TEACHER DIES OF BURNS

Efforts to Rescue Pupils From Wyoming Prairie Fire Are Fatal.

puplis from a prairie fire. Miss Rhein-hart taught a country school near Horse Creek. A cloud of smoke pierced with tongues of flame yosterday heralded the approach of the fire. The teacher realized that the blaze, driven by a high wind, was rushing straight for the schoolhouse. Sending the children to a rocky hill nearby, Miss Rheinhart went out to fight the flames in frontier fashion by burning off a strip of prairie in front of the main fire. She succeeded thus in diverting the blaze from the school-house.

"On our left operate the unit of Colonel Z-___. It is a reserve unit, but the name of its chief even more than its military valor makes it the equal of units of the active army. When you ask the men of this brigade who their commander is, they respond with pride and almost contempt at your Ignorance 'Why, Colonel Z,' they say,

Name Is More Than Flag.

"It is extraordinary to see how the prestige of a name is able to transform a troop and give it cohesion. This name is more than a flag. It is for these colonial reservists a gage of success, a fetish.
