We can wait with the sites for the Hawthorne School site and the trades school site. I am not in favor of acquiring those properties until we are ready to build upon them." Salaries Not Affected.

Dr. Sommer declared that he recently heard reports that the 4.8-mill levy would reduce salaries of teachers, and emphatically asserted that the salary of not a single employe of the Board will be affected by the lower levy. He pointed out that the Board already has a trade school site on the West Side and declared that this should utilized or disposed of before an additional site is acquired. He referred to the site on Market street, between Sixth street and Broadway. He appealed to the taxpayers not to support the plans of the Board to "speculate in real estate," as he characterized the plans of the Board to acquire property and hold it idle for a Mrs. Sarah H. Wilder created some excitement for a few minutes by making a motion for a 45-mill tax. There was no second to the motion. "Let's make it 3 mills," shouted someone back in the crowd in an evident attempt to be sarcastic. Dr. Smith, one of the directors, moved toward the front of the platform, but ing the coming year, and the board has Chairman Munly interrupted him.

"This isn't a directors' meeting," said the chairman. "It is your meeting," but he could proceed no farther. There was much rumbling and mur-

J. E. Werlein rang out with: "You're all right, Smith!" Mr. Werlein was one of the leaders f a large delegation of persons living the Hawthorne school district who were there to support the Board.

Dr. Smith concluded with an appeal to the people to support the Board in its efforts to conduct the schools wise-as W. L. Boise took the platform. Mr. Boise met the uproar undismayed. He proceeded with his speech and soon had the attention of everyone, Change of Plan Hoped For. "In the first place," he declared, "there are not one-tenth of the people here tonight who are entitled to vote. "As taxpayers we ought to uphold the hands of the Board. I hope, though, that this will be the last meeting of this kind. The mext Legislature ought to pass a law giving the Board the power to fix the levy."

He explained that the difference between

At this juncture there was a demand that Mr. Dolph withdraw his motion, which he did at the request of Mr. Teal. Then Mr. Teal moved that the chairman reappoint the usual auditing committee to serve for the ensuing year. After a second by J. E. Werlein, the motion carried by a large vote and Chairman Munly accordingly renamed L. D. Fleming, J. B. Tanner and C. F. Wiegand as the official auditing com-mitted. Then at 9:15 o'clock the chairman put the motion to adjourn and it carried without apparent opposition. The taxpayers had been in session exactly one hour and 15 minutes.

All But Dr. Sommers Sign.

The following report was made by he directors and signed by all Board nembers except Dr. Sommer: Ladies and Gentlemen—For your informa-tion and guidance, the School Board of Dis-trict No. 1, herein submits to you a brief summary of what has been accomplished during the past year, together with its recommendations for a tax levy for school needs for the year of 1915.

Outlays.

It has been found necessary during 1914 to purchase a number of sites for new tehools and to enlarge areas around existing school buildings, partly through direct purchase and partly through condemnation proceedings. proceedings.

There is need of new and additional grounds at Alameda, Albina Homestead, Arleta, Beaumont, Brooklyn, Chapman, Clinton Kelly, Eliot, Hawthorne, Holman, Richmond, Trades and Woodlawn. It is not possible for all these needs to be satisfied dur-to take care of those which are absolutely necessary.

Pour new elementary buildings and one addition have been contracted, and two new manual training and domestic science buildings have been constructed.

There has been a large amount of work done during the past year in repairs and betterments. Humiditiers, electrical lights, additional toilets and ventilating fans have been installed.

Mr. Munly smiled and bowed and motioned for Dr. Smith to come forward.

"I'm never afraid to come before any body of people and support my action as a public official," said Dr. Smith.

He explained how the Board has labored to eliminate expenses, and defended in every detail the proposed body mill levy. He declared the property now being considered as a trades school site previously had been offered to the Board for $125,000 and that later the owners—the Anglo-Pacific Realty Company—bad agreed to accept $100,000, The Board recently offered $90,000 for the site, which is at East First, Adams, Multnomah and Hassalo streets, covering two full blocks.

Dr. Smith reviewed the work of the Board and told of the time and effort that the members put 40 the work of the district without remuneration.

