At a largely attended meeting of members of the Committee of One Hundred, which conducted the fight for Oregon dry, at the Public Library last night it was unanimously decided that the committee as an organization present to the 1915 Legislature and request it to pass intact a measure drawn up in the spirit of the amendment to the constitution passed at the last election.

Neither the Governor nor Miss Hobbs would deny that the appointment was contemplated, but Miss Hobbs wanted to know: "Who told you that, anyway?" All her answers to questions regarding her probable appointment were evasive, and were much unlike those made recently, when she positively denied that she was being considered for the First Assistant Attorney-Generalship.
