDIA CLUB TO ACT

Comic Opera to Be Presented in Hall Thanksgiving Night.

A combination of comic opera and farce entitled "Love Feast of the Nation" is being rehearsed by members of the Concordia Club for presentation on the club stage Thanksgiving night, November 26. The play was written by Mrs. Max Hirsch and Mrs. Sanford Lowengart and it is understood that it will sparkle with local hits.

The nature of the plot is kept secret by the members of the cast, that it may be a complete surprise.

The "Love Feast of the Nation" will be a jangle of songs and dances and all the principals will have singing parts. The words have been adapted to music by Miss Constance Piper, who will act as accompanist. The six leading parts will be taken by Mrs. Herman Politz, Miss Mildred Meyer, Herbert Frank, Mason Ehrman, Harry Levinson and Siegfried Hirsch. In addition to the principals there will be a chorus of 10 voices. The dancers are being drilled by Robert Krohn. Sanford Lowengart will be stage manager.

The entertainment will be supplemented by a skit, written by Mrs. Lowengart, which will be presented by the authors and Charles Berg.

MEN MAKE UP IN COURT

JUDGE M'GINN, KNOWING DEFENDANT AND SIRE, URGES PEACE.

Wood Dealers Who Had Fought Over Car Shake Hands When Jurist Shows Futility of Quarrel.

Judge McGinn played the role of peacemaker yesterday. The judge stopped the case of the State versus Dan Ross, charged with assault and battery upon Henry Schultz, effected a reconciliation between the men, made them shake hands and told them to go in peace.

The first witness testified as to a fight at Latourelle Falls, where the two engaged in an altercation over loading a freight car with cordwood, when the judge asked if the defendant were Dan Ross. Being told Dan Ross was the defendant, Judge McGinn declared he knew the man and his father before him, as well as others of the Reoster Rock neighborhood, and that the best interests of all would be served by making up the quarrel and dismissing the case.

"Here is a man with a family and if I impose a fine upon him it will fall upon them," said the judge.

The case was appealed from the District Court, where Ross was found guilty and fined $60. Ross and Schultz are wood dealers and fought over a car spotted at Latourelle for wood loading. Evidence at the former trial showed Ross struck Schultz with a stick of wood.

The case of the state against B. Meisger, who conducts a beauty parlor in the Dekam building, was then called. After hearing some testimony an adjournment was ordered, that witnesses might be summoned, and it will be concluded later. Meisger is accused of having conducted the business under an assumed name and that untrue inducements were held out to pupils of the beauty specialists.

LODGE HONORS 20TH YEAR

Oddfellows of Utopia, No. 62, Celebrate on East Side.

Utopia Rebekah Lodge No. 62, of Oddfellows, celebrated its 20th anniversary last night in the hall of Orient Lodge, at East Sixth and East Alder streets, members of the lodge and their families attending. The hall was decorated for the occasion, the officers' rostrums being covered with evergreen. The programme consisted of music, short talks on the history of the lodge and literary numbers.

Mrs. Anna Holt and Mrs. Nellie Prior, past noble grante, made short addresses. Henry S. Westbrook, grand warden, and Robert Andrews, grand high priest, conveyed greetings and congratulations from the grand lodge of Oregon and the grand encampment.

Utopia Lodge is the parent of many grand officers. Among its active members are Past Grand Master and Grand Representative W. A. Wheeler; P. W. Stewart, grand representative; O. R. Miller, past grand patriot; Robert Andrews, past grand master and past grand high priest; S. W. Stryker, past grand representative; Mary Tomlinson, grand trustee; Nellie Dunning, past president; Henry S. Westbrook, grand warden.

FAMILY NEEDS WATER, TOO

Deserted Wife and Three Children Cannot Pay Rental.

Additional want was added to the many troubles of a destitute family on the East Side yesterday when the City Water Bureau shut off the water at the little home because the rent was not paid. In addition to payment of the back rent for the water the family will have to pay 50 cents for the privilege of getting water again.

The case is in the hands of the Associated Charities and assistance is asked. The family consists of a deserted wife and three children, the oldest 12 and the youngest 6 years of age.

STATE NEEDS TO BE TOLD

Club Boards to Dine Senators and Representative-elect.

Senators Lane and Chamberlain and Representative McArthur will be guests of the board of trustees of the Chamber of Commerce and the governors of the Commercial Club at a luncheon in the Commercial Club at 12:15 today. The luncheon will be strictly informal, and only members of the two boards will be present.

The object of the meeting is to acquaint the Oregon delegation in Washington with the exact needs of the state.

DOCK TO BE IMPROVED

MUNICIPAL WHARF WILL HAVE SECOND ENTRY SOON.

Assurance Gives Manufacturers' Association That Oregon Products Will Have Preference.

Second of the entrances to Municipal Dock No. 1 will be started without delay if bids to be opened November 22 are satisfactory, as the Commission of Public Docks has requested tenders to extend sidetracks from the north end of the first unit of the dock to the end of the second completed section, and to build an entrance roadway from Front street to the second unit, which will likewise serve the warehouse. When the slip and pier at the north end of the dock are finished a third entrance will be made available, so teams entering either end of the dock can move out without detention and the maneuvering of vehicles, which now proves a drawback, will be eliminated.

"FLY-BY-NIGHTS" QUARRY

Hotels May Be Required to Report Arrival of Direct Vendors.

As another move in the campaign against "fly-by-night" merchants in Portland, City Commissioner Bigelow is preparing an ordinance which, if passed by the City Council, will require all hotel proprietors to report to the city license bureau all transient merchants arriving at the hotels with the intention of selling goods direct to consumers.

The ordinance is being patterned after a similar measure existing in San Francisco. It is said the plan will enable the license officials to call on the visiting dealers as soon as they reach the city.

Two Cars at Price of One—

Two things are responsible for the ready, steady sales of Hupmobiles at this season.

One, according to Dulmage, Manley Auto Co., who represents the Hupmobile in this territory, is the increased size and five-passenger room of the new model.

The other is the detachable sedan top for the touring car and a similar coupe top for the roadster.

Dulmage, Manley Auto Co. says this gives every Hup buyer the chance of getting two cars at very little more than the price of one.

The prospect of driving all Winter in cosy comfort is most alluring to the majority of buyers; and the new tops are receiving hearty approval.

The new tops are very reasonable in price; easily attached; look better by far than any other of the sort we have ever seen; are well built and beautifully finished inside.

We advise you to see them.