"Can you tell me," he asked. "why we would come here and ask for this levy if we after careful consideration.

During the Year $94,000 in refunding the pear $94,00 Fire Problem and Safety.

"Can you tell me," he asked, "why we would come here and ask for this levy if we, after careful consideration, did not think it was the best thing for the community?"

Bonds.

During the year $94,000 in refunding bonds were redeemed, reducing the bonded indebtedness of the district to $766,000. To provide a fund for the redemption of bonds, the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has, for each of the past several the board has the board h its efforts to conduct the schools wisely and economically.

The applause that followed him showed clearly that sentiment favored the Board's programme.

Cries of "Question," "Question," "question," igain came from all parts of the hall of the board to continue the same.

Evening Schools,

Evening schools have become one of the large problems of the district. During the past few years they have grown rapidly until at the present time they embrace all branches of school work, including high, elementary and commercial schools, schools of trades and classes for foreigners. This Winter the board has opened them in such buildings throughout the district as would best serve the several communities. The total registration during the first month of the present term was 2762, occasioning the employment of 11st teachers. Credita are given pupils equal to one-third of the credits for regular work in the day schools.

Vacation Schools. Evening Schools, tween the two reports is only two-tenths of 1 mill, which will be a difference of only 20 cents for every $1000 of assessed valuation of property.

"Now I don't believe in giving the Board a single dollar more than it is asking for," he continued, "but I don't believe in taking a dollar away from it.

"I for one believe in upholding the hands of the Board and telling the members that we appreciate the work they are doing for the community."

Woman's Motion Loses.

Vacation Schools.

To meet the demands for vacation schools which were first established Biree years ago, on a more extensive and practical scale, and is elementary and one high two selections of trades for both boys and girls, were opened. Also manual training and sewing classes were organized. The total registration of pupils in the Summer schools was 5388. It is our plan to continue the Sammer schools next year.

Woman's Motion Loses.

Woman's Motion Loses.

Mrs. Wilder again gained the attention of the chair and mounted the platform to renew her previous motion for a 4.5-mill levy. The motion was declared out of order.

At this point Chairman Munly rebuked Dr. Sommer for his earlier reference to the Board's "speculating in real estate," and declared such language "unworthy a brother member."

In spite of efforts of various persons to gain the floor, Mr. Munly put the substitute motion for a 4.8-mill levy.

The response of "ayes" and "noes" was equally deafening.

He then put the count and declared the motion lost.

He then put the original motion of Mr. Boise for a 5-mill levy.

The recommendations as adopted.

"We wrestled for it and the gun went off. The bullet struck Arthur in the side of the head just above the ear and he fell over on the bed. Then I went and told the proprietor of the rooming-hous of the shooting."

they thought the boy was innocent of any intention to shoot his companion. In describing the shooting he took a revolver and illustrated his version of the accident, showing how the two, standing closely together, sought to secure possession of the gun.

SOME men are awful anxious to fight as long as somebody's holdin' 'em. But turnin' 'em loose takes all the fight out of 'em as completely as agein' takes the bite out o' VELVET.

What is "bite" in tobacco? It's a harshness that comes usually of insufficient curing and ageing. Good tobacco ought to have strength in it—and ageing turns that strength into mellow smoothness. That's the simple truth about VELVET, Kentucky's Burley de Luxe, which has two years' ageing. 10c tins and 5c metal-lined bags. Liggett & Myers Tobacco Ca.

Search for the companions of "Dutch Pete" Strof, alleged safe cracker, who was wounded, it is believed, while attempting to rob Charles Jarl, a merchant, at Kelso, last Monday, was continued by the local police and Shoriff Mass, of Clackamas County, yesterday. Strof is still in a dangerous condition at St. Vincent's Hospital.

Believing that the man was at the point of death Captain Baty, with Detectives Hellyer, Tackaherry and Kelahaher, hurried to the hospital to get a dying statement from him. He refused. Jarl shot a robber believed to be Strof during an attempted holdup at the point of a gun while two other men dynamited the safe in Jarl's store. The police say they have traced two of the robbers to Portland.
