DUTCH FUND GROWS

Attractive Girls Canvassing to Help Hollanders.

ONE DIME COMES HARD

Decked in Native Costume Sextet Visits Arcadian Gardens and Office Buildings—Campaign Will Last Several Days.

"After he'd asked me every possible question, and kept me there talking for half an hour, he gave me this." One of the pretty girls who spent yesterday afternoon collecting money for the Holland relief fund held up a battered 10-cent piece to the view of her five co-collectors as she made this statement. She was dressed in the Holland peasant costume. The materials, however, were rather more expensive than a war-stricken peasant girl could provide.

On her head she had a lace cap, made somewhat in the manner of an old-fashioned sunbonnet. A "speldook" of straw, made of Holland lace, was draped around her shoulders. Her waist and skirt were of the pattern affected by Queen Elizabeth. Her contribution to the pile of coin on the table, however, indicated that she had met others more generous.

Her five countrywomen giggled reminiscently. "We got a lot of money," said one, "but we did meet some funny folks." The total sum collected by the girls yesterday was $275. In the collection were two or three pennies and a few pieces of gold. Most of the contributions were dollars, half-dollars and quarters.

The relief campaign began at the Multnomah Hotel yesterday. The girls visited the Arcadian Gardens first and finished the day's work with a room-to-room canvass of the Chamber of Commerce building. Today they will visit the Commercial Club building. The campaign will continue for more than a week.

Those conducting the canvass are: Miss E. Van Vleet, Miss A. Pluyfjaar, Miss Alice Buys, Mrs. D. Swart, Mrs. P. de Leeuw Van Weenan and Mrs. W. Van Meteren.

SCHOOL ROBBED AGAIN

$100 SAXOPHONE IS TAKEN FROM WASHINGTON HIGH.

TEACHERS ORDER LOCKING OF ALL CHAMBERS AND DETECTIVES MAY BE ASKED TO FIND THIEVES.

The theft of the saxophone probably will cause a request to be made to the city detective department to lend aid in ferreting out the thieves.

At the opening of the school session yesterday afternoon the students were warned against leaving valuables in their desks.

The appeal for aid from detective headquarters is made, it will mean the locking of all chambers and detectives may be asked to find thieves.

The announcement was made by the teachers simultaneously with the edict that in future cloakrooms would be closed and locked during class hours and at noon would be available only from the doors leading into the rooms.

Until the epidemic of thefts has been checked the hall doors to the cloakrooms will remain barred. So far as possible everything will be kept under lock and key.

At present secretaries, while subject to civil service jurisdiction, are serving without having taken examinations. They virtually are serving under temporary appointments. To continue in the service after January 1 they will have to pass the test put to them by the Civil Service Board.

TAXICAB MEASURE PRAISED

No Opposition Expected to Proposed Law for Posting Fares on Vehicles.

Owners and drivers of taxicabs, it is expected, will not oppose the ordinance which City Commissioner Daly is having prepared to require the posting of schedules of rates conspicuously both outside and inside taxicabs. The measure is regarded as the most reasonable solution of the taxicab rate problem. It was felt that the ordinance submitted to the Council recently by Mr. Daly establishing a maximum for taxicab rates, was not the proper plan.

Mr. Daly started yesterday to prepare the new measure requiring the posting of the rate schedule inside and outside taxicabs. He says it is his opinion and probably the opinion of the majority of the Council members that patrons of taxicabs should determine for themselves what price they want to pay for taxicab service.

BEER IS NOT ALCOHOL

Beer is the combined extract of malt and hops—Malt builds up tissue—Hops is an invigorating tonic.

Beer contains natural carbonic acid gas, which gives it sparkling effervescence. Beer contains 3 1/2 to 4 per cent of alcohol developed by natural fermentation, just enough to preserve it.

Just as Good and a Little Better

The dealer who tries to sell you something "just as good" does so because he believes it better for his "profits."

He is shortsighted enough to believe that a little extra money is worth more than a satisfied customer.

Shun the "just as good" store-keeper as you would a short-change artist.

Mr. Galvani's theme was "War," but his talk was for peace. He reviewed the causes of the present conflict and showed by figures the terrible havoc being wrought in the "sorrowful carnivals" which in cost are costing the warring nations $50,000,000 a day.

In closing his address Mr. Galvani took occasion to laud the Turk as a "gentleman, which he is," said Mr. Galvani. "Of course, you find roughnecks in every nation, but the Turk is a gentleman," he concluded.
